

Discerning Masonic Subversion

Your Guide to Detecting the Media's Lies, Propaganda, and Disinformation

By James D. Barnes

And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

- The Book of Revelation of St. John the Divine

“By their works shall ye know them”

...and their propaganda tropes; These convict the conspirators of their guilt. The ubiquitous presence of consistent propaganda messages throughout the media is all the evidence you need to prove the reality of an ongoing Masonic conspiracy. Many, but not all, of their regularly deployed propaganda tropes are identified in this book. The reader will see that these messages do not arise by chance but are linked directly to Masonic philosophical doctrine and appear again and again in movies, TV shows, comic books, songs, and novels. This is all part of what Masons refer to as the slow change agenda.

This was all foretold in the scriptures as “the false prophet” and “the image of the beast” and so, this book is dedicated to Jesus Christ, whose church the freemasons seek to destroy.

What does this mean? The dog represents us, the everyman of the public. The can represents the subversion agenda of the Freemasons which the Masons think we are powerless to detect. The dog is brainlessly influenced by the clatter produced by the can; terrorized by that which is easily discarded and can quickly be overcome if one is simply aware of the trick.

The Truth about Masonic Subversion

Subversion is actually much older than Sun-Tzu, whom some say originated subversion. In fact, subversion originated full-formed in Biblical times as something called the Doctrine of Balaam; subverting the faithful to ruin them and make them like the subverters. This book seeks to let you know who it is who is sabotaging you on a daily basis to keep you miserable, what their methods are, and what their motivation is. Some say that the KGB (now called FSB) are the main authors of modern subversion. I don't deny that they are involved, but there is an overarching orchestrator to even their machinations. It is Freemasonry, an anti-Christian organization which pretends to be merely a benevolent organization that raises money for charity. If this is true, why have so many media sick-o's admitted to their involvement in Freemasonry? Do you really think Michael Aquino, Anton LaVey, H.P. Lovecraft, G.G. Allin, Trent Reznor, or Marilyn Manson ever really gave a damn about raising money for burned children...?

Subversion, or the Doctrine of Balaam, is mentioned in the Bible in the Book of Revelation:

But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

- The Book of Revelation

THE DOCTRINE OF BALAAM

Where did subversion come from? Who are Balaam and Balak?

Balak was a sorcerer and King of the Moabites, a people who busied themselves worshipping Chemosh, frequently called Ashtar-Chemosh, a war/virility god. The Moabites inscribed stones describing the sacrificing of children and whole cities worth of captives to this abominable idol. One stone refers to Balak promising Chemosh that he would perform the human sacrifice of the entire population of a city he was laying siege to, if he could but capture it. The stone recorded that when it was captured, Balak, true to his word, put the entire population on sacrificial altars and slew them one by one to Chemosh. When not slaughtering innocent people, Balak and the Moabites likely performed Baal-esque sex rites. Ever ambitious to magnify his ego through military triumph, Balak saw the God-given martial successes of the ancient Israelites and jealously despised them for it even though YHWH had forbidden the Israelites to wage war against the Moabites. To sabotage them without actually confronting them, as a coward would do, Balak enlisted the sorcerer Balaam "the wicked one" to help him put a curse on the Israelites. This Balak did by playing to Balaam's well-known greed, promising to shower him with riches. Balaam agreed, and the two of them would have commenced to work their sorceries. However, on the day that Balaam was to meet Balak outside the impressive camps of the Israelites and begin their sorcerous cursings together, Balaam's donkey was oddly paralyzed with fear and would not move. After beating the animal in frustration, Balaam was suddenly allowed to see the glorious sword-wielding Angel of the Lord that was in the road ahead frightening the poor donkey into paralysis. When Balaam saw this formidable angel he was deeply cowed, and begged for mercy, asking YHWH for permission to simply return to his home, suddenly wanting nothing more to do with the agreement with Balak, although in his heart he still lusted after Balak's promised riches. The Lord told Balaam to proceed on to Balak and to meet him, but as far as placing the curses, he must say nothing other than what he, YHWH, directed him to say. Balaam understandably acceded to God's command and went on his way, meeting Balak as appointed. It transpired that the Israelites had camped in a little valley with four rocky prominences surrounding it. Balak then bade Balaam to go upon each of the peaks overlooking the Israelites one at a time and to pronounce four curses against them, for as Balak said to Balaam, "I have seen, and I know; he whom thee blesseth is blessed, and whom thee curseth is indeed cursed". As Balaam climbed each peak in turn, the Lord told him what to say, but instead of four curses, at God's direction, Balaam ended up placing four blessings upon the Israelites instead. Although Balak had been listening the whole time, Balaam defended himself saying, "I had no choice, I could not go against God!" Balak was quite annoyed, and refused to pay Balaam for the services rendered. However, Balaam still lusted after Balak's money. Seeing after a while that God had turned his attentions from him, Balaam then made other attempts to help Balak at sabotaging the Israelites in hopes of indeed gaining some valuable reward from the Moabite King. Finally, and most significantly here, Balaam deduced an exploitation of God's laws as a "formula" for a new weapon Balak could deploy against the Children of Israel; the idea was to seduce them; to trick them into sinful practices of every conceivable sort, because, as Balaam told Balak, "The God of the Hebrews hates lewdness and a severe chastisement must follow". It was decided to tempt the Hebrews to the worship of Baal-peor, which might be likened to an extremely base and decadent form of Shaivism; veneration of graven idols and representations of sexual organs, accompanied by ultra-permissive orgiastic rites, which generally exist as an excuse to allow people to live and act like dogs.

So, as this pertains to the understanding of Subversion, when Christ said to John, "But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel..." Christ was warning us that there are STILL people and EVER SHALL BE people in the world who delight in trying to sabotage all those seekers of the way, Christian or Jew, who love God, by intentionally presenting them with endless opportunities to corrupt themselves.

This is THE weapon of the enemy we must guard against.

It must be here pointed out that Edgar Cayce said that the antichrist would not be a man, but would rather be a peculiar brand of morals which would be the inversion of all of Christ's teachings and that this would begin in the media of the day after 1998.

One look at the media tells us this is the time of the antichrist.

So who is it that is out there "crafting the doctrine of Balaam"?

Obviously, it is the people who own the media; the Freemasons and the FSB [former KGB] own much if not all of the media. It might surprise you (then again, it might not!) to learn that the MTV studios in New York City are built inside a gigantic Masonic Lodge. One does not even get into the door without being a Freemason. It follows that EVERY famous musician you'd care to name is either a Freemason or a three-letter agent or both, as is certainly evidenced by the similar themes and common threads throughout the lyrics of songs inflicted upon the public over the radio waves since the birth of Rock & Roll. The whole of the film industry of the world is now in absolutely the same situation. Analyse the messages from books, movies, novels, songs, to come out recently and all you'll hear is antireligion, sex, amorality, witchcraft, Satanism, "love 'em and leave 'em", and, "there's a NEW DAWN coming" ... This last being a reference to the doctrines of the eye-in-the-triangle crowd of 33° Freemasons who believe that the Age of Aquarius, the next sign in the procession of the equinoxes, heralds a new satanic age in which all knowledge of Christ has been swept from the earth to make it safe for everyone to worship "Baphomet, the god of forces of dissolution and coagulation"; a horned lump of rock which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk, which they'd like to believe permits them to secretly corrupt people and indulge themselves in every conceivable wicked act.

I may as well here point out that Baphomet's name is a portmanteau:

Basileus philosophorum metalor

King of the philosophers METALS

This refers to the idea of the "universal solvent"; this bafflegab is intended to symbolize the words written on the arms of idols of Baphomet the Freemasons worship; "coagulate" and "dissolve" which refers to their philosophy of cementing their hold over the world in every possible manner while simultaneously everywhere undermining however possible the target of their hate, the Judeo-Christian establishment, and in particular, belief in Jesus Christ.

It may surprise you to learn, (then again it might not!) That JK Rowling, of Harry Potter fame, has the words, "coagulate" and "dissolve" tattooed on her arms, just like her god, Baphomet. Look it up. Yes, she's a Freemason witch dedicated to subverting Christian youth.

Going back to the abomination of the Moabites, the idol Ashtar-Chemosh of Balak; it is extremely interesting that the name Ashtar has been adopted by a UFO cult that claims to be in contact with a space alien called Ashtar who gives his servants "channelled messages" in the form of unabashed globalist one world government propaganda slogans. This cult is called "Ashtar Command". This "cult" is just a front for subverting spiritual people to belief in space aliens instead of God. This is almost funny in the light of Balaam's doctrine of casting a stumbling block before the children of Israel; they have taken Balak's very god Ashtar-Chemosh and refashioned him into a weapon of the Masonic-communist UFO deception; part of a ploy for centralized world government!

Yes, in case you didn't know, the whole UFO thing has been perpetrated by the KGB/FSB and the Freemasons since its very inception as a deception designed to trick people into adopting the cosmological principle; that is, the false belief that the earth is a rock hanging in an infinite space with some unimportant growths on it called humans and that it is just one such rock among limitless numbers, tricking people into concluding that their life is totally meaningless and unimportant, when in fact human life is the reason for everything in existence. Furthermore, the perpetual refrain of the 1950's media phenomenon of the Contactee "space brothers" was always, "earth must start a one world government in order to join the galactic federation".

Over the years, the Contactee movement diminished (as presumably it was too transparent!) and the grey alien nonsense appeared. It is very amusing to trace how the UFO deception has evolved right along with Masonically-induced societal changes. They started out as very peaceful perfect blonde Nordic beings, and when it became problematic to the Freemasons' subversion policy to represent "higher beings" as beautiful Caucasians, they replaced them with the more edgy and spooky short bulbous-headed characters of different colors; blue, grey, brown, etc. to tie in with their stratagem of Levelling (explained below). Nowadays, they're at the stage of subversion where they're pushing existential bleakness, fear, and uncertainty, so now we have pictures of really nightmarish grey aliens and reptilians filling the internet. Gone are the comparatively milquetoast benign cone heads of the 1970's (which were really there primarily to confuse the public about the long-skulled Incan Eljo – the offspring of Fallen Angels who left their remains behind in Peru.) However, the subversion authors are still telling us that "aliens" are a threat and we might only be able to defend ourselves if we "get over our differences and meld into a one world government". And needless to say, the goofball alien threat hoax has been the subject of endless books, comics, TV shows, and movies. Publicity stunts have also abounded, such as the Ummono affair, which always demonstrably have direct ties to the KGB/Freemason-riddled UN. The Ashtar Command movement is a particular smoking gun, using the doctrine of Balaam to trick modern religious people into "worshipping" Balak and the Moabites' very god; Ashtar-Chemosh! If people would study, they would not get fooled by this laughable silliness. (And no doubt even now there are those among you with hearts palpitating in objection to this and calling me a shill. Well, as Yuri Bezmenov said, some people WANT to be subverted.)

Edgar Cayce never mentioned aliens; in fact the readings indicated something that is the complete opposite of the cosmological principle; when asked what the center of the universe was, Cayce said, "The Christ potential in every human soul is the true center of the universe! Never doubt that, although individual humans may seem small compared to the massive sizes of the solar system's planets, KNOW that humanity is the ONLY reason for their existence; all of this machinery exists FOR YOU".

The Readings also constantly proved the veracity of astrology, which is why the antichrist media has been so anxious for you to reject it. What Cayce was referring to above is that planetary influences help shape the human personality to provide a wealth of different developmental experiences over successive incarnations as different people born under different astrological signs.

It is well to know that part of Masonic doctrine is "to sew falsehoods as dogma and horde the actual truth to be exploited only by masonry itself so that the every effort of the barbarians (us) will be sabotaged at the fundamental outset". This is why they systematically suppress data of any truth which is spiritual or amechanistic in nature; if the dimensions of the earth plane are characterized by mental-physical-spiritual, Masonic propaganda policy amputates at least a third of our resource of knowledge whilst simultaneously blinding us as to what is really going on in the world. We don't live in a universe full of aliens; we live isolated on the firmament created by GOD.

Freemasons demonstrably believe in astrology as evidenced by their continual assertion that the Age of Aquarius, a reference to the procession of the equinoxes, will (they think) see the end of Christianity and the beginning of a Masonic New Age; the "New Dawn" or "Golden Dawn".

On the subject of astrology, I would like to point out here a few little-known facts regarding the Edgar Cayce Readings. Edgar Cayce, once his "power" was discovered, was initially put to work composing horoscopes for people, because it was found that his were far more accurate than any known at the time. Interestingly, as early as December 1923 in READING 257-5, Cayce revealed, in passing while composing a horoscope, the existence of a then-unknown ninth planet at work in exerting an influence on the development of man; it was called Septimus and was, as subsequent Readings later revealed, a growing influence destined to assist the bringing about of the fruition of the purpose of the human race. The name "Septimus", meaning "seven" or "the seventh" in Latin, seems a strange name to apply to a ninth planet, however, it must be remembered that was not named such by men, but by God, and its name must reveal a clue to its astrological function (since according to the Cayce Readings all planets exert a specific influence which is of assistance to stimulating the gradual development of the entire race). According to Cayce, Septimus' influence was steadily increasing and had great significance for the spiritual future of man. Considering the tremendous amount of information Cayce generated for Christians showing how the Book of Revelation is really a parable with multiple meanings involving the seven chakras of the astral body and God's true purpose for mankind, Septimus/Pluto is likely a force bringing about an attuning of the seven chakras in some way, perhaps aiding greater capability for spiritual awakening in those living in accord with the Lord's laws; perhaps a mass opening of the crown chakra; that light which came upon the faces of the apostles at the Pentecost; the prophesied light that will mark out the faces of the Lord's elect at the End of Days as mentioned in the Book of Enoch; the halo; the crown chakra.

Pluto was not discovered until February 18th 1930, by astronomer Clyde Tombaugh, yet amazingly Cayce had already revealed its existence and function years earlier.

He said it was to be of eventual aid in one day cultivating a greater spirituality and selflessness to gradually appear in humanity as a whole, but this would happen only after a mass "falling away" from spirituality first took place. This falling away was prophesized also by the Book of Enoch, the "3rd Secret" of the Fatima Prophecy, and even the Hopi Indians.

The present author has his suspicions about the true motive of the so-called "International Astronomical Union" deciding in 2006 to disqualify Pluto as a planet...!

"The Vision", the "Great Alchemical Working", the "Great Work":

The secret primary purpose of Freemasonry, which even many Freemasons are not aware of, is the total destruction of the Catholic Church and all Christianity. Freemasons are also working toward a one world government where no one has any morals or beliefs about anything so they can constantly indulge ANY perverted vice or lust without any religious moralists spoiling it for them. To do this they set out long ago to topple every crowned head in the world. Many wars have been deliberately “lobbied” into occurring (with treaties and such) simply so that when the dust settled one more monarchy would have been toppled forever. The ultimate plan is for all monarchies to be replaced with “free” [read: Freemason] governments of various types, and for these to eventually unite under a separate pretence later. These pretences include real problems artificially inflated out of all proportion for use as one-world government media propaganda, such as racism, crime, pollution, terrorism, resource scarcity, global climate change (which they will claim is due to human pollution), and even fake alien invasion. They want to create as much sustained unrest and chaos as possible. If there is none, then they will lie and say that there is. When the world is in the chaos of total freedom, the masses will clamour for a despotic one-world government to autocratically restore universal order (at least, that is the idea). Not even the top echelon of the Freemasons are even aware of this true aim of Freemasonry; most are simply hedonists who think they are working toward a world of total indulgence in freedom but what their leaders plan is a world of universal autocracy and enslavement.

If you want to know more about Freemasonry’s true aims, or merely seek to verify, seek out and read E. Cahill’s Freemasonry and the Anti-Christian Movement – published in 1930.

Relativism of Truth

Relativism of Truth is a subversive stratagem of mind control intended to shatter one’s understanding of the veracity of truth itself. It works by encouraging the false belief that truth is totally subjective; that one merely chooses what truth is based on subjective experiences and not based on immutable facts. This is often deployed alongside the idea of religion as a mere belief, only as valid or invalid as any other belief, when in fact there is only ONE truth. The stratagem hinges on confusing the meaning of the word "preference" with the meaning of the word "truth".

The film "Roshomon" was made to encourage the false doctrine of relativism of truth.

The immutable fact is that TRUTH is on the side of GOD, not that of atheistic subverters, who have to lie in order to change people into further atheistic subverters.

For example, when one impartially examines all the evidence, one finds the fossil record in accord with creationism and not evolution. The lack of transitional fossils, among many other glaring facts, speaks for itself.

"STUDY, SO YOU CAN RIGHTLY DISCERN THE TRUTH."

That is an ethic that many old scriptures espouse.

Why?

Well, if one makes an exhaustive study of comparative religion, comparative folklore, history, and the sciences of geology, archaeology, anthropology, physics, optics, electricity, electromagnetism, and cross-references this with the study of anomalism, that is, data that supposedly does not fit into "scientifically accepted" mainstream interpretations of the data, you will discover something interesting.

None of it adds up, but there are commonalities hinting at a larger picture everywhere.

Then, when one studies the Edgar Cayce readings, one sees, by analogy, that one has had the fragments of a single TRUE beautiful picture of the world lying at one's feet all along.

There IS a SINGLE TRUTH about the world and about mankind!

The Edgar Cayce "Worldview", that is, the facts about our world as revealed in the Edgar Cayce readings, are the ONLY explanation that accounts for 100% of the data available INCLUDING the mysteries of scientific anomalism and spirituality!

Yet the name of Edgar Cayce is ALWAYS BESMIRCHED in the present-day media.

Why?

IT IS AS IF SOME SECRET SOCIETY WERE TRYING TO KEEP US ALL IGNORANT OF WHO WE REALLY ARE.

Isn't it?

For heaven's sake, do NOT listen to subverters! Go and study the Edgar Cayce readings so that YOU TOO will be able to rightly discern the truth!

INVEST THE TIME!

I promise you it WILL be the most rewarding thing you ever did with your time on this earth!

Moral Relativism

One of the calling cards of Masonic subversion is their standard trick of presenting change to the public that is difficult for all but the most alert and articulate to argue with; this is the strategy of "too much of a good thing"; for example, too much freedom breeds amorality.

Likewise, too much public emphasis on equality - based on race, sex, class, or what have you, undermines the traditional ethos of morality being the measure of a person's worth. Traditionally, a person was measured by their reputation for doing good moral works. Nowadays, the media measures a person's value ONLY in terms of race and gender quotas. (And whether they are a member of the right secret society or not, of course.)

Some of you may have noticed how everywhere these days, not only extreme lifestyles, but the MOST extreme of lifestyles are being shoved in our faces at any given moment by the media, as if totally wild, amoral personal choices are normal in our society.

They are not.

But that is the impression these messages seek to convey; they are an attempt to subvert our society through what is called moral relativism; the fallacy that any and all points of view and practices are ethical according to those who champion them, and therefore they promote a false absolute upon impressionable minds; that morality of any kind is only a myth and that the only universal ethic should be equality at the expense of all else. Do you think that God wants us to tolerate absolutely anything, even at the expense of our ideals, morals, and ethics? No. This is WRONG knowledge; God is MORALITY just as he is TRUTH. Only subverters want to accept everything that comes regardless of morality. In fact, they are spending millions each year on propaganda intended to force you into adopting this erroneous viewpoint. Equality is NEVER holier than morality!

(Yet really, despite what Masons claim, don't the immoral always know full well they are being immoral...?)

If we have MORALITY we don't need equality dogma because it is OBVIOUS that we should be good to people.

However, holding equality dogma supreme over morality is a CANCER that will eat away at our society until it falters and stalls because everyone has lost sight of the true morality of higher ideals.

This subversion often goes hand in hand with "the cult of the ego"; another tactic in which the assertion of individuality at all costs, no matter who you alienate, is held up as the highest ideal. THIS is the viewpoint the Masonic media wants you to adopt that prompts people to cover themselves in tattoos and piercings and to then proclaim "This is who I am!!! You don't have to like it!!!" in as loud a voice as they can. The people who adopt these cannot see the invisible manipulator that laughs at them for making lonely people who only want to be loved more and more repellent and repulsive to those who might have approached, befriended, and loved them. It is the chiselling apart of the harmonious society in which everyone is a friend. Promoting this sort of appearance style is really done for exactly the same reason that every other movie contains a bar room brawl or a biker gang picking a fight with the protagonists – it is what is called the Agenda of Fear; the aim to make the public afraid of their own society to the point that they will clamour for authoritarian government to get the "seedy undesirables" off the streets. It is also the aim to provoke alienation and isolation ensuring that people are unhappy, introverted, and self-absorbed; cut off from others.

In truth, a selfless, loving, close-knit unity with others that is the only thing that can bring real contentment to a person's life. It is NOT the continual assertion of the self.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO KNOW

That moral relativism is a subversive campaign being deliberately deployed against your society in order to destroy it. This is a stratagem also called "weaponized egalitarianism". The main subverters utilizing this tactic take vows in secret, in exchange for self-glorification and personal gain, pledging to promote this kind of harm under the camouflage of "brotherly love". One motto of this organization is "liberty - fraternity - equality". Another is "Amicitia, Vencit, Veritas" that is, "Friendship conquers truth", also translated as "Brotherhood is stronger than Truth".

(Reflect on that a moment!)

THEY ALLOWED THEIR EGOTISM TO SEDUCE THEM DOWN THIS PATH.

Let's see if we can avoid blindly following them by familiarizing ourselves with their deceptive tricks:

EVERY SONG, MOVIE, AND NOVEL HAS A PROPAGANDA FUNCTION.

THINK ABOUT THE INTENDED PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFECTS OF ALL YOU SEE IN THE MEDIA.

More masonic propaganda tricks:

The encouragement of egotism at every turn

Long ago, people knew egotism was the most universally abhorrent flaw a person could have because it is the engendering force of every evil act. Nowadays, this fact has been carefully hidden from the public whilst simultaneously encouraging the individual to partake of egotism in everything he does. This harms on innumerable levels; egotism inevitably leads a person to ruin. Egotism shatters a person's link with God and isolates him. In the stratagem of divide and conquer, everyone dislikes an egotistical person and egocentric thinking makes the egotistical willing to go to their death rather than admit they are wrong. This causes divisions upon divisions and strifes upon strifes. If the Freemasons can get everyone to become egotistical then the world will be chaos indeed.

Divide and conquer ...then unite

By far the most common form of subversion is preaching "do not hate" while simultaneously throwing gasoline on the fire. Inflammatory stories abound in the news designed to make women hate men, to make blacks hate whites, and vice versa. —Every permutation you can think of.

80% of the videos on Internet Archive are inflammatory fake news videos tailored to this very aim. The end result is intended to be total chaos. Then, when combined with all the other artificially inflated problems, a world emergency can be declared and a one world government will step in to take over and autocratically manage everything, which was the main goal all along. It will be easy to make the very problems they created go away because many of them are media propaganda illusions anyway.

Liars... deceivers... those who love corrupting others; Freemasons. These are the ENEMIES of good people everywhere. YES, ENEMIES. As Yuri Bezmenov said, "DO NOT BE AFRAID OF THIS WORD" for they are indeed the enemies of every moral and good-hearted ethic you hold dear. They constantly demonstrate that they are aiming to shatter families by chiselling apart the relationships between husbands and wives, fathers and daughters... Likewise, we should NOT entirely shun the word HATE, for Christ himself uses it here to tell us how he despises the sins of the Nicolaitanes. And why SHOULDN'T good people despise and yes, HATE, everything which is subversive and corrosive to their society, their children's innocence and moral/ethical development, and which seeks to undermine and sabotage their happiness and any possible potential for contentment in life at every conceivable turn? Isn't this the very reason we were given the capacity to hate? To get angry and desire to protect our loved ones against injustice?! Do you think Jesus would sit there and TOLERATE subversion as we have been trained to do today? No, he would violently overturn the tables of the moneychangers who turned the house of the Lord into a den of thieves. Likewise, WE must not tolerate subversion; we must fight against it with the SWORDS of our MOUTHS, forearmed and familiarized with TRUTH, and herein lays our elegantly efficient weaponry. When you see people being lied to everywhere, stand up and share what the Freemasons have been doing to sabotage good people everywhere!

Frequently referenced Masonic notions:

- Love: The Masonic notion of love is in its use as a weapon; the teaching of the masses to love absolutely everything that comes along. This is called Moral Relativism and it undermines morality and ethics like a cancer because it tricks us into throwing out the baby with the bathwater; duping us into surrendering our deeply-held ideals and morals to the debased lusts and perversions of others in the name of universal toleration. I exhort you my brethren, love uprightness and walk therein, for the paths of apostasy and unrighteousness lead to demoralization, depression, and the desolation of the soul. I have been there and I have come back to warn you.
- The Wind: This is the man (or woman) who has no God and drifts around from girlfriend to temporary girlfriend having easy sex with them, living only in the moment (of their lust), and dumping them without any qualms at all, out of a supposed desire for "freedom". This kind of "freedom" is a Masonic notion that crops up everywhere in the media; many Masonic songs espouse this belief; "The Wanderer" by Dion, "Free Bird" by Lynyrd Skynyrd, "Long Time" by Boston, and "The Wind Cries Mary" by Jimi Hendrix are all key examples. "The Wind Cries Mary" displays a sarcastic, almost demonic, contempt for human love and is particularly mocking of the victims who have been duped into adopting this worldview – one designed by the Tavistock Institute and developed out of the Masonic behavioural researches conducted by Sigmund Freud. The purpose of this is actually – believe it or not – a weaponized "ethic" that leads to the total demoralization of a person. Someone holding this Godless sexually-fixated worldview will eventually fall into a shattering depression later in life and may even kill themselves. The Freemasons themselves suffer from this malady and virtually all of them are alcoholics. They are hoist on their own petard. The organization indulges them considerably so they have great resources to draw upon for indulging their lusts, but there are still limits, and lots of them kill themselves anyway. One extremely notable example is Ian Curtis from Joy Division. He wanted to be a rock star but knew he had no talent. Instead of being gratified, he was totally humiliated by media exposure as the Freemasons built him up as an artificial celebrity and used him. Most of his lyrics refer to this Masonic quandary and are very revealing when one grasps that he's almost always referring to Freemasonry. Supposedly, he shot himself -but did he? There are many others. Brad Delp of Boston is another Masonic suicide as was Greg Ham from Men at Work, to name but a few.

- The Rain: The rain symbolizes what is a Masonically-biased view of Christianity; a bunch of judgemental party poopers who believe in self-control and want to censor everything. If you spend your life thinking and acting like a dog and all your aims involve indulgence in sex, food, alcohol, etc., without any higher aspirations, then indulgence in whatever can fleetingly gratify or titillate your senses is central to you, and THIS becomes your god. Therefore, the God of the Christians is the antithesis of your dog-like lifestyle, for He is a God that teaches that the physical world is only an entanglement or hurdle, that the purpose of existence is to cultivate self-control, ideals, and morality, and that the material enticements of the earth are only an emptiness we are meant to eventually overcome.
- the New Dawn/New Day/Brand New Day, the Day: The New Dawn is the fruition of what all Masons have been working toward; the realization of a world in which no one believes in anything spiritual; neither God or demons, and they are totally blinded and at the mercy of the power of Lucifer the arch-deceiver. The New Dawn is believed by Freemasons to be a return to Atlantean days of acting wild and sex-fixated without regard for consequences; romantically imagined as cavorting, copulating satyrs and naiads in a pastoral setting. No one will believe in God and sex will be on everyone's mind. The Freemasons believe that they will then obtain total political power because their Moral and Relativism campaign will have tricked everyone into tolerating absolutely every perversion imaginable. Against such a backdrop, there can be no taboos, and they believe there will no longer be any differences between the peoples of the world. It is then that they believe their Masonic One-World Government will finally come into being. That stupid, incredibly annoying, over-played John Lennon song "Imagine" is the Masonic manifesto of the New Dawn. These dogs do not read the Bible and don't grasp that Daniel 11 has already prophesied that THEY WILL FALL before they ever get the chance to realise their sick perverse dream.
- the Sun: Many Freemasons not involved in the final degrees of Masonic secrets are led to believe that the Freemasons' true final focus of ultimate worship is the Sun. This is not so, but some Masonic propaganda focuses on this.
- the Light: The Masonic "Light" or the "Light of a Master Mason" is the result of Crowleyan Inversion Theory; this is the turning of spirituality on its head; the teaching that the good of the Christians is evil along with its God and that the real good is the evil espoused by Satan and Lucifer; that of indulgence in sin, sex, and sorcery. The spreading of subversion is also this "masonic light"; the Doctrine of Balaam. More on these later.

- The Shadows: an epithet often utilized by the Freemasons to romanticise, denote or symbolize themselves. Used to great effect in the Masonic parable that is Babylon 5, in which the angelic beings are portrayed as despotic oppressors, while the horrific-looking, evil Shadows were eventually portrayed as liberators, just like the Masons view themselves in their war on Christianity. The Police song Shadows in the Rain should now be decipherable to you.
- the East: East is where “the Sun” rises for “the New Dawn” bringing “the Light”; basically, the East, in Masonic dogma, is always associated with Freemasonry.
- the West: West is the opposite of the Masonic dogma and is thus equated symbolically with Christianity and Jesus.
- The Morning Star: “Just call me angel of the morning, baby.” The Morning Star for Freemasons is Lucifer.
- The Devil: Sympathy for the devil is not only a song by the Rolling Stones, it is a Masonic stratagem; innumerable books, movies, and TV shows use skilled actors, music, and storytelling tricks to lure you into sympathizing with someone or something evil. This began with Fritz Lang’s movie “M”, in which the audience is manipulated into feeling sympathy for a murdering paedophile. These days the trick is cropping up absolutely everywhere, especially in Disney films.
- the Stairway: for Masons, the stairway represents the slow change agenda; for everyone else, the stairway represents the steady refining process of reincarnation and incrementally higher development due to the effects of the ennobling forces. Now, with what I’ve given here, maybe you can now unravel the true meaning of the lyrics for “Stairway to Heaven”! (Jimmy Page, who wrote it, was indeed famously obsessed with Aleister Crowley after all...) And here’s another clue for you all: “I can see clearly now/the rain has gone / it’s gonna be a bright, bright, sun-shiny day”...

Freemasons want the public to let “the good times” reign supreme over all else. They encourage the idea of party till you drop/live in the moment, because people who live shallow, superficial lives in such a manner will never become self-disciplined enough to diligently research what is going on, nor will they become canny enough to catch on to the disinformation program. They will remain in a permanent state of actually embracing subversion. Their antics will burden society, contributing to its downfall, and their souls will be completely ruined in the doing. This is pure Balaam Doctrine!

One thing you should never do is to take the words of a song and project them onto your life. That's exactly what they have expected you to do so that they can sabotage and subvert you.

Why is there so much transgenderism in the media?

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO KNOW- This comes from Aleister Crowley who in 1913 wrote a book called "LIBER 333 ? The Book of Lies"; this is a foundation stone of modern Masonic mass-subversion. The book espouses what is called, "Inversion Philosophy". This is a deranged idea that urges people to do the opposite of what their morals and ethics would have them do at any given time, encouraging you to embrace negativity as a guide without any thought of the consequences. Crowley wrote that this idea is useful for "spiritual exploration" and that a person "can learn a lot by doing whatever evil results from this philosophy" and that they should explore it to their very limits no matter what the consequences. Basically, Crowley's "philosophy" is tantamount to continually actualized Satanism.

This idea is anthropomorphised in the Freemasons' very idol, Baphomet, a hermaphroditic goat and "master alchemist" which TRANSFORMS PEOPLE INTO WHAT THEY WERE NOT in order to corrode and corrupt; the ultimate goal of Freemasonry being to destroy religion in favor of universal carnality. This philosophy cultivates perversion and debasement where once there was morality.

Baphomet is the "strange god" warned against in Daniel 11:38~39:

"But in his [the antichrist] estate shall he honor the god of forces, a god his fathers knew not... Thus shall he do in the strongholds [masonic temples] with a strange god... and he shall cause them to rule over many."

This is the answer to many, many questions you might have about what is being presented to you in the media.

Encouragement of witchcraft

This propaganda takes the form of getting people to think about spells, magic, etc; making magic-users look cool and putting them in a good light. (The suppression of superstition whilst encouraging witchcraft is a manifestation of their policy of teaching the masses “wrong knowledge” about everything in the world. So ironically they define Freemason Thomas Payne’s “Age of Reason” as starting when belief in witches “ended”. Actually, it was because of Freemasonry’s widespread influence that this occurred. Witches just became the inner circle of the fraternity and this provides them the perfect cover and initiate filtration device.)

Discouragement of the public acquiring knowledge of Astrology, effects of moon phase sexual and psychic influence, and blood type personality influences. (All of which are actually correct knowledge). This goes straight back to the Masonic manifesto (limited hangout) the Protocols of Zion, “Teach the Mob WRONG KNOWLEDGE in all things, especially with regard to the earth, so that they will be compromised at the outset and disadvantaged at every turn.” It is well to keep this quote in mind; there is much cornerstone science dogma that is just a load of smoke and mirrors – speculation built upon assumptions, or rather, gross untruths foisted upon the masses by supposed experts, who are little more than mere media personalities.

Twist the truth of Masonic guilt into lies tailored to “frame” Jews and other groups as the culprits of what are actually Masonic crimes. Basically the trick is simply telling the truth with the word “Jews” substituted in place of “Masons”.

“Chase your dream”:

The media is constantly telling us to chase our “dream”; to be the underdog who never gives up against all odds, no matter what the cost to us or to others. Nothing should be sacred in this; we should break friendships with “dream killers” and be ready to even walk out on our families if they should get in the way of our dreams.

Why? When did peoples’ dreams achieve such an all-important status to the media? Surely homeless people dream of having houses, but the media does nothing to raise money for them (even though they’re in a better position to do so than anybody else). What do they get out of teaching us, the public, this bizarre doctrine of aspiring to dreams...? How can they possibly profit from teaching the public this?

They are not teaching us this to make us happy! Far from it! They are teaching us this because it is in accord with DISTRACTING the public from religion. Moreover, it substitutes religion with thoughts of egotism. Yet again we see them teaching up a poisonous thing that is specifically tailored to be hard to argue against. Yet again we see them handing us a knife with which we can stab ourselves; dealing us out enough rope to hang ourselves with. They know perfectly well that encouraging people to chase foolish pipedreams will result in the amplification of egotism, the shattering of family integrities, the burning away of time that could be spent in study or performing works of selflessness with some selfish frivolity.

Remember in 2 Timothy 2:14?

“Of these things put them in remembrance; charging them before the LORD that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.”

Now also, dreams are an important RECRUITMENT factor to Freemasonry. They feel that if people become hell-bent upon fulfilling a dream, they may even sign a contract with the devil to get what they want. This is EXACTLY what Freemasonry does to get its hooks into people; it dazzles them with all the connections they need to get involved in whatever dream they have that they want to get involved in. Freemasonry gives them the international connections to get their dream really rolling and then it tells the victim; “you had your fun, now we want you to do something for us”. That “something” is the pandering of subversive messages. It is why every rock band’s lyrics contain Masonic messages. They are rewarded proportionate to how much they sell out to Freemasonry’s demands. It is in this shameful, deplorable way that people get drawn in deeper and deeper into Freemasonry, it is for this reason that people get so enmeshed in the machinery of Masonry that they will betray any shreds of loyalty they had remaining to the church of Jesus Christ and will cooperate in its downfall.

“We are agents of the free... I’ve had my fun, and now it’s time to ship my conscience overseas...; it was coming in fast and took over me. “ -REM

REM is a great source of dumb-ass Masonic reveals. Their song “Losing my Religion” couldn’t be more of a dead giveaway (its also quite awful.). A friend of mine met the singer at a café in Athens, GA once. He said he was rude, smelled horrible, and looked like he hadn’t bathed in a month. This description fits a lot of Masonic musicians. The guys from OASIS are particularly noteworthy for their notorious lack of basic hygiene. They hate themselves, they hate what they have become, they hate their existence... THEY HAVE NO PEACE. This is also why Shriners and Masons are universally alcoholics, incidentally. They can’t deal with life. They spend all their time trying to glorify themselves and undermine others. They know they are scumbags and they hate themselves. It’s pathetically sad. Why don’t they just stand up and turn on their masters? It’s basically their only chance to redeem themselves.

“Be impulsive”

If we embrace Masonic subversion, the first thing they try and get us to do is relinquish our self-control. This is corrosive to Christian self-discipline. It undermines God’s plan. Simple.

“You take my self-control... I live among the creatures of the night. I never stop to wonder why. I haven’t got the will to try and fight...” -Laura Brannigan, “Self-Control”

The Limited Hangout:

This trick is a common one today; the idea is to take a piece of information you want suppressed, alter some key detail, and then release the “pseudo-truth” from a false front as if it were an actual exposé, instead of the real truth. As the altered version is proliferated in the retelling, the “corrupt” version gradually replaces the actual truth in the public's understanding. An excellent example of this is something that actually happened to the present author; I remarked on a forum that,

"Edgar Cayce was the real deal- he said the Nile river once emptied into the Atlantic via Morocco (instead of the Mediterranean, as in the present day), thousands of years ago, and recent satellite photography has revealed the telltale ancient riverbed marks on the terrain leading from the source of the Nile right across North Africa to Morocco, where the ancient river delta is plainly visible but the once flowing waters are no longer extant."

Some subverters must have read this, for soon afterward I saw someone on the internet attempting to promote the statement,

"Edgar Cayce said the Nile River once ran backward!"

Which was of course, met with jeers and mockery.

Now when people hear this story, they will at the very least be confused; what began as solid, verifiable proof of the genuineness of Edgar Cayce's powers, became instantly twisted into a deception actually harmful to Cayce's reputation.

Although, unlike in the above example, it's deployment is often a little bit different in practice. Usually in a "Limited Hangout" situation, the source revealing the information is generally some government worker ostensibly "blowing the whistle" on corruption, and being hailed as a hero in the process, when in fact they are spreading harmful misinformation. An excellent example is the Snowden revelations. If the media is controlled absolutely, which it certainly has been since 1998, then it is not possible for a "leak", particularly an intelligence world leak, to even reach the point where it is anywhere near being broadcast to the public via the media. The forgone conclusion for the news media now is that information isn't there unless they want it there. By this truism we can understand that Snowden's "revelations" about illegal surveillance of the entire population were in fact a limited hangout with the intended result being "chilling effects"; that is, getting the public to stop talking about suppressed knowledge voluntarily by promoting the false impression that they will be swiftly persecuted by shadowy government agencies with enough manpower and time to engage in the petty harassment of millions of citizens.

Assassinate the Father

There was once a TV program called, "Father Knows Best"; now the fathers presented on nightly TV are all categorically morons. Why?

Freemason Sigmund Freud founded the Tavistock Institute to facilitate Masonic societal change using the media (and even made arrangements in his will to make sure it would be funded well enough to operate in perpetuity well after his death). One of his ideas is to relentlessly degrade the traditional position of honor that the father holds in the family circle. The father is the wisdom and the guiding voice for the family. If they can get the family to perceive dad as a fool, no one will listen to him. Thus they are deprived of the guidance of possibly the only person who may have soundly advised them against pursuing any newly emerging radical lifestyle. This is a calculated failsafe to make sure the victims of Masonic subversion remain blinded to the truth by cutting them off from the voice of sobriety and experience. Furthermore, Freud's research suggested to him that when daughters hate their fathers, they suffer from what is called an unresolved Electra Complex and remain marooned in an early adolescence girlhood developmental stage that causes them to become perpetually attracted to other females instead of boys. The Freemasons seized on this naff idea in hopes of creating a generation of Lesbians who would all readily embrace counter-cultural Masonic subversion principles and espouse them all themselves, aiding in the subversion of still more people. Did it work...?

Facebook is a wonderland of Masonic subversion and everyone there is so bemused that they don't seem to notice. It isn't uncommon at all to see people mindlessly repeating slogans like, "Death to the Patriarchy"... Do they even know why they have been taught this slogan?

Interestingly, in the Book of Jubilees, there is a prophesy that a great curse will befall the generation to come at the End of Days which fails to give honor to their fathers, the Patriarchs of old, (Abraham, Jacob, Issac, etc.) but instead curses the patriarchs.

We're seeing all manner of curses unfold on us during this chastisement, aren't we? Back in the 1930's, Edgar Cayce warned that, "The Times and half a times are over!" referencing the Book of Daniel's antichrist/End Times prophesy, he went on to say, "It would be well to be up and doing! For by your works shall ye be judged... And the Enchristening will shortly unfold!" Asked what the Enchristening was and what it entailed, Cayce replied, "The chastisement at the great falling away from the Church before the end."

Show them how to do it:

This is a very subversive all-too-common media trick involving fictional stories of various types, from TV, Movies, novels, etc.; the idea is to present an amoral protagonist whose activities demonstrate to the viewer how to be ruthlessly SELFISH in all manner of ways. Excellent examples would be "nasty protagonist" characters from the old soap opera Dynasty, the character Avon from Blakes 7, and the titular character from Black Adder. Doubtless the reader can quickly think of half a dozen additional examples. The purpose of the trope is simple: soul corruption. Disney's sudden fixation upon up-marketing all its antagonist characters, particularly the female ones, is evidence of this subversion technique being inserted into the minds of our impressionable little daughters, teaching them that it is all in good fun to be evil. We shall see that this is nothing less than the priming of children for the embracing of Witchcraft and Satanism later in life. At the very least it misadjusts them and predisposes them toward calculating and manipulative behaviour. Let's stop allowing children to watch Disney films and explain to them that the producers of these films are actually trying to harm and demoralize them. If they don't believe you, show them Old Yeller.

The Nonsensical Misdirection:

This is often used in pop songs. The idea is to load up the lyrics with Masonic propaganda messages. Then, some deliberate calculated nonsense is introduced to throw the listener a curveball so it muddies the picture into something the listener is usually unprepared to unravel, leaving it confusing as to what the true message is, even though the Masonic message has been delivered directly. This leaves the listener with a false impression as to what the song is really about, while getting them to repeat Masonic mantras to themselves unknowingly as long as the tune is stuck in their heads.

A perfect example of this is the T-Rex song, "Think Zinc"; the lyrics are basically a poem getting the listener to consider how arousing it is to hear people cry out in sexual arousal "all through the night". "Hold onto the phone! You should hear him groan!" It's a sordid porn-like sexual message, typical among 33° Masons, who all want sex as their God instead of Christ. Now, among the main body of lyrics is inserted the chorus, "You got to Think Zinc! Think Zinc! Think-a! Think-a!" etc., leaving the listener pondering over what Zinc has to do with anything or how to "think" about it, as the lyrics ostensibly urge. -The true message, of course, being the sexual one; merely to exhort people to dwell in the carnal and to think about sexy sounds, which will turn them on. The more they play the record, the more they'll reflect about carnality at the expense of higher things...

Interestingly, the Zinc question is eventually referenced again for us, used in the same Nonsensical Misdirection manner, in the form of a T-Rex album title; Zinc Oxide and the Hidden Riders of Tomorrow. Now, if Mark Bolan had simply named the album, "The Hidden Riders of Tomorrow" we'd be much closer to gleaning that he was really talking about; the Freemasons and their slow-change agenda.

Another excellent example is the crappy REM song referenced above, "Orange Crush":

"I've got my spine, I've got my Orange Crush, We are agents of the free. I've got my spine, I've got my Orange Crush, I've had my fun, and now it's time to ship my conscience overseas; it was coming in fast and took over me. "

And the camouflage works all the better if it just looks like you're trying to sell soda pop, apparently!

Love 'em and leave 'em

Formerly called, "free love" a couple of generations back, this term was a little too much of a "free mason" clue, so it is now been made passé in the media, but even so, this trope is still absolutely everywhere in music, movies, and TV these days. The song, "The Year of the Cat" succinctly sums up the feeling of this Masonic propaganda idea.

The Masons' dream is to have a world where people live akin to dogs or cats; they have zero spirituality, coming together briefly to have sexual intercourse for pleasure, and then parting ways with no qualms or compunctions and no feelings of attachment; certainly not love. There is a song by the band "Free" (a very telling band name!) called "Alright Now" In which a fellow has a one night stand and the hook is a part where the girl supposedly says, "Love?! What do you mean? Now you're trying to get me in love!" This is a big part of the Masonic vision; a demonic contempt for human love and the human need to be loved replaced by the simple animalistic gratification of bodily lusts. These days this is readily exemplified by a Marilyn Manson song, the chorus of which is, "I'm not in love but I'm gonna f you till somebody better comes along". ...How bluntly can Masonic propaganda be put? Well, it's the deranged philosophy of a bunch of dog-like jackasses, so the answer is; pretty bluntly!

However, the Masons knew that most people won't be ready to go straight for a lifestyle of sex without love. So they have another message along the lines of the following:

"If DO you have to have a lover, then only they deserve your love and no one else at all." AKA "You're the only one I love"... How many times have we seen this one?

Again,

One thing you should never do is to take the words of a song and project them onto your life. That's exactly what they have expected you to do so that they can sabotage and subvert you.

----- The Replacement of God in ... Basically Everything

A rather common Masonic trick is displacing the place once held by God in everything conceivable, even the expressions we use every day. There is an old internationally produced children's program from the late 50's called Space Patrol which was designed to teach a generation of children the Masonic concepts of Moral Relativism, Evolution, the trick of using the material and mental to explain away everything spiritual, and especially the teaching of the Cosmological Principle. The show also involved huge dollops of Feminism and inflammatory Calculated Button-Pushing, and involved considerable promotion of a One-World Government to boot. The dialogue of this show is peppered with all sorts of unique expressions that the Masonic producers apparently thought would sound "futuristic". Among these were a lot of curious substitutions; wherever God would be mentioned in our society, He was replaced with Space itself, apparently as a deity, in the future society represented on screen. One curiously awkward but very telling expression was the phrase "Space around us!" apparently in place of the expression, "Heaven above us!" The entire run of episodes was curiously full of phrases that consistently wrote out God in favour of Space in what could only have been a calculated decision by the producers. This has subtly invaded our own culture although no one seems to have noticed. Sex seems to have been introduced as a deliberate substitute for God in many of today's filthy curses and expressions. "For God's sake!" has been replaced by "for f's sake!" to judge by many films and TV shows nowadays. It's a glimpse into what is most sacred to the Freemasons who write these scripts...

I'd like to mention by way of an irresistible digression, that the book The Doctor Who Handbook: The First Doctor includes a letter by the BBC that is a rejection for a script to a freelance writer in response to an episode proposal he wrote. The BBC stated rather tellingly,

"The producers of this program were concerned about the way you depicted the future of world society in your script; that individual nation states still exist. The producers of Doctor Who feel that in the future the world will be unified into a One-World Government and they are anxious to see this reflected on-screen wherever possible..."

Small wonder why! They're all Freemasons, aren't they!

If you would care to look up a wiki article called "Criticism of the BBC", one of the main complaints against them is that they are anti-Catholic in the extreme.

Very telling that.

Now you know why and what their agenda is.

The Trick of the Corrupting Suggestion and the Sugary Moral Refutation:

This is presented as a subversive destabilizing thought or a demonstration of how to do something immoral and/or destructive delivered with the obligatory superficial addendum that it is the wrong thing to do.

The refutation of the subversive element serves to make a pretence at teaching a moral to throw off suspicion, but what everyone remembers is the subversive salient point, due to the simple and dynamic way it is presented, in contrast to the more 'boring' presentation of the moral. It exploits the uncritical shallowness of the everyman who indulges in entertainment while trying to relax (i.e. when his guard is down). The viewer is tricked into identifying with the negative message rather than the moral. (Thus, otherwise entirely moral readers of Agatha Christie stories may suddenly find themselves fantasizing about murdering people with arsenic...)

Distilled into its simplest terms, the concept is a bit like walking into the house of an enemy, showing their six year old how to start a fire with gasoline and a match, telling them not to do it in order to exonerate yourself from blame, and then quietly leaving the premises.

Simple enough. Yet when deployed against the public the modern version of this technique can have some surprisingly subtle permutations bordering on mind control.

A good example of this is a character in Disney's Frozen which asserts dramatically in song that she must "throw off her chains" of service to others and live the self-interested life, in order to revel in desires she wishes to indulge in. (Which is pure Masonic/Luciferian doctrine.) Another character comes along later and shows her she's being selfish, but all the girls who see the film remember the subversive feminist message instead of the moral because of the memorable song and dancing involved in the delivery of the subversive salient point (which is absent during presentation of the moral).

Another subtle example is Bob Dylan's All Along the Watchtower.

"...No reason to get excited

The thief he kindly spoke

there are many here among us who feel that life is but a joke

But you and I we've been through that

And this is not our fate

So let us not talk falsely now

The hour's getting late..."

The subversive part is the simple statement of the opinion "life is a joke" which leaps out at people confused by the modern world. The second part articulately denies and refutes the subversive salient point, but is so articulate that it is lost on the everyman, who is left remembering only the initial simple message; a statement promoting the point of view that "all religion ultimately has no meaning"; a key philosophy of Freemasonry. (In case you weren't previously aware, Bob Dylan is well known to be a Freemason. That explains his otherwise inexplicable success too, doesn't it? It certainly wasn't his singing voice... By the way, the "Joker" and the "Thief" in the above song are references to the Royal Order of Jesters and the Freemasons, respectively.) Dylan has himself made some rather startling confessions about his membership in the Freemasons in recent years and how they work him to death and won't allow him to retire. Seems a common problem among aged rockers, doesn't it? Hmm.

Further examples of this can be found amongst the thousands of crime comic books and mystery novels which teach their consumers an encyclopaedic knowledge of how to get away with murder whilst ostensibly showing them that it is immoral. -Isn't this exactly what Fredric Wertham tried to warn us about over 90 years ago with his book Seduction of the Innocent? Of course, we let the media trick us into laughing at him back then. By way of innumerable unfair and mocking editorials, we were fooled into marginalizing his claims instead of taking him seriously and now look how deranged society has become. As ex-KGB agent Yuri Bezmenov said, "Who has the most influential effect on society? The president? Congress? No, it is the media. Who elected these people? Who are these people? You don't even know, yet you believe everything they say! Why!?"

The content of the media is decided upon by Freemasons. All celebrity musicians are Freemasons as are virtually all published writers these days. Hollywood actors and directors too.

Look up and read Seduction of the Innocent; it is shockingly prescient -as well as just plain shocking.

Hey, Mr. One-Worlder, you can shove your SDGs. We ain't buying it.

How is throwing away plastic going to harm the environment? Won't plants just grow around what is not biodegradable? Is replacing plastic packaging with paper really that sensible? No, it is not, because this will require cutting down many more trees. And burning the resulting extra paper and wood trash will just dump more carbon into the atmosphere. Keep in mind most countries still incinerate burnable trash, as they do here in Japan; they don't have the luxury of all that space for land-fills like America does. The main problem threatening the environment is indeed the removal of too much of the world's trees, "cutting out the earth's lungs", destabilizing all sorts of natural balances in the atmosphere and weather, leading to hotter global temperatures. The implementation of "SDG" programs are actually a globally orchestrated ruse to further damage the environment whilst ostensibly protecting it. The primary trick of the globalism game is to make the world appear as screwed-up as possible so that they will have the masses clamouring for world government to solve all their problems. It's a daft idea, but that's what they think, anyway. This artificial globalist media-driven effort to exacerbate small problems into massive cultural ones is the TRUE cause of many of the modern problems we are facing. Their belief is that once the masses accept one-world government they will be able to counteract many of the problems because they are the very ones who created the problems. Can they? Won't things go too far? Nevertheless, we're stuck with their endless ocean of SDGs and other propaganda bullstuff we have to continually wade through in addition to the actual problems themselves. But don't worry, Jesus WILL destroy the Luciferians who are doing this to us. This is why the Book of Revelation says that God is going to "destroy them which destroy the earth" when the New Jerusalem manifests.

Did I mention the Edgar Cayce reading about the Mark of the Beast being the vows taken by Freemasons...?

READING 281-34

(April 21st, 1937)

section 11

1. (Q) What is meant by the mark of the beast in the right hand, or forehead?

(A) These are as signs or symbols of this or that grouping, or of the organizations that become as a part of the vows or obligations to those who have joined in with the work of the beast.

Hence the warning that if these come to mean more in the experience they stand as that which condemns, rather than that which is the helpful experience.

For having the mark of the beast and the mark of the Lamb becomes the difference between the consciousness of the indwelling presence of the Christ and the hoped for yet not seen or known.

So there you have it; the raising of the right hand to take Masonic vows and the cooperating with Masonic plans and agendaism is what gives one the Mark of the Beast. Revelation tells us that a special curse is in store for these dupes and that at the end of it all, despite what they will claim about their charity work, their hearts were not aligned with Jesus, but with the beast and the dragon, and so they will be hurled into the Abyss of Fire having been proven by their own actions the ENEMIES of good people and of morality. The Freemasons have the Mark of the Beast and are the Synagogue of Satan warned against in the Book of Revelation. This was the view espoused by many, many popes, and Edgar Cayce has confirmed this view.

The following are all 'red flag' indicators for videos, books, TV documentaries, etc. Their presence will generally indicate that an attempt to deceive or manipulate the viewer is being made:

If they are pointing the finger at one, or even a few specific, named individuals that they want you to view as evil and "behind the whole thing", you can bet it is the old 'straw man' technique. What is to blame are the secret societies that bring about the sweeping changes. They also control the special interest group movements in a concerted effort to bring down society, or the world, these days, to replace it with a one world government.

In the past, subversive elements could orchestrate enough leverage from special interest groups to bring down a single country from within. Such was the bread and butter of Marxist revolutionaries of one sort or another. In the internet age, where everyone in the world is watching the same movies and hearing about the same crises, the only group to benefit is a group with designs on toppling the whole world, namely the globalist secret societies bent on bringing about a one world government. For them to wheel out some straw man, point to him, and say, "here's your problem" is just laughable. Even if he is an evil slime and even partly responsible... when he is gone, you can bet they have a hundred more just like him waiting to fill his empty shoes. The longer you let the finger-pointing go on, the longer you let these secret societies direct you away from the true, ongoing source of the problem – FREEMASONRY and its associated partner-societies.

AMERICANS

DON'T PATRONIZE REDS!!!!

YOU CAN DRIVE THE REDS OUT OF TELEVISION, RADIO AND HOLLY-WOOD

THIS TRACT WILL TELL YOU HOW.

WHY WE MUST DRIVE THEM OUT:

1) The REDS have made our Screen, Radio and TV Moscow's most effective Fifth Column in America . . .
2) The REDS of Hollywood and Broadway have always been the chief financial support of Communist propaganda in America . . . 3) OUR OWN FILMS, made by RED Producers, Directors, Writers and STARS, are being used by Moscow in ASIA, Africa, the Balkans and throughout Europe to create hatred of America . . . 4) RIGHT NOW films are being made to craftily glorify MARXISM, UNESCO and ONE-WORLDISM . . . and via your TV Set they are being piped into your Living Room—and are poisoning the minds of your children under your very eyes ! ! !

So REMEMBER — If you patronize a Film made by RED Producers, Writers, Stars and STUDIOS you are aiding and abetting COMMUNISM . . . every time you permit REDS to come into your Living Room VIA YOUR TV SET you are helping MOSCOW and the INTERNATIONALISTS to destroy America ! ! !

Above: 1950's anticommunist literature handbill. People back then knew pretty much what the score was. It is a testament to how successful the media-based subversion of society has been that most people today have no clue even who it is that is destroying society. It is worth noting here that by the philosophy and morals printed in their own publications, Freemasonry's "peculiar set of morals" (as Masonic writer Manly P. Hall put it) overlap in their entirety with the tenants of Marxist Communism. Freemasonry is a massive source of Marxist/Communist propaganda. Second only to fooling people into thinking the devil isn't real, the greatest trick they ever pulled was in getting Americans to think that since "glasnost" happened and the Berlin Wall was torn down, there was no more threat of Communism.

Communism IS Freemasonry and vice-versa!

J. Edgar Hoover, Senator McCarthy, Fredric Wertham, and even Edgar Cayce attempted to warn people what was happening. In every case these defenders of society were slandered in the media and demonized, their memory distorted with innumerable perverse fabrications and character defaming falsehoods ...all to cover up the media's subversion campaign.

Levelling

This is a trick frequently employed by Marxist agitators in addition to Masonic media subversion. The idea is to take the lower rung of society, whatever caste, creed, race or whatever is perceived as commonest low-level worker or the base of the pyramid of society and inflate their egos so they feel they believe they should be at the top of the pyramid. At the same time, you convince the people at the top that their place is at the bottom of the pyramid. The subverters' hoped-for result is the creation of friction that, when simultaneously combined with many other subversion techniques (such as demoralization), causes society to erupt into class warfare. An excellent example of this is the seemingly innocent "blonde joke". This did not exist until the mid 1980's. Where did they come from? Before that, it was common to hear jokes about Jews and blacks. After the mid 1980's, a media-instigated switch occurred. "Racist" jokes were severely reprimanded in editorials and talk shows until they basically disappeared. At the same time, equally racist jokes about white people were deployed (in the form of "blonde", "white trash", and "redneck" jokes), which the Levellers hoped would significantly damage white self-esteem. Its dumb, but that's what they thought. Only a couple of years ago though, my blonde niece called herself a "dummy" while we were talking on the phone to each other. I asked, "why do you say that?" her answer was, "because I'm blonde. That movie Legally Blonde convinced me how stupid I really am." But if she has been foolish it was only in allowing media subverters into her head and letting them rearrange her self-esteem. Please do not repeat jokes that demean anyone and please tell people about Levelling Subversion the next time you are told a blonde joke.

The Weak Double Bluff:

This is a ruse that works by reaching the mind in question first, before any other information on the subject has been foisted, and is accordingly a very commonly encountered technique. The strategy is for a member of the conspirators (group B) to stand up and speak in the guise of a member of the public (group A), ostensibly with the purpose of incriminating group B in a conspiracy. However, the "evidence" offered to prove the anti-group B point of view is intentionally made very weak and dubious, to ring false in the ears of group A's hapless hearers. Because people often form long-lasting opinions based on their first feelings on a subject, this has the effect of tricking someone OUT of suspecting group B of any wrongdoing. The affected person then rejects out of hand any further attempts to convince them otherwise. This trick is most commonly employed by Freemasonry and was the basis of many "freemasonry exposé" type books of the previous century; a mason supposedly turns traitor and reveals a load of yawn-inducing benign "secret mystery symbols" amounting to very little indeed. The supposed exposé having been intentionally written to leave the reader wondering what all the fuss was about. (However, nowhere is any real incriminating evidence presented, only laughably weak arguments, giving the reader the impression that masonry is entirely benign and nothing to worry about, when in fact there are mountains of evidence that 33° Freemasons compose a destructive, globalist, subversive BLOODY religion; their thoroughly deranged inner circle concealed within an apparently benign fraternity that ostensibly “raises money for charity”. This inner core is the true Masonic religious body; they interact with ghosts and Fallen Angels using suffumigations, books of Masonic Ephemers, and the Book of Raziel and are attempting to bring about a one world government on behalf of the Watchers mentioned in the Book of Enoch.)

Example of this stratagem in action: a Japanese website declared recently, “Freemasons are Illuminati and are trying to take over the world!” The only evidence they presented on the website though, was the statement that “Walt Disney was a Freemason!!!” and that, “in the movie Dumbo, there is a surreal fantasy sequence in which first an eye floats past and then a pyramid appears a moment later, linking Disney with what is probably an Illuminati eye-in-the-pyramid symbol on the back of the $1 bill!!!”. If someone had never heard of the Freemasons, as most Japanese have not, they would then snicker and smugly conclude that this POV can’t possibly be the case because the person’s argument is so nonsensically ridiculous. They might even go on to think better of Freemasonry, thinking, “feeble-minded people are inclined to condemn it, possibly out of simple paranoia or bigotry. I, on the other hand am smarter, and know better”. Thus it works by exploiting the ego of the common man, as does Freemasonry itself; it fuels the ego of the dupes it recruits by exalting him with goofy, empty titles, superficial finery, and pretentious pomp. The Freemason is further bolstered by an illusion of superiority to the everyman; elitism based upon nothing but their own gullibility and the flaw that their egotism made them an easy target for exploitation by the manipulators. They will happily pay their masonic dues so long as a bone is occasionally thrown to them that props up their infantile lack of self-esteem and makes them feel superior to everyone else. They have sold their souls for empty materialism and on the Day of the Lord they will be tossed casually into the yawning maw of the Abyss of Fire because they are MALIGNANTLY USELESS.

The technique in question kills two birds with one stone when the “feeble-minded presenter of evidence” is supposedly a “well-meaning Christian”. This has the effect of making Freemasonry look innocent and wrongly persecuted while simultaneously making Christians appear irrational and hateful. (One of Freemasonry’s stated aims is the eradication of all religion; especially Christianity and Catholicism specifically.) Chances are you have already encountered this technique many times without even realizing it. It is easily adapted into fiction, and is often deployed with Christian characters to present them in a bad light (e.g. Ned Flanders paranoiacally raving about the NWO, getting an ignorant chuckle from a completely duped audience). Note that this technique is often deployed alongside a forum shill who will stand up and say something like, “You’ve got it wrong buddy; the Freemasons are benevolent and raise money for charity!” (which is itself highly debatable.) This has the effect of forming the opinion for the reader or listener so they don’t need to do any thinking of their own at all. Given the opportunity to safely not think, people will almost always happily not think! An unsuspecting person can blunder onto a forum where this sort of discussion has all been posted by a single person using multiple accounts (“sock puppets”) in order to sew a disinformation trap and the person who falls into that trap comes away successfully reverse-duped into adopting a POV that is actually sympathetic to the conspirators. It’s use on forums is relatively new, but the basic practice has been enacted for hundreds of years. Since 1966 we have been conditioned by the media to think of mind control only in terms of things like Manchurian Candidate-esque brainwashing processes, injections of mind-manipulating drugs, satellite-based microwave beams, secret transmitters disguised as cell phone towers that somehow influence mass-behaviour, and the like, which only tinfoil hats can remedy. In fact, the media itself is THE ONE SOURCE of mind control.

Turn it off and shut them out.

Retcon Movies:

Theatrical release big-budget docu-drama movies written to revise/rewrite/retcon the historical record to assuage suspicion in the eyes of the public. A list of examples? Basically all war or historical revolution movies, movies about actors and celebrities that sanitize and rewrite their Masonic involvement, or any of the current rash of movies intended to rewrite the life story and personal character of child-molesting Freemason rock stars... and endless other examples created to sanitize the record of troublesome historical incidents or to obfuscate incriminating facts about media figures.

Overblown music in video documentaries, etc:

Many videos that don't have enough oomph on their own are artificially bolstered with things like extremely tense music or even a barely audible ominous dissonant sub bass drone that is scarcely detectable but is undeniably there just to make the viewer feel unsettled. Then there is the old standby of the sappy maudlin piano and violin music intended to jerk the heart strings... Or a solitary bugle playing a mournful dirge to stir up the emotional grandiosity of some patriotic historical event (which is really a massive lie)... These are all accoutrements of the manipulation of emotion. TRUTH does not need special effects. It can stand on its own merits. It is a hallmark of truthful information that it often has none of these auditory trappings of manipulation. The truth stands for itself! Falsehoods, on the other hand, ring empty, and need every underhanded trick they can muster in order to influence you! Don't just sit and watch and listen; analyze the way something is presented too.

Doctored portrait photos of opposition leaders:

Many examples of this have been discovered in recent years. Supporters of POV B will demonize a leader of POV A by taking his portrait photo and altering it in photoshop to make the person look tired, or evil, or "seedy" or what have you. This is blatant mind control; it is not about letting the truth of the issues defend themselves, it is about tricking the viewer into towing the foisted line by any possible means. This is especially done to innocent people being framed for some immoral illegal act as a means to destroy them and erase any credibility they once had, tricking their followers into turning on them. This is also often used alongside the "straw man" trick outlined above. One can almost picture George Soros slapping the table and laughing with delight when they show him the photoshopped 'evil' photo of him they're about to publish in order to misdirect the ignorant masses away from correctly blaming Freemasonry.

Blaming Arabs, Muslims, and/or Neo Nazis:

This is a common tactic of not just Zionist/Mossad disinformation but especially Masonic disinformation. If these are demonized in a video you're watching or a book you're reading, they are a major red flag that you're being lied to. Ironically Masonic disinformation tends to frame Jews for Masonic crimes so as to shift blame and vice versa, even though Freemasonry and Frankist Reform Jews have been in bed together for over a century. The Protocols of Zion are an excellent example. It purports to be written by Jews, but delineates everything globalist Masonry has achieved and is attempting to achieve. It was intentionally released to shift the blame. So-called "Reform" Jews also, it should be noted, have nearly identical beliefs to those of Freemasonry. If you thought it was the Jews behind everything, note that it is entirely possible for Jews to become Masons. (Yet Catholics are banned from membership because they are "enemy-to-be-destroyed #1" of Freemasonry.)

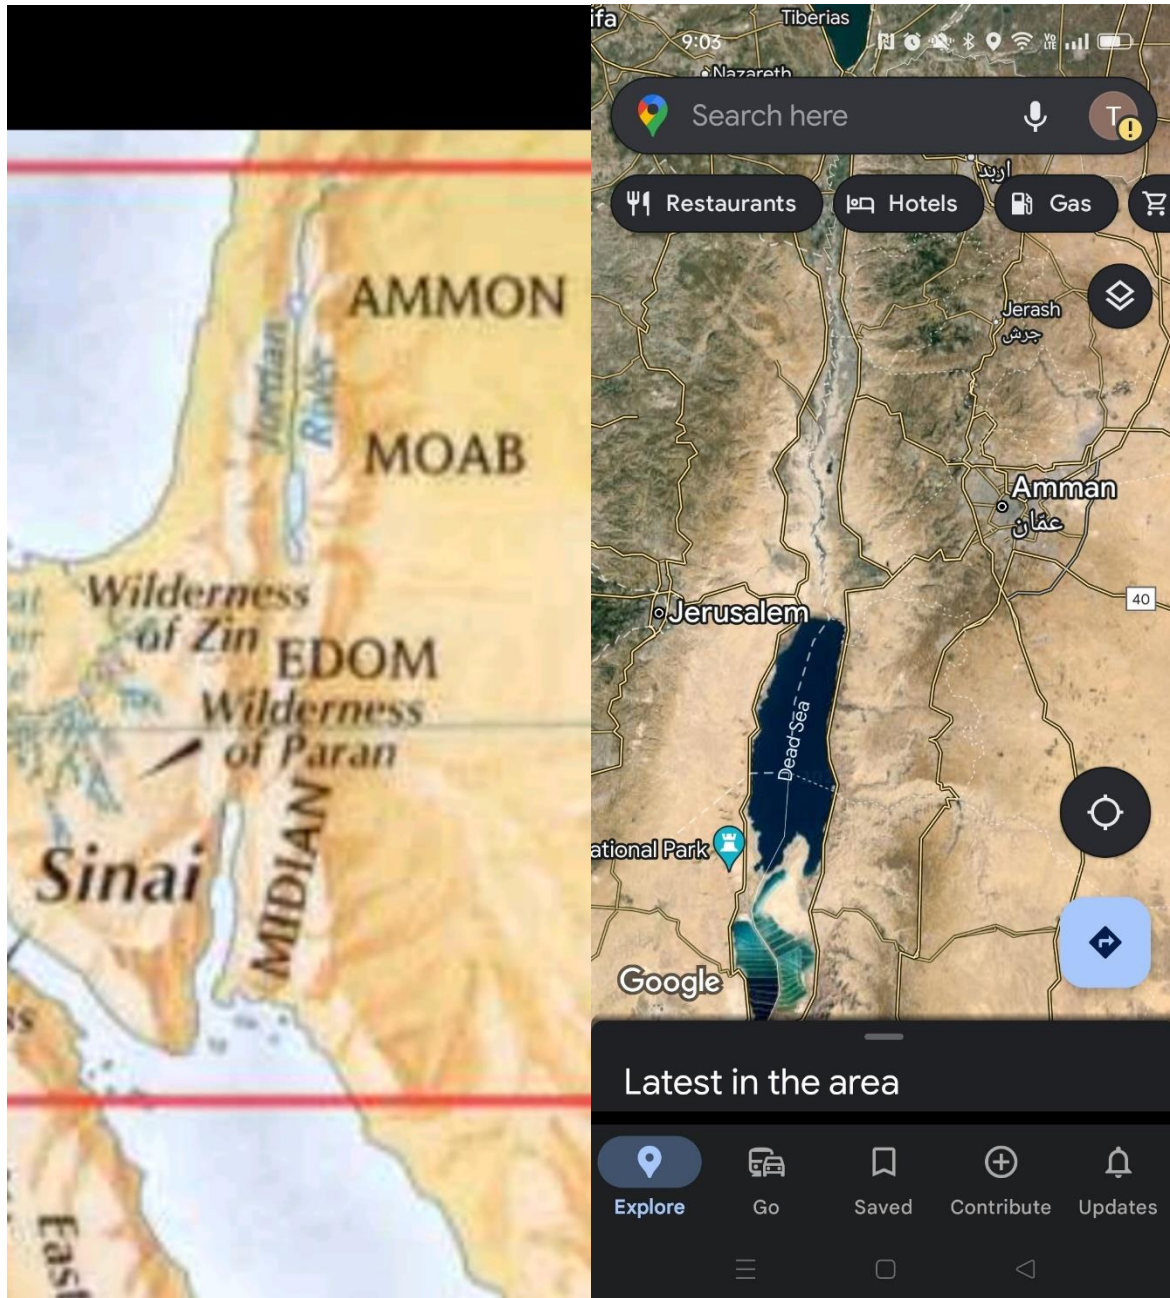

Masons can't seem to make inroads in Iran, Iraq, or Lebanon; the people there resist their One-World Government empire-building. This was prophesized in the Book of Daniel, 11:41:

He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, Moab, and the Chief of the Children of Ammon.

The "He" in the above quotation is the "King of the North", the anti-Christ, basically, the Freemasons' UN. The Book of Daniel also says that,

"he will plant his tabernacles between the seas in the glorious holy mountain"...

This is the Masonic Temple of Jerusalem.

Antifa / Black Lives Matter / 'Terrorist Groups' etc.

These are part of the Agenda of Fear stratagem employed by the Masonic operated CFR/CIA among others. Compare such modern groups to their American historical equivalents; the 1930's Black Legion and the Symbionese Liberation Army of the 1960's. These are all fake catspaw groups which only exist to be shown to you by the media. The reason they are showing these to you is,

A) to trick you that your government is powerless to cope with an emerging crisis that an autocratic one-world government would supposedly solve.

B) an example to encourage people to behave in a similar lawless manner to add fuel to the fire.

C) to provide visible [but false] reasons for the enactment of societal changes desired by the Freemasons.

The “extremist group members” glimpsed on TV are often merely hired actors (masons or otherwise) intended to provoke the public into accepting radical legal changes that erode away civil liberties to eventually facilitate the birth of a totalitarian one world government. Mention of groups like these should be considered highly suspicious and are an indicator that you are watching manipulation-oriented programming. It is very revealing to read up on the Black Legion of the 1930's. This group was supposedly an extremely violent version of the KKK. Their exploits in a movie (starring Humphry Bogart) and even Black Legion comic books made them nice and visible to the general public. A lot of probably entirely false newspaper stories about their murders followed. The I have in my possession a file the FBI opened on them. All the evidence they ever found was a number of newspaper clippings. Did they ever really exist or were they simply trying to make minorities feel persecuted against by whites so that they would rise up and commit terror acts of their own which could add more fuel to the fire; the “need” for iron-handed one-world government.

Human trafficking :

The only human trafficking being done is that being carried out by the FREEMASONS THEMSELVES as part of an international paedophile ring and don't let ANYBODY convince you that Freemasonry and the intelligence services of the NWO are not involved. This was proven by former head of the FBI Ted Gunderson who gathered enough evidence to prove that the Finders organization, an international paedophile/kidnapping operation with very close ties to organized Satanism/Luciferianism, was being covertly operated by the CIA which is totally Masonic. After securing a massive file of evidence after a raid on the Finders' compound (which, yes, I have personally seen and read) Gunderson, the FBI director, was suddenly advised by the State Department to take no action, and that the FBI was to drop their investigation. He was further advised that that the submitted FBI report was now CLASSIFIED SECRET, and was told, that Finders was, “an internal CIA matter” and he was to forget about it and leave well enough alone. [see document CIA Finders File by Ted Gunderson] But note that the CIA is RIDDLED TO THE BONE WITH FREEMASONS. What are the Freemasons doing with all these children in their impregnable strongholds, the masonic temples, all over the world? Perhaps we should ask what they aren't doing to them. When are we going to storm these Masonic edifices, as they did in Hungary in the 1800's, crack them open, reveal the depths of their crimes for all to see, and finally rid our society of these criminals and vampires forever?

Blaming the Jesuits / The Catholic Church:

Freemasonry is dedicated to the destruction of the Catholic church and all Christianity. They make all manner of media intended to be damaging to Christians' faith. Many of the Catholic Church leaders are themselves perversely complicit in this (which is a long story). Much which is critical of Catholicism thus has a deeper ulterior motive, particularly “humour”-oriented media. Charges of paedophilia in the clergy are played up for all they're worth by the media to make it seem that Catholicism manufactures paedophiles, while the facts about the prolific paedophilia among 33°

Freemasons is, of course, never mentioned. (More info keywords: “Boy’s Town”, “The Third Secret of Fatima Dossier”, and “Luciferian infiltration of the Catholic Church”.) The Roman Catholic Church itself has been polluted and corrupted by the highly controversial introduction of Ecclesiastical Freemasonry in Rome, sometime in the last several decades, despite numerous popes official warnings about Freemasonry being the Synagogue of Satan mentioned in the Book of Revelation – which was confirmed by Edgar Cayce.

Lowering the population:

This is one of the goals of globalism as stated on the Georgia Guidestones. It is simply admitted to in many, many globalist publications. This stratagem gave rise to things like contraception, abortion, planned parenthood, voluntary permanent sterilization surgeries, and sex education in schools, among other programs. Globalist Freemason creeps like Henry Kissinger openly endorse voluntary (or forced) sterilization for third world countries. These schmucks use propaganda tricks like “sustainable development goals” and other transparent balloon juice to put forth the impression that the world isn’t big enough to sustain the massive human population. Look around. Where’s the trouble? Malthusian supply disaster theory was long ago conclusively disproved, yet the globalists continue operating as if it is some sort of realistic danger. Why? The earth is titanicly huge, and despite what they are telling us, resources abound. The truth is, a smaller population is vastly easier to control. Freemason Prince Phillip said he wished he could be reincarnated as a killer virus to decimate the population of the earth. Why? Well to help his buddies create a despotic one-world government, of course. Although the members of international criminal organizations like the Council on Foreign Relations would be loathe to admit it, this kind of eugenic thinking is what normal well adjusted people consider an abhorrence of unparalleled evil. Because of this, Globalists have created the myth of “The Club of Rome”; this is an organization, said to be created by the Jesuits, which supposedly goes around gathering supporters for its wicked plans to bring about a state of universal negative population growth. When the Globalists are put under the microscope on this point, they just mention the Jesuit Club of Rome and point the finger elsewhere. Why would the Catholic Church advise against contraception on the one hand and then pursue eugenics on the other? It simply doesn’t add up. No, it is the old tried and tested disinformation strategy of the Freemasons, kill two birds with one stone; not only do they shift scrutiny away from themselves, they implicate their sworn enemies, the Catholics, at the same time. This is their favourite trick!

Militant minority-ism of one sort or another:

Feminism is strongly pushed on the public by Freemasonry, Marxism, etc. It is a key propaganda concept these days. The Tavistock Institute loves feminism because it has the potential to chisel apart the family unit and lower the human population (see their sick book Changing Society by Changing the Family which you might find for sale on ebay.uk being sold by disgusted ex-members of their organization, but oddly, nowhere else. Hmm...). Marxism uses feminism to bring down governments in the old divide and conquer manner; the more factions there are, the less likely everyone is to listen to one another and agree to cooperate against the impending overthrow of their government. Masons ORIGINATED and still promote feminism because of the abominable reason that the corruption of women is a key way to shatter Catholic families. This is just one faction they attempt to froth up into a perpetual angry state of resentment against society. (Compare to gay rights, black rights, etc. etc.) Feminism gets its claws into a woman's mind by appealing to her ego, making her more and more selfish by the trick of Calculated Button-Pushing; telling her all the alleged wrongs that have been supposedly committed against her. Many movies contain chauvinistic characters specifically written to demonstrate to women that they are being discriminated against. Since it is highly unlikely that women will see enough actual first-hand discrimination to provoke them to the desired degree of rebellion, the movies are more than happy to provide you with innumerable FICTIONAL examples! In the end, it is hoped by the subverters, that every woman will choose selfishness over the integrity of her family unit, and her home will be shattered in dissent when she is suitably provoked to discontent by fictional media messages. Her children, lacking proper guidance and having only selfishness and arguing to mould their character, will turn out poorly and will amount to little, perhaps even unconsciously emulating their mothers' self-centeredness, and initiating a cycle of generational familial dysfunctionality. All this destabilizes society tremendously; the children of broken homes create criminals whose chaotic lives burden society, while many women become so repellantly self-centred they never get the chance to breed. Other women become enamoured with the egoistic sexual fantasy lifestyle put forth in shows such as "Sex in the City"; the deranged Masonic love-'em-and-leave-'em philosophy of which was actually developed by the Tavistock Institute – the same Tavistock Institute which oversaw the creation of many rock bands exhibiting the same warped message beginning in the 1960's – as a means to corrupt and rip society apart to the point that Christianity and later society as a whole will easily be pulled down. You just watch and see! To paraphrase one of their own publications, "People solely focussed on prolific personal sexual conquests, like urban gays for example, have no interest in taking to the streets to fight to maintain the integrity of the society in which they live. They will merely capitulate with change in order to resume their egoistic sexual activities as soon as possible."

Scripture states "In the latter days, there will no longer be any such thing as a virtuous woman." Daniel 11 indicates that one of the signs that the end of days is near is that woman shall be corrupted. Why? Well in the old days, people had things called ethics, values, morals, and virtue. Being raised on these things quickly taught their youngsters that selfless service to others is NOTHING LESS than THE KEY TO HAPPINESS, which has been all but forgotten by modern people because of subversion deliberately tailored to cultivate egotism.

Ok, so what exactly is happiness anyway...?

Arthur Schopenhauer, one of the most insightful, brilliant philosophers ever to walk the earth, said in his work, The World as Will and Idea,

"Happiness is actually a negative quality – that is, the ABSENCE of something, -and that something is SELF." (emphasis mine.)

Think about this; what is it that makes your favourite pastime or hobby your favourite? Why, it is the ability of this pastime to liberate you, as no other pastime does, from the unpleasant state of having to deal with yourself; your annoying thoughts, your burdens, your aches and pains... and take you to a place far away where you are thinking of anything BUT self-oriented things! Consider how immersion in getting things you want – i.e. materialism – creates a vicious circle of desires; you want something real bad, and then finally you get it, only to realize it wasn't as all satisfying as you thought it would be... Then its on to wanting something else! And so on and so on in an endless loop until we finally realise (maybe ten lifetimes down the road) that selfish desire leads to disillusionment.

Now, with this in mind, let's look at the average Christian family of yesteryear as evidenced in the pages of innumerable nonfiction books written in centuries past; life in the days of yore: Everyone was brought up with the idea of service to others. When a man and a woman got married, they were brought up to go into marriage thinking about making each other happy, and they continued with this attitude every single day, not thinking of themselves, but the betterment of their spouses' life. As long as both husband and wife exercised this ethic, it led directly to CONTENTMENT (something totally unheard-of these days!). When the couple had children, the children too learned the ethics of selfless contentment through service to others from their parents and continued the cycle, generation to generation; happiness through cultivating the desire to invest the time and effort to make OTHERS happy. They did this without expectation of reciprocation, but along the way, their kind actions ensured that they were well-liked. As a result, they got so much support and love from everyone around them that going through life with one another was a joy.

BEING SELFLESS MAKES YOU CONTENT.

Being selfish and fixated on making yourself happy only makes you miserable.

THIS IS THE SECRET TO HAPPINESS - THE SECRET OF LIFE. It is nothing less than a Spiritual Law spoken into effect by God; THAT'S HOW IT IS. How did we forget to live in harmony with it? Masonic subversion.

Certainly, Feminism shatters the natural order of this spiritually developed male/female relationship harmony that is the cornerstone of all family values. Why, the souls of whole families might even be ruined just from one feminist mother, if the family members don't take the time needed to evaluate their reactions through careful reflection, but instead lash out with reactionary counter-selfishness...

33° Freemasons know that this means Lucifer's agenda to ruin God's creation of mankind benefits greatly from feminism too. With every family that falls, the world gets a little more chaotic... Do not doubt it! THEY don't! Look at what is ALL OVER the media!

Freemasons are spending millions, if not billions, each year on CORRUPTING AND SUBVERTING WOMEN.

But now you know why.

But as stated before, Feminism is just ONE way to incite a "minority" into unfounded rebellion against society. In many early 1920's movies, women were portrayed as selfless considerate people full of supportive love and morality. Towards the late '20's early 30's, women began to be heavily sexualized into 'lust objects' on screen, and scandalous "corrupted woman" movies boomed, OSTENSIBLY as cautionary tales (using the subversive methods outlined above) while really demonstrating how the audience could do it themselves. Shortly thereafter in the late 30's early 40's, women were being shown engaging in all sorts of immoral acts, such as committing murders and fighting. In the mid to late 1940's, a strange thing happened; whereas dialogue in movies previous to this point had shown men treating women with verbal respect and polite chivalry, suddenly all on-screen male characters began exhibiting a patronizing, condescending, or mocking tone towards all the female characters. This was so that the media could convince women of the public that this state of affairs was a trapping of reality, as if it was not fiction. (One excellent example of this Calculated Button-Pushing is the SF movie Angry Red Planet – a telling title indeed!) These movies were made specifically so that articles in periodicals could hold these films up for scrutiny in their reviews and affix to them words like “sexism”, “misogynistic”, and “chauvinistic” in order to trick women of the public into angrily becoming agents for the subversion of their own society. This is called Calculated Button-Pushing; deliberate provocation of an angry reaction. Before this state of affairs, contrary to what you may have read in the modern media’s subversive history books, there were minimal sexual conflicts in society. Women were actually much more free in the past than the media would have you believe. Just read some old books! Even back in the 1700’s there were female doctors, etc. Everyone lived according to one morality; a SELFLESS one in which every member of the family fulfils their respective role because that’s the one God gave them and they want to make the others in their family happy!

...But the subversive Freemasons know that in order to get people to angrily agitate for “equality” and to “stand up and fight for their rights”, then it is first necessary to convince them that they are being discriminated against. And this is the function of the media, their mind-control device.

Here is the first and last building block of the destabilization of society; using the target society itself to divide and conquer itself in a contrived clash of class, sex, creed, religion, and race conflict. If society is brought into a state of total disunity, there can be no significant opposition to takeover when the time comes to fake an emergency and deploy the tanks on every street corner. With any luck, you can use the conflict itself (provided enough people fall for it) to bring about the crisis conditions that are necessary to declare martial law in perpetuity unchallenged. If you can do this all over the world at the same time (as the Freemasons are attempting to do) then it is but a short step from tanks rolling through your capitol cities to a ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT.

This very same “prove to them they are being discriminated against” strategy was being perpetrated against the blacks as well since the early days of Hollywood; in the earliest films, blacks are shown as sober, dignified, well mannered butlers or housemaids. Shortly afterwards, they are portrayed as fools and jabbering stereotypes. The 1980’s got the trope of “the black guy always gets it first” in war, horror, and slasher flicks and such. All this was intended from the beginning to piss off blacks and get them angry enough to riot. -And it certainly worked. Again, In order to get people to angrily agitate for “equality” and “rights”, it is first necessary to convince them that they are being discriminated against. What did the Rodney King trial demonstrate to blacks? The OJ Simpson Trial? The result was rioting.

The 1990’s gave us trope of the angry shouting black man; a role model intended to create a generation ready for conflict. This spilled over into degenerate black gangster culture, and tailor-made role models for massive scale conflict and race violence have been carefully crafted BY THE MEDIA to use against traditional American society and destroy it from within. And now we have “Black Lives Matter” –but who is it that is saying that black lives don’t matter?

THE MEDIA, that’s who! –On the Movies & TV shows THEY created!

It certainly isn’t your neighbours saying it! The media has terrorized real people into avoiding the race issue like the plague.

It sounds obvious, but evidently most people have been fooled; never mistake what happens on the screen for an ensampling of the way things happen in reality. There is ALWAYS an agenda.

It is just like the way that you should never take the lyrics of a song and use it to reframe your life; that is exactly what they have expected you to do so that they can sabotage and subvert you!

An excellent example of a musical use of Calculated Button-Pushing is the song “Under My Thumb” by a seminal old Freemason band called “The Rolling Stones” (the title of the band itself being a reference to the dog-like Masonic ideal, the “love ‘em and leave ‘em” lifestyle.), this song is a tailor-made inflammatory slur against women deliberately calculated to piss them off and TRICK WOMEN into adopting feminism so that they become the unwitting, unthinking dupes of Masonic agendaism.

“Challenging your Assumptions”:

One of the biggest Masonic media propaganda tropes these days, if not THE biggest, is information specifically tailored to challenge our assumptions about anything and everything. It doesn't matter to the media which assumptions of ours are being challenged, or even by what; it is enough that people are being regularly and repeatedly trained that their natural perceptions about how things should be and how they usually are should be demonstrated to them as unreliable. The central reason for this is simply to staunch the inevitable public backlash against Feminism and the phenomenon that women adhering to this philosophy will be reviled by virtually everyone who does not subscribe to it, because there is nothing more repugnant to any human being than the perception of egotism on the part of another. (That in itself proves that human souls did not originate on earth! WE are from a higher dimension, destined for a higher purpose!) Egotism disgusts and repulses people and drives them away. Feminism appeals to the subverted woman by appealing to her ego. It has the direct effect of amplifying any existing egotism so that it manifests to a much greater degree than it might have ordinarily, because the female has been deceived into believing that her happiness is proportionate NOT to how she can be of Christian service to others, or how much she can support her family, but is instead somehow proportionate to the amount that she asserts herself and defies others, especially males. (But this path will destroy her and her family and was carefully tailored to do so.) Evidently, it was felt among Freemasons that the main objection to the Feminism weapon they were about to deploy on the public was that people would stand up and say, “that's not how a lady is supposed to act; women are supposed to be selfless and supportive, not selfish, like you are. You're a bad person.” People saying this to a prospective feminist may well deal their burgeoning feminism a killing blow. The Masonic countermeasure decided upon was to statistically lower the probability that this would happen by convincing the public that they should not make assumptions about how anyone is to be, let alone women, even though men have been protective and women have been nurturing for a million years, Freemasonry now wishes to have us unlearn this so that they can subvert us with their weaponized egalitarianism, the immediate crowbar with which they hope to lever apart Christian families. No more selflessness means no more comprehension of Christian peace. Therefore no more Christianity. It is as disgusting and simple as that.

The fact is, the LORD blessed us with discernment so that we can tell right from wrong, ego from egolessness, self from selfishness, worth and worthlessness, and good from evil. Indeed, to master our discernment of good from evil is exactly the reason WHY WE ARE HERE. Those who love not the TRUTH and instead love the lies of Freemasonry are not Christians. If you love feminism, you cannot be a Christian; whether you realized it or not you are a Satanist, because, as Anton LaVey taught in the Satanic Bible, Satanism IS selfishness. If you embrace feminism so that you can indulge in promiscuous sex without honouring your husband, you are a Satanist, because, as Anton LaVey also taught in the Satanic Bible, Satanism is indulgence. Anton LaVey also wrote a book called The Satanic Witch, a how-to book teaching women how to be selfish and evil. Right off the bat, the book lets us know straight out; “THE SATANIC WITCH IS A FEMINIST.” He then backs up this assertion with everything the Satanic Bible teaches about glorifying the ego and indulgence at the expense of everything else in life. This is the inversion of everything that Christ taught. The precepts of Christ teach that you will have peace and contentment throughout your life if you but embrace selflessness.

Conversely, the scriptures tell you plainly the unhappy fate of those who assert their egotism:
YOU HAVE NO PEACE.

When they sing “I”, they mean, “you”.

They sew messages into your mind through pop songs; prompting you with this or that suggestion. They know they just need to manifest a suggestion and a certain percentage will fall into line, relating to the prompting, convincing themselves that that is how they feel about a situation, so they can feel they relate to a song they like. In this manner, destructive messages have decimated lives to an untold degree.

How many marriages have been broken up by the planting of seeds like the following:

“I’m gonna harden my heart, I’m gonna swallow my tears, I’m gonna turn and leave you.”

-Quarterflash

My father told me that one day, early in his marriage to my mother, everything was fine and stable, but he came home from work one day, and my mother was standing there with her suitcase packed. “Where are you going?” he asked in surprise.

“I’m leaving.” she said.

“Why?” my father asked.

Apparently, she didn’t even know; she couldn’t give him an answer of any kind. He said it was as if she’d just gotten in her head from nowhere that she was dissatisfied with home life and that she should leave. He said they talked about it, and he calmed her down, and she relented and changed her mind, and everything went back to normal for a little while.

“I just couldn’t understand what had gotten into her; it was the most bewildering thing.” Dad said.

Well, I can tell you that when I was a baby, my mother stayed home listening to the radio all the time. I remember lying in the crib and the radio was ALWAYS on and my mother was always listening. Around about that time there was a song by Carole King that she always listened to that went, “Well it’s too late baby, yeah, it’s too late, though we really did try to make it. Something inside has died, I find, I’m bored and I just can’t fake it.”

Did my mother let the Freemasons trick her in to walking out on her husband?

This brings up another fact about Freemasonry; they are always falling into the pitfalls they have dug to sabotage the servants of Jesus. Yet they are sabotaging themselves too. My mother’s father was a top-level Freemason. Her mother was a regional top-level person for Eastern Star. Why in the world do these stupid people labour to sabotage the young when they are sabotaging their own children right along with everyone else? This is why they are all alcoholics with bad hygiene. They hate themselves. How can they not?

They could repent and burn their temples of sin and dedicate their lives to Jesus!

But if they die in their egotism and their deplorable sabotaging of all the Christian good in the world they will be cast into outer darkness where they will sit alone and really have time to hate themselves like never before ...for an eternity. -And with no bottle to soothe and stupefy them from their everlasting guilt. -And no bullet and no noose could ever end that existence. They will come to know the true meaning of damnation most intimately indeed.

“Rationalism”:

For the last hundred or so years the media has very carefully and deliberately misled the public into believing there is no such thing as Satan “because we live in these enlightened times” and “evil doesn’t really exist, that is just natural Darwinism; a survival strategy.” Why this attitude? It comes directly from FREEMASON Thomas Payne’s book The Age of Reason, in which scepticism and “rationalism” are held as the crowning triumph of the human mind. What the hell? Why?

BECAUSE SKEPTICISM IS SELF-ENFORCED IGNORANCE.

You don’t even need a warden; if you are a sceptic, you have imprisoned your mind, and the Freemasons no longer need to worry that you might discover the true nature of the earth and the purpose and destiny of the human soul. There is a SPIRITUAL war going on, but a sceptic will always remain wilfully ignorant of this until it is too late; the first casualty in the mass grave of the utterly deceived. He is usually led there by subversion that exploits his egotism; he’s terrified of being laughed at for being “superstitious” or for not accepting mainstream bullshit-science. He needs to feel smarter than other people through the simple fell-swoop of condemning everything he doesn’t feel like researching. Basically, he’s a total coward. -But an atheist is also a fool; believe me, I was a fool like this for 35 years. Back then, it never occurred to me how dumb atheism is: If a Christian is wrong and atheists are right, It’s no sweat. The Christian maybe missed out on a little indulgence. But if the Christian is right and the atheist is wrong, the atheist is going to be screaming in terror when the Day of the Lord finally arrives! (And probably for a long time afterwards...)

The Condemnation of Superstition

The Book of Enoch says that the evil spirits of the earth, ghosts and demons, are the disembodied souls of the giants that were slain by God in the Deluge. These were prevented from reincarnating; the reason being that they were sired by Fallen Watcher Angels who presumed to breed with human women (as referred to in Genesis 6); since their souls were formed not in heaven by God but on the earth by selfish angels; on the earth would be their dwelling for all of eternity...

I have researched the subject of demons and poltergeists for something like 40 years and I can tell you that what I have found is that the very oldest books on the subject (I’m talking the 1700’s here) read just like modern accounts. Poltergeists are actually demonic visitations and the consistency in the details of their manifestations over the many centuries confirms this unequivocally; that is, right up until the 1960’s, when a lot of psychology-based books (by subversive Freemason William Roll) began coming out which attempted to reframe poltergeists and demons into ‘externalizations of the subconscious mind’. This explanation simply doesn’t hold up to scrutiny at all and has its roots in the policy of Masonic “rationalism” so prevalent in the media today. Today’s media accounts of poltergeists are suspiciously devoid of the continual demonic/religious overtones so replete in those accounts of the past to the point where it is obvious that they are simply being deleted from the witness’ testimony. (For example, take the famous ‘Bell Witch’ case of Tennessee; a History Channel documentary on the subject attempts to emphasize only very superficial activity, such as levitating objects, and attributes the source of the “Witch” to the ghost of an old woman who lived nearby, no doubt inspired by the “Witch” misnomer. However, if one pours through the many well-preserved accounts of the first-hand witnesses, one learns of an entity that would announce the recent sins of everyone in town and attempted a classic possession against the father of the Family, John Bell, changing and distorting his features hideously, which he resisted until it killed him by poisoning him. The "Witch" even STATED ITSELF TO BE A DEMON.

John Bell's son, John Jr., Was visited by this entity some years later and not only did it accurately predict both coming world wars, it also furnished a huge amount of religious information and some revelations on the prehistory of the Earth that match precisely many things Edgar Cayce talked about in his famous readings.

So you can see how the media is busy spinning the religion out of everything these days to keep you in the dark about what it's all about. I recently saw a sceptical POV book about Edgar Cayce (and would never have believed anyone could possibly attempt such a thing after having personally sifted through the constant astonishing revelations in his thousands of readings) the crux of which was, "say what you want about Edgar Cayce, but he certainly had a very active subconscious mind!" This is carefully calculated remark intended to try to trick people into thinking that Cayce dreamed it all up! When he stated in 1935 that, 20,000 years ago, the Nile River emptied into the Atlantic (as opposed to the Mediterranean), no one believed him. But just in the past few years satellite photography of the Sahara has revealed the winding ancient riverbed of the Nile that entered the Atlantic at Morocco. Are we to believe that his subconscious mind alone came up with this information? Cayce even repeated the astonishing dream interpretation demonstrated by the Biblical prophet Daniel – who notably also went into a sleep-like state just like Cayce to consult his source – even going so far to tell the inquiring person what they had dreamed even after they had apologised for forgetting it! Cayce did this numerous times. (Cayce said his information came from the Heavenly Tablets – the same source mentioned in the Book of Enoch and the Book of Jubilees... It is the spiritual library of all human experience presided over by God.) And this is but a handful of examples out of thousands of facts Cayce produced, which were, only after many decades as science and knowledge caught up, revealed to be true. Only someone totally ignorant of the content of the readings or someone intensely hostile to Christianity would seek to blacken the name of Edgar Cayce, who helped and continues to help people round the world with the thousands of effective homeopathic remedies his readings revealed.

Edgar Cayce was an intensely selfless person. A reading done on himself revealed that his abilities were the natural result of a human spirit who wanted with all his being to help other people selflessly. In ancient times, MANY people had the abilities of Edgar Cayce because they were far less selfish and corrupt than the people of today; that's what the Biblical prophets like Daniel were!

If you will reflect on it for a moment you may find a great many questions answered by this realization. That is how good people in pre-Biblical times knew exactly what people in the end times would have to endure ...and all world scriptures described the same state of affairs that would exist at the end; subverted womankind, scepticism penetrating the core of every religion, and many other things detailed in the present work. (see The Book of the Hopi, The Upanishads, The Book of Enoch, Book of Jubilees, Daniel, Revelation, Jasher, The Dead Sea Scrolls, etc. etc)

How did people long ago know they could eat certain strange-looking foods? How did people know what plants were good for treating which ailments? An interesting example of what I am talking about is the poison korari; it is composed of the juices from several different plants all prepared in different ways, each heated to different temperatures, before being combined and heated once again. When the liquid is completed it creates a nerve toxin that paralyzes a monkey but unlike all other poisons, it does not poison the meat, so animals disabled with korari can be readily eaten.

"Rationalism" would have us believe the natives that developed korari did so from trial and error...!

How did supposedly primitive natives develop the skills necessary to know how to create such a complicated preparation? When asked, the natives themselves say that legend has it that one of their seers went to sleep and told someone the method for the preparation as he slept! Is this not exactly what Edgar Cayce did? The book of Daniel describes how Daniel was able to interpret King Nebuchadnezzar's dream, which the King himself had already forgotten; Daniel went to sleep, whereupon he saw the king's dream and was given the meaning. That is why Nebuchadnezzar was so moved by Daniel that he realized that Daniel's God was the only true God. The powers of Edgar Cayce were not unique to him - they are NORMAL for entirely selfless humans, but we have become so encouraged to dwell upon selfishness, gain, sin, sex, vice, and materialism that the vast majority of us have long since lost the ability.

Benevolent as such persons as Daniel and Edgar Cayce were in being desirous only to help others, there are those today who would criticize them and say anything they could to invalidate others' perceptions of these people and their God-given abilities.

Many of these atheists declare themselves "rationalist sceptics" and stubbornly refuse to accept anything at all that implies an unseen spiritual dimension intrinsic to our existence.

So-called 'rationalist' sceptics are so named in order to foist the impression that those with any viewpoint opposed to theirs are necessarily being irrational. However, because they invariably offer only a mechanistic atheistic explanation for whatever they turn their attention to, they are therefore operating from a dogmatic agenda which compulsively rejects data which does not fit their worldview. This act is the very definition of pseudoscience (a term they love to brand others with) hence, despite their strategically chosen epithet, these people are therefore demonstrably behaving in a manner most irrational.

So-called "rationalism" has its roots in Freemasonry.

Freemason Thomas Payne wrote, amongst others, books entitled, Freemasonry, and The Age of Reason. The latter work was championed (by influential masons) to the point that it supposedly defines the very apex of the post-renaissance modern way of thinking.

Payne's philosophy amounted to the following four points:

1. "Intelligent, sophisticated, modern people don't believe in superstition."
-This is a key Masonic propaganda concept; no superstition, no supernatural, no souls, no devil, no morals, no salvation, Lucifer wins! Simple as that.
2. "There are no witches, there never were any witches."
-There ARE witches; destructive Luciferian witches at that, but they learned that traditional covens were always getting compromised; as soon as one member was brought into court, they named names and the coven was destroyed. There was also no way for covens to interact in concert with other covens constructively (or DEstructively, rather) without a firmly established overarching hierarchical system to establish the seniority of one ambitious egomaniac over another... Thus, by necessity, FREEMASONRY was born. It provided the perfect wolf-in-sheep's-clothing camouflage; a charitable fraternity of supposed "believers in God" whom no good-hearted person would suspect. It provided a rigorous hierarchical system so that every witch would know their place; it created a way for covens (now called lodges) to interact and communicate in safety; It provided them strongholds in every city; Those windowless edifices concealing their rites of initiation, rituals they perform on various astrologically significant dates (formerly called sabbats), the blood sacrifices they make of goats (WHICH YOU CAN FIND VIDEOS OF ON THE INTERNET, yes, taking place in MASONIC LODGES) and worse, their debased initiations and horrifying oaths designed to twist a man's moral beliefs until he is either a true 33° Luciferian or just a dues-paying dupe put out to pasture in the comparatively benign blue degrees where his money serves as a milk-cow to the higher-ups in the literal pyramid scheme. They keep these bozos egos inflated by showering them with contrived honours and medals and praise for their “insight into the Masonic mysteries” and they happily keep on paying their dues. This is why so many Freemasons refer to themselves as thieves, incidentally.

[To be fair, Freemasonry is arguably older than stated, but Luciferian Witchcraft penetrated British Freemasonry at some point prior to the Napoleonic Wars. For sometime after, French Masonry was primarily revolutionary, and the two operated antagonistically, but the two were reconciled by the Grand Orient Lodge sometime in the 1800's, combining into revolutionary Luciferian masonry; a true blight on the earth as never there was before. The Scottish Rite is probably the most well known of these Red Luciferian monstrosities. This is what is to blame for the current state of the world. It is entirely possible that in the extremely distant past, Freemasonry was originally developed for truly benevolent reasons, but even by the time of Ezekiel, Freemasonry was already subverted into sun worship as seen in the Bible. (Many Freemasons believe that Lucifer is the sun. They believe God created Lucifer to create the earth dimension and that he rules over this plane. They believe his light to be the darkness in men's souls. They reverse the meanings of virtually everything until whatever symbols they use in public appear on the surface upright and just from an outsider's point of view, but to initiates these symbols are understood to be mockery of Jesus and an expression of Lucifer worship of the highest calibre. An example would be the square and compass logo of Masonry itself; to outsiders they say that those tools represent the moral shaping of a man – yet to insiders, the square and compass symbolize the sex act; Lucifer's original subversion of human souls ever since the Garden of Eden.)

A few Bible references to Freemasonry that spring to mind (but there are many more still...)
Ezekiel 8:15-18

Matthew 5:33-37, 7:15-23

And, my favourite is in Daniel 11:14 about the latter days we are living in...

“The robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; BUT THEY SHALL FALL.”

But let us come to the next point of Thomas Payne's philosophy of rationalism...

3. “We no longer live in the age of belief in witchcraft; these are enlightened times. “
If you don't believe in criminals, there is no crime, either, right? Nevermind the Mafia, they're just a fraternal organization which raises money for charity.
4. “The Christians who persecuted witches existed were basically just misogynists who got their jollies by torturing defenceless women.”

Here we have the old “kill-two-birds-with-one-stone” disinformation technique again, long a favourite stratagem of Freemasonry. (“Don't just point the finger away from us! Make it so it points at our enemy!”) It denies the reality of witchcraft while also tricking women into feeling oppressed – by Christians! This point of Thomas Payne's has been so successful it has formed the basis of piles and piles of books and films. It has become such ingrained rationalist dogma that the reader might even find themselves struggling with this one. If you need more information, read the following books... (don't just read ABOUT them, you'll read some subversion; read the actual books! and do yourself a favour; skip the introductions – these seek to prejudice your mind even before you’ve read the first page!)

"The Discovery of Witches" by Matthew Hopkins and

"The Wonders of the Invisible World" by Cotton Mather and Increase Mather.

In case you didn’t know, these authors were famed and highly influential “witch hunters”. It strikes me very much that these works were written by very sober men who were very concerned and careful to protect innocent persons in what they did. Cotton Mather refutes the notion of testing witches by absurd, inevitably lethal, “catch 22” means such as attempting to drown them to see if they will live. He calls this a monstrous falsehood and refutes it on every point, scorning such immoral methods and saying "It is better that 100 witches walk free than to condemn even one innocent human being". (But reviewers critical of Mather incessantly misquote this, switching it around, and saying that Mather claimed it was better to burn a thousand people falsely than to let one witch walk free! This monstrous misrepresentation is allowed to happen because people are simply BRAINWASHED BY MEDIA LIES these days, and complacently swallow every media falsehood without fact-checking the source itself.) Both of the above-cited books warn of how to detect false accusations of witchcraft from mischievous people and never to judge anyone guilty of witchcraft unless extraordinary supernatural occurrences are directly observed, of which some clearly were. (one incident springs to mind of a witch undergoing trial that at one point was observed by all persons in the courtroom levitating around the room and shrieking obscenities. This is full blown possession folks! A far cry from the wrongful, dubious proceedings that the media would have us imagine transpired. Those on trial were indeed actual practitioners of Satanic witchcraft.). The three authors everywhere impress one as extremely ethical, intelligent, and articulate. These men were very highly learned, of astounding selfless moral character that shines forth from their every paragraph, and being exemplary legal minds could consistently produce highly just and logical deductions and conclusions at least on par, and possibly superior to, the police detectives of our own day and age. Furthermore, they could fluently read and write numerous European languages! Can you? I can’t! We’re all a bunch of dummies these days!

The more I read of books from the 16-1700's the more convinced I am that it is most assuredly WE who are living in the DARK AGES of ignorance and abysmal moral character and not them, as the media would always have us believe. The people of the day were of such high ideals and morals that people today cannot even comprehend the descriptions of towns where no crime exists, everyone puts into practice "love thy neighbour" and literally no one is ever even heard to swear. Oh, to live in such a world as compared to the virtual moral vacuum we have today!

The injustice done to these authors by our media is quite apparent after actually reading their books without prejudice. Why, the very introductions of the modern editions of these books (very tellingly) characterize their authors as "superstitious bigoted Christians"; yet being as widely read on the subject of the supernatural (including ghosts, psychic phenomena, poltergeists, modern witchcraft and Satanism, demonology, demonic possession, UFOs, and the like) as I am, which I have been voraciously delving into ever since I became literate in childhood, I am left with the realization after reading the works of these authors that, had they been atheists living in modern times describing the exact same phenomena witnessed, only in materialist terms of quantum mechanics and parapsychology, they would have been hailed as ground-breaking geniuses, just as William G. Roll was when he published the first "academic science" publication on Poltergeists; Ingeniously entitled Poltergeists, the work seeks to revise the interpretation of these bodiless demons, long recognized by the Catholic Church as demonic infestations and obsessions, indeed, recognized by virtually every world culture as demonic activity originating externally from the victims, into "externalizations; by-products of the subconscious of unhappy people"...!

(Might Dr. Roll only have been "hailed" for his innovation in the Masonic art of deceiving people away from their religious beliefs? For muddying their spiritual understanding? Gee, I wonder.)

Other current authors, especially the dedicated amateur ones, such as those of the modern spiritualists and self-styled ghost hunters for example, describe exactly the very same phenomena that these "bigoted superstitious" Christian men painstakingly documented, and in no less the same terms in many cases. Spiritualists call these phenomena ghosts and demons, just as Cotton Mather and Matthew Hopkins did. The only difference is that since they are not Christians, but considered part of the "new age", these modern POVs are exempt from such media persecution. In fact, everything and anything to do with new age supernatural beliefs is encouraged in the media, so long as it does not support Christianity in any way. And if it can be spun in such a way as to undermine Christianity, say, by branding Christians as "superstitious" or "intolerant", for example, well then so much the better, for their purposes... (If there was really no bias going on, wouldn't there be media documentaries branding Wicca as foolish superstition instead of Christianity?)

But I promise you, once the Christians are gone, the media will turn their full attention to the annihilation of ALL SUPERSTITION EVERYWHERE until it is eradicated from the earth so that NO ONE, from the moment they are born till the moment they die, will have any idea whatsoever that God exists. –That is, if the Freemasons got their way, but don't worry. Remember Daniel 11:14?

THEY SHALL FALL!

It is inescapable to one who has really studied the subject matter that all of these supernatural phenomena are real. I have personally witnessed poltergeist activity (in the form of "apports" of pennies materializing and falling from just below the ceiling) and seen first-hand the astonishing effects of witchcraft (in fact a death spell). The religions and myths of all the earth testify as to the reality of these things! In fact, documented cases of poltergeists and demonic possession are just as prevalent, if not more so, these days than in ages past. (Father Malachi Martin, exorcist for the Catholic Church, estimated an increase of the number of possessions; up 800% from between 1980 to his time of writing, which was 1995.) Yet the media agenda is clearly to discredit Christianity and not belief in the dangerous, frightening, evidently wildly amplifying otherworldly phenomena which only JESUS can PROTECT people against. (it would be well to ponder the implications...)

Consider the double standard that is the topic of witchcraft and Satanism. When these topics are even hinted at by Christian authors, they are roundly condemned out of hand as being spurious.

"There is no Satanism!" the critics will say, and they will laugh off the very notion as paranoid delusion. "Witchcraft", they will say, "Is only nature worship, and is a positive religion, and how dare anyone suggest otherwise!" and "the gentle people of the old pagan religion were unjustly persecuted by insane, bloodthirsty Christians!" ...Yet a glance through the readily available literature reveals HUNDREDS of books about organized Satanism, how to form a coven, perform satanic rituals, etc. Numberless "witches' spellbooks" abound and virtually ALL OF THEM contain very negative hateful murderous spells of decidedly malevolent intent. This is far from a religion of nature, unless you define nature as "kill or be killed", "survival of the fittest", or "might makes right" as many atheists do. Cries of "intolerance" are always used to muzzle and silence, as well as to discredit any Christian author so the effects of the Masonic taint can be allowed to spread.

Cotton Mather described an incident in which numerous persons who were gathered in what we would now call a poltergeist-ridden home, watched as a fast, bright little object that flew in the manner of a honeybee shot straight into the face of a young girl, who presently buckled over and wretched up a small pile of nails and stickpins. Exactly the same phenomena of vomiting up sharp objects has been reported and described more than once in recent possession and poltergeist incidents. Does this consistency not suggest that these witch-hunters of old were indeed witnessing genuine supernatural phenomena and attempting to confront it to protect their communities? I have seen recent footage captured during a poltergeist incident of a tiny little light flying around a room that was only perceptible due to the nightvision camera used. It was about the size of a bb-gun pellet and wherever it alighted, objects would move or fall from shelves. It was as if this were the speck of consciousness of an unseen being (or perhaps a being which could not be seen with eyes calibrated only to the stuff of our dimension) ...

The object flying in the singular manner of a bee brings to mind phenomena I have witnessed myself on several occasions. Particularly this; To tell you the truth, I used to be a Satanist (now reformed, thankfully) and in 1989 I attempted to CAST one of the death spells that I read about in a certain book of Satanic magic that was available at the time... You see, there was a boy who used to spit in my face and punch me at school every day and I in my youthful egotism I desired revenge against him so badly that I waited for the right astrological conditions and conducted the spell. The very next morning I got a phone call from a friend of mine who told me that the particular boy who was the target of my spell had been involved in an apparently random act of physical violence in a seedy part of town and had been hospitalized after being severely beaten up by a gang of young men. Although I had seen that annoying fellow every day at school for months and months ...I never again saw him at school from that day forth.

Evidently once he recovered from the beating he received, and was released from hospital, he changed schools. I know this because approximately a year later I saw him at a shopping mall. (At least I didn't succeed in actually killing him! All I really wanted was to have him removed from my life, and that was accomplished. I have since repented of my sorceries and forgiven that boy for the way he treated me. I believe God prevented the black mark of murder from being placed on my soul.) However, I only mention this because within a few days of this "death spell" incident, in which I called upon Lucifer and other fallen angels to come and carry out the working, a so-called "UFO" was sighted over the city where I lived (and even, I found out later, reported on the local radio). I was quite shocked to see it myself OVER MY HOUSE. At first, I saw it out one window, gliding over treetops in the distance, and then out a window on the opposite side of the house. It too flew very much in the manner of a bee or wasp, just like the "poltergeist light" mentioned above. It was approximately the size of a man or slightly bigger, spherical in shape, and emitted a peculiar orange light. It seemed to be coming closer and closer the more it "orbited" around the vicinity of my house. The human-sized sphere of dull orange light flew about like a living creature; like a wasp or hummingbird zipping around and zig-zagging, and appeared to be searching for something. Dear reader, I do not exaggerate in the slightest, but this object flew directly over my house and stopped. Watching it out the window as I was, I presently ran outside in awe and saw it hovering directly over me up above the treetops. It was glowing a dull orange; not bright like a welder's arc or anything, more like the intensity of a very hot glowing orange coal. There was a weird otherworldly quality to the light which I can't quite describe; as if it was a light emitted by none of the means people are familiar with. I also emphatically felt the thing was alive, and was a conscious being, from the way it was moving. It moved almost in response to the way I was shifting around gazing up at it, like the little movements a person makes when you are talking to them... It was certainly not anything like ball lightning; it was moving with intelligent purpose and had, it seemed, found what it was looking for. The glowing sphere seemed very much to be observing me from directly above my back yard and I got a very spine-chilling feeling of being watched as I stood on the back porch looking at it. This went on for some minutes as the entity gently glided and milled about overhead. I got the strongly disturbing feeling that I was what the object had been seeking and here we were, staring at each other. Suddenly, the object, or entity, as it very much seemed to me judging by the way it moved, began to dance in the air in a fitful manner, describing at very high speed all sorts of curves, spirals, jagged lines, and knots in the sky, all in the small immediate region of the clearing over my house. The designs it traced out in the sky seemed to recall those demonic sigils or open geometric signs seen in books like The Lemegeton (A.K.A. the Lesser Key of Solomon), and the like, used by witches like A.E. Waite. It might even have been tracing out letters in Enochian, I don't know.

It was only later that I realized the thing might have been attempting to communicate with me by describing these designs and lines in the sky above me, but at the time I was so shocked and impressed that I could only stand there and stare dumbly up at it. The object continued its intense yet confined manoeuvres for some minutes before ceasing entirely and simply hovering. After a little longer it seemed to become bored with me and rose straight up into the air very quickly. It just rose up and up until it merged with the stars and I could no longer distinguish its light. I waited for a while to see if it would come back, but it did not. I then proceeded to go indoors and go down to the basement where my sister's bedroom was. (She was the only other person home at the time.) I was very excited and I said, "Lynn, Lynn! Guess what I just saw!" whereupon she surprised me very much by turning to me and saying, "You saw a UFO, didn't you?" (But the basement had no windows...) I asked her how in the world she knew that and she told me she'd been listening to the local radio station "96 Rock" but they had stopped playing music in order to air live phone calls from people who had witnessed the "UFO" from all over Atlanta that night.

I simply fell speechless.

At the time, I was already very familiar with lots of reading material on the subject of UFOs (which I had begun studying at a tender age because I found adults didn't know what UFOs were; I was and am a "truth hound" and felt obliged to delve into anything my parents couldn't supply the answers for). I had a difficult time reconciling what I had seen with the usual "nuts and bolts" style large metallic disc image of a UFO one often sees foisted on us BY THE MEDIA. Firstly, it was too small. Secondly but most importantly, the thing moved in such a wasp or hummingbird-like way that I was struck very much by the resemblance of the manner of flight being so similar to that of a living creature. It simply wasn't a spaceship by any means, and I was very confused at the time, being only a teenager. Now I realize it was an entity; a demon. More specifically, it was likely one of the Watchers mentioned in the Book of Enoch. (The very same beings that the media dubbed "foo-fighters" in WWII.)

Long before the UFO phenomenon was ever deployed against the public, back in the 1930's, a man wrote to Edgar Cayce and asked, "What in the world was that flame-colored light I saw moving around in the sky last Friday night?" Cayce's reading replied; "This, you should take a sign that your God is mindful of you."

Had this man seen what I had seen? Was it a Watcher Angel? Just for the record, Cayce's readings always maintained that there is only ONE GOD; the God of the Christians.

Interestingly there are endless reports in the ghost and poltergeist literature of people seeing tiny "honeybee-like" lights seemingly under intelligent control flying through their rooms, materializing and dematerializing, etc. It strikes me that this is what discarnate entities look like from the perspective of our dimension; a ball or a point of light. Edgar Cayce, in another of his famous readings, described the soul as an "electro-spiritual" phenomenon, generally invisible, but potentially emitting light. One can assume that this light varies with the vibration or vibrational intensity in the source-dimension of the entity in question; perhaps an angel or major demon is a very bright light, but a human soul or lesser imp (or what have you) comes across as a barely visible speck of dim light.

Now, with this in mind, it is really interesting to reconsider all those "impossible manoeuvres" and shape-changes that "UFOs" are said to be able to perform. If a dummy like me was able to summon one of these things by puttering around with witchcraft, could some of these "UFOs" actually really be demons/fallen angels? Might they be cooperating with globalist freemasonry to bring about a one world government (possibly ending up under non-human control)?

Mind you, I don't doubt that "flying disc" vehicles exist; I've seen them myself. They look as if they are held in the sky by electrical phenomena such as magnetism and propelled in like manner. I saw one zoom over a baseball field when I was a 17. It was a bright silver disc and went from horizon to horizon in seconds. Curiously, there were some sort of sparks trailing from the back of the craft. Yet these vehicles appear to move much more like machines in contrast to the other object I saw flying like a hummingbird that night. (Incidentally this is just how Edgar Cayce described the electromagnetic operation of Atlantean vimanas; he said they were disc-shaped, lightweight having been built using the forgotten art of a special metal alloy, utilized gasses for lifting, and were built to propagate a positive charge to their front and a negative charge to the rear, thus shooting them along by use of the magnetic field generated. Did our government recover one of these old vimanas from someplace and backengineer it, and then make up all the alien nonsense as a media cover story? With such a tale in place in the public mind, they would have it made; that way they could utilize the exceptionally speedy discs as espionage machines with total impunity; witnesses in every country on the earth would shout, "Look! An Alien Spaceship!"; and note that more importantly, they would NOT shout, "Look! a [Masonic] CIA espionage vehicle! We've got an international incident here!" ...It's well worth considering.)

Yet even over "Area 51", in its golden era of activity in the early 1980's, existing videos show the agile, seemingly living "bee" or "hummingbird" type spheres of the sort I saw over my house that night. Could it be that the so-called "Groom Lake black project aircraft Skunk Works" and Bob Lazar's tales of crashed space-alien UFOs are simply a cover story for Luciferian rituals conducted there by globalist Freemasons? ...to cover up the very real fallen angels who are summoned there? Is this why the CONTROLLED MEDIA keeps telling us all about the "aliens" at Area 51? Millions of American children go missing every year; millions. Are many of them ending up at remote off-limits Masonically-controlled places like Area 51 to be offered up as sacrifices?

As Cotton Mather himself put it,

"The Devil's stock-in-trade is to deceive. This he does by concealing key lies inside a large body of truths; so that by the accepting of the truths the victim is deceived by the lies."

...That's EXACTLY the limited hangout technique always employed by Freemasons and our controlled media. They are using Lucifer's own patented technique. What other tricks has he provided his followers with...?

What about UFO researchers such as Dr. Carla Turner, who, upon straying from the media approved path of E.T. Hypothesis research, suddenly came down with "an especially virulent form of cancer" and went from 100% healthy to dead in two weeks? Did this even really happen, or is it just a story deployed for "chilling effects"?

And what about the ham-fisted attempt at disinformation that the [Masonic] CIA's supposed "mindwar expert" Michael Aquino (yes, "cabbage-patch Dracula" himself, the founder of the Temple of Set) created to fool concerned Christians into thinking that organized Satanism had access to a CIA satellite that could not only beam harassing voices into the target's skull, it could cook them with microwaves as well? The article was circulated on the internet in the form of a supposed court deposition in which (ostensibly) a Christian fundamentalist became aware that she was on the same message board with Satanists who were chatting about plans to abduct and abuse children. She (supposedly) campaigned against their activities and involved the police, the courts, and was suddenly crippled by an onslaught of disembodied tormenting voices and an incapacitating malady that left her body a twisted wreck. The court deposition described her as having lodged a legal complaint against the U.S. Military about being continually attacked by a secret weapons satellite over the issue of Satanic child abuse activities.

But here's the point; might this tale have been cooked up by "mindwar expert" Aquino to hide the truth about people who were actually being set upon by very real satanic magic? To deceive the very victims themselves and anyone associated with them? This to turn suspicion away from occult organizations and back toward an impenetrable government agency like the CIA while simultaneously discouraging belief in the supernatural?

Think about how the minds of these people operate;

1. Cover up the Masonic/Luciferian sacrifice/abuse operation of Freemasonry.
2. Suppress belief in superstition – and the evidence of genuine witchcraft. [The reported mocking voices and inexplicable bodily blight]
3. Make people afraid to get in the way of Satanists at the same time...

Now consider this; one of the magical techniques of Aleister Crowley was so-called "art magic"; the trick of hoodwinking your target by employing sheer devious manipulatory writings to trick them into doing whatever you want. Was the Christian woman in the above court deposition even real? There is an interview with "her" on youtube ...which proves nothing. (for surely anyone can conjure such a thing up in minutes these days.)

I propose that the intended purpose of the above-described "mindwar" document was, "spook Christians into believing that they will be destroyed if they interfere with our child kidnapping, ...but when you spook them, say its technological; don't let them suspect that witchcraft is really the weapon we will use; that would undermine our effort to conceal our covens from the public and undermine our public disinformation effort to discourage belief in superstition..."

Thus, it is my belief, that the backengineering of this "mindwar" tale is actually quite revealing; it proves that there really IS genuine phenomena going on here and that we are, as I am trying to show in this document, not too far off the mark at all to suspect that a Masonic tradition of satanic witchcraft is what the world is presently "ensorcelled" by.

Edgar Cayce READING 2067-12 confirms that there were indeed real supernatural manifestations of witchcraft going on at Salem.

Cayce also, in several readings, confirms that demonic possession is indeed a reality. (Interestingly, one Reading indicated that a boy who had been made autistic by being mis-delivered by doctors as he was born, suffering a lesion at the base of his brain, was in danger of being possessed during the period where the recommended cure was to be administered, since his soul was not fully associated with his body, and the body was thus open to attack “from possession” by “external entities”... the brain in reality operates not as the source of the personality and memories as the media would have us believe; the brain is more like a “radio receiving set” for picking up the “transmission” of the soul (the true place where our personality and memories arise), and manifesting it on the earth plane.)

So this is how they work; if you're a Christian, they brand you a religious nut and invalidate you. If you're interested in Satanism or witchcraft there are innumerable resources available for you to get involved and all kinds of public services available to get involved with to amplify and champion your religion. If you're anybody else, well, you've probably already swallowed so much of their disinformation and are so used to their efforts of confusing subversion you don't even notice the flavour anymore...

Woe to the worshippers of false gods and to the atheists... will they ever be able to wake up in the present disinformation state?

Here is the present state of the continuum of lies which most people unfortunately believe:

- Scepticism/Rationalism
- Weaponized Egalitarianism; extreme socialist practices that place equality well above all morality leading to dangerously destabilizing moral relativism
- Relativism of Truth; the fallacy that there are only subjective impressions; that there is no real overarching single truth about anything
- Evolution (“DOES NOT APPLY TO MAN!” – Edgar Cayce)
- The Cosmological Principle; the fallacious view that the earth is not a dimension or plane, but a round planet hanging in space, only one in an infinitude of such planets. This view attempts to DEMORALIZE the world into atheism and erode understanding in the purpose of God’s plan for mankind, by saying that humanity is more akin to some bacteria growing in the back of your fridge.
- Misrepresentation of the shape and nature of our 10-dimensional earth.
- Belief in the other myriad fakeries of [Masonic] NASA such as the Apollo moon landings and that it is possible to leave the earth
- The ET/Alien visitation hoax – simultaneously reinforces the Apollo and Cosmological Principle deceptions and provides cover stories for angelic activity and secret aircraft, the technology for which originated in antediluvian times (vimanas)
- That the ancient history of the earth is VASTLY different from what we are told; the truth is that spiritual events are what led us to the present state of affairs.
 - Some examples;
 - The elongated skulls of Peru were of a demon hybrid race called the Eljo described in the Book of Jubilees and other ancient texts. They lived in various parts of the earth.
 - The Nephilim of Genesis 6, the giants, were indeed real.

- The Watchers, fallen angels, are operating a secret society called Freemasonry, which is gradually labouring, through a slow-change agenda, to allow these Watchers to once more dominate the earth, as they did in antediluvian times, with all humanity as their slaves.
- The Garden of Eden was located where the Sahara Desert is now.
- The ancient Hebrews, the “lost tribes”, really did travel the world by sea, founding numerous civilizations, as did the Hopi, in much the same manner.
- The Aztecs, Maya, Hopi, and Iroquois peoples, among others, originated on the Atlantean continent and migrated to other lands as a result of disasters and religious persecutions. Atlantis was populated with giants, pygmies, Eljo/Elioud, and other races along with early Adamic-race humans.
- The five races of Adam appeared in five different places on earth, all at the same time, approximately 2.5 to 2 million years ago.
- In 10,600 B.C., the third of the Atlantean eruptions and upheavals destroyed the last traces of a large chain of islands that existed for more than 60,000 years; previous to this period, Atlantis was a full continent. A Pole Shift occurred in 10,600 B.C. triggering the Ice Age and changing the land masses.
- The Biblical deluge occurred in 22,006 B.C., and coincided with the second of the eruptions that came to Atlantis. (24,030 years ago, as of 2024.)
- The events of the Ramayana actually occurred c. 23,175 BC. This was a continuation of events spilling over from the Mahabharata/Titanomachy, which was all the result of the Watchers interbreeding with human women, as recorded in Genesis 6, the Book of Enoch, and myriad other ancient writings.
- Krishna was a fallen angel, one of the Watchers.
- The religion of the ONE GOD, also called Yahweh or YHWH, dates back to the Garden of Eden, just as stated in the Bible. In Atlantis, He was worshipped by a group called the Children of the Law of One, which taught that a part of God is present in all people, and that selfless kindness to others is the way to worship him. Atlantean-style worship of the ONE GOD is delineated in our most ancient writings on earth, the Upanishads, the Yoga Aphorisms of Patanjali, the Bhagavad Gita (among many others). ONE GOD worship was the main religion of Atlantis until the first period of upheavals, when worship of a deity named Baalilal [Cayce spelled this carefully; compare to “Baal” or “Belial”] gained popularity, effectively establishing a sex-cult which worshipped copulation and the glorification of the self at the expense of others. This rapidly escalated in to the sabotage of others (just like they do today). The Hopi were a group dedicated to the ONE GOD and were persecuted until their deity, GOD, led them to other lands with a special luminous cloud (just like the Israelites) which only their devotees could see. At that time, Atlantis had a high state of technology. The Book of the Hopi describes lightning-fast aerial disc vehicles that were used by the old races to make war upon each other in the last days of Atlantis. Society had become so immersed in constant continual evil that God’s indignation could bear no more and the "old world" was destroyed; the seas and lands of the earth were shifted about, and Atlantis was no more at all.

Much substantiating information regarding the above outline was provided by the Edgar Cayce readings and includes references to South American temples and such (including the mention of specific temples only recently discovered in the ocean waters around Cuba c.1997) which were not even known to exist at the time of the readings. Careful research reveals much more proof available to substantiate these things, albeit hidden here and there in myriad old books and in findings presented in mainly the aged issues of conservative scientific periodicals (published before Masonic oversight was widespread, which regularly censors the content of such periodicals these days). Especially rewarding is a careful comparison of world ancient religions and folk-lore. But a word of warning – DO NOT USE THE INTERNET FOR RESEARCH unless it is to track down copies of old library books. Freemasons are actively trying to stamp out world awareness of ancient events in order to concentrate all truth for themselves and thus disadvantage any rival. It is their standard policy. Their members are tasked with the dissemination of disinformation and the lies and confusion that are all over the internet about world history are a symptom of that. Be not deceived! Do your research using old books wherever possible! The older the better, for contrary to the false beliefs foisted on us by the Masonic media, folks in the old days had everything pretty much figured out!

It is we, today, who are the degenerated remains of a once-great race.

So all that deception is, yes, all put about by Freemasons and their buddies the Marxists, FSB [formerly KGB], CIA, Mossad, MI5, MI6, and other subversive Internationalist Masonic-related groups...

All those lies deployed to sabotage their fellow man in the most heinously damaging way imaginable; tricks tailored to harm the very soul...

All perpetrated by a group that ostensibly claims to be working for their fellow man as a mere benevolent, charitable society...

They indeed worship the arch-deceiver.

This is why Freemasons say that fundamentalist Christians and Satanists know more about what is REALLY going on in the world than any other peoples on earth.

All through the judicial witchcraft testimony of the 1500's-1700's, from America, Britain, Scotland, Ireland, and Europe, we have, in different languages, very consistent witnesses' accounts of a man with jet black skin, but features like unto an American Indian, appearing to prospective witches and asking them to sign their names in a book in exchange for abilities to strike back at those they hate and to swear that their works be only evil from then on instead of good... Then, just as the means of detecting witches are cemented into effective methodologies and the witch trials reach their height, all of this suddenly ends right around 1700, when the Bavarian Illuminati was founded.

The freemasons PUBLICLY expound a "new era" of "enlightened rationalism"; that is, no longer believing that witches are real. All the "learned" men (read freemasons) are suddenly taking the baton from Thomas Payne and condemning even the very idea of the existence of genuine witches. Witch trials are then claimed to be the very height of backwardness and superstition (even though the anomalous phenomena recorded are still observed today, albeit couched in modern terms and given an "enlightened" materialist psychological or "parapsychological" attribution). Yet all the while witchcraft has merely been moved into the stronghold that is the Masonic Lodge; the fraternal order of "benevolent" (or rather, MALEVOLENT) masonry. They say that witch trials were of the dark ages, and that we are now living in the time of illumination, but all their light is darkness, according to their own books, and vice versa. A 33rd degree freemason stated that many of the initiations for the various degrees he went through contained the phrase, "I encourage you to reflect on the idea that a Master Mason's light is darkness made manifest". He did not understand until he reached the 33rd degree and was initiated into a secret cabal of Luciferianism and witchcraft...

During the then-openly Masonic French Revolution, many Catholic Priests were put to death by Freemasons. Inside a famous old cathedral, a statue of a woman holding a torch was placed on the altar after the image of Christ on the cross was torn down. A Masonic ceremony was then held in the church in which the figure of the torch-bearing woman was hailed as marking the advent of a new age of "enlightened reason".

"A Master Mason's light is darkness made manifest..."

Now consider that the statue of liberty was a gift from the Freemasons of France to those in America... Is there any doubt that there is a Masonic globalist agenda to destroy religion?

Even in the Upanishads, Hindu texts over 8,000 years old, it is warned,

"There will come a day when egocentric atheists will have talked even the holiest men out of their beliefs and a lost and blind people will wonder what the crumbling temples were for. It is then that a great spiritual return will unfold."

The above prophesy also recalls the highly significant "apocalypse of weeks"; a prophesy passed down to us from antediluvian days and presented in the ancient Book of Enoch. The book anticipated the coming of the messiah of the Jews and was written long before the arrival of Christ. It also contained a fascinating prophesy of what was to come after the days of the messiah, even unto our times:

[Note that a "week" in this context means not seven days, but rather a specific period delineated spanning a number of years.]

"...And in the third week at its close, a man [the Messiah] will be elected as the plant of righteous judgement. And His posterity shall become the plant of righteousness for evermore. [This is Christ; the "plant" referring to the "harvest" of the best souls from the earth plane by God at the end of days.]

And after that in the fourth week, at its close, visions of the holy and righteous shall be seen, and a law for all generations and an enclosure shall be made for them. [This is the compilation of the Bible from the testimony of the Apostles and the birth of Christianity.]

And in the fifth week at its close, the house of glory and dominion shall be built forever.

[This is the founding of the Catholic Church.]

And after that in the sixth week all who live in it shall be blinded, and the hearts of all of them shall Godlessly forsake wisdom.

[This is the Masonic corruption introduced into Catholicism during the Second Vatican Council in 1965; extreme liberalism which became worse and worse, corrupting the church. This, combined with all the corrosive anti-religious Masonic agendaist subversion propaganda which is saturating our modern media, corrupting men, women, and children.]

And in it a Man shall ascend;

[I know it is vague, but this “Man” is none other than the “Man” mentioned in the Book of Revelation, as in “the number of a man, and his number is 666...” This symbolic “Man” was identified by Edgar Cayce as the Freemasons and other secret society members who cooperate to undermine and destroy Christianity. (More about this in the present author’s book, “The Mystery of God: a commentary on the Edgar Cayce Interpretation of the Revelation”.)] and at its close, the house of dominion shall be burnt with fire, and the whole race of the chosen root shall be dispersed.

[This is the fall of the Catholic Church and the destruction of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre; part of the “Vision” of the Freemasons, and the few remaining Christians are to live piecemeal among the other peoples of the world.]

And after that in the seventh week shall an apostate generation arise, and many shall be its deeds, and all its deeds shall be apostate.

[It seems to me we are living in this time now...]

And at its close, shall be elected the elect righteous of the eternal plant of righteousness, to receive Sevenfold Instruction concerning all His creation.

[The Sevenfold Instruction refers to the information Edgar Cayce provided to us regarding how the Revelation of John relates to the seven chakras of the body- nothing less than the fruition of our spiritual Christian destiny- ...In this is the answer to our every question regarding the origins and purpose of human life. I urge you to seek out the book The Mystery of God: a Commentary on the Edgar Cayce Interpretation of the Revelation by James D. Barnes if you have not already done so.

Cayce's information is absolutely a priceless golden key.]

And after that there shall be another; the eighth week, that of righteousness, and a sword shall be given to it that a righteous judgement shall be executed on the oppressors.

[The Book of Enoch also mentions how a massive war will erupt in Israel and the holy city will be the scene of incredible bloodshed; the sinners will begin a war in which they will all destroy each other. Are we seeing rival factions of ultra-socialist communistic Freemasons locked in a war to discover which of them will rule over a totally subjected, totally blinded, totally subverted earth filled with apostates? It is said by some that all the stages of subversion have been complete over the entire world long ago, and that now the Freemasons are squabbling to see which faction will arise as the final global super-dictator. Were the so-called "Free-world's" Freemasons so keen on invading Russia to decapitate and absorb their regime that Putin launched a pre-emptive attack on the Ukraine? Is this a repeat of sorts of when Germany was suddenly declared the enemy of global Freemasonry in WWII only with Russia now branded the terrible enemy of "freedom" ...? Certainly, the press opposed to Russia is beginning to look as slanted as the lies deployed against Germany. -Not that Russia is not part of the problem, mind you! Remember that violence is never justified and that those who plan violence and those that commit blasphemy WILL BE REMOVED FROM THE EARTH when the LORD's Day is upon us.]

Now again recall Daniel 11:14...

"The robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; BUT THEY SHALL FALL."

Malign Perversion of Scripture

The Book of Enoch warns that in the Last Days, many scriptures will be deliberately mistranslated so as to cause the righteous who will be living in those days to err concerning them.

A perfect example of this is the so-called "Grand Bible" which recently saw publication in England, tellingly dedicated to Queen Elizabeth, a total masonic puppet-ruler and member of the Eastern Star who did her utmost to dismember and sell out her kingdom and its people to the subversive internationalist Freemasons. Among other examples of scriptural sabotage, this edition of the scriptures it contains deliberately misrepresents and exaggerates the units of measure stated to define the heights of the Nephilim giants into a totally unbelievable 3000 cubits so that modern people will laugh instead of considering the account seriously. The amount of deliberate disinformation out there relating to the Nephilim is astounding. Even mainstream (Masonic) Biblical commentators like W.O.E. Osterley and Michael Heiser degenerate into uncharacteristic angry ranting on the subject of the Nephilim giants, bending over backwards and conspicuously deploying every conceivable logical convolution to try and dissuade their readers from believing what is plainly stated in our scriptures; that there WERE giants in those days. One of the biggest secrets the subverters wish to conceal is that the Titanomachy/Gigantomachy, The Book of Enoch, and the Mahabharata (and to some extent the Ramayana), are all different accounts of the same event of worldwide significance; the destruction brought upon the offspring of the Fallen Watcher Angels – those Sons of God mentioned in Genesis 6, and that there is or was a lot of physical evidence left to prove it. Have a look at Sigiriya fortress in Sri Lanka and all the inexplicable anomalies it incorporates. The demon statue that once stood in front of it was destroyed and carried off in the deluge; only its clawed, three-toed feet remain. This, to say nothing of the thousands of newspaper and magazine articles which have appeared over the years documenting the discovery of giant skeletons. The war the Smithsonian wages to obliterate this aspect of history are astonishing and galling to learn about. Recently in Japan (where I live), a grave was discovered containing an enormous coffin and placed atop the coffin was found a 12-foot long sword. The Japanese media published photos of the sword but conspicuously avoided mentioning what was found inside the 15-foot coffin! When the Smithsonian carried this story in America, they totally omitted even any mention of the coffin, and relegated the sword to a mere “symbolic ceremonial object”; an explanation calculated to get the readers to bawdily speculate what was being symbolized, which to judge from the comments they were happy to be misdirected by with great mirth. We must study so we can discern what the truth is even when they withhold the facts from us. When I mentioned in a comment on the Japanese archaeological site that originally ran the coffin story that the American Smithsonian arbitrarily suppresses any mention of giant skeletons, they reacted by taking the story down off their website.

The continuing agenda against Germany:

Virtually every offence under the sun is ascribed to “what those evil Nazis did back in WWII”. Virtually none of it is true. Like Syria, Iran, and North Korea, Nazi Germany had its own independent banking system which they fought to keep out of the hands of the Rothschilds’ global banking empire. Unlike in our oppressive Credit Card world, usury was illegal there. They made films about the Rothschilds’ banking schemes in order to alert the public to the truth of what was really afoot on the world stage. They also made a number of films cautioning against Freemasonry’s globalist plotting in cahoots with this across international borders! (these films still exist, one of which is called “OCCULT FORCES”. Another is “House of Rothschild”.). As in Syria before America attacked them, it was common knowledge that Freemasons were attempting to conquer the world through finances and “hidden-hand” influence and much discussion was made as to what to do about keeping the country out of their hands. When Hitler came to power he forcibly – and rightly – declared closed all Masonic lodges as many Germans knew they were orchestrating the Marxist element in German society to provoke war and unrest.

The violent Berlin street fighting of the 1919 German revolution and the short-lived Marxist attempt at a Bavarian Communist State brought such worries to a vivid zenith for the German people. For them it was dead obvious they were under attack by Marxism and Freemasonry!

Few people know the facts about what ended the “Great War”; or WWI. Marxist literature had been allowed to circulate freely in the Kaiser’s navy, saying that Germany was about to sacrifice their entire navy in a pointless attack on Britain (which at the time had a massively strong navy) as a last-ditch display of defiance that “would result in the death of every German sailor”. The solution, according to the literature being circulated, was a Marxist revolution inside Germany conducted by Germans to oust the Kaiser from power. Accordingly, much of the German navy turned Marxist, deserted, and attacked their own government. The result was the abdication of the Kaiser - the achievement of Freemasonry’s entire goal regarding Germany. Was this the reason that tangled web of treaties was arranged? So that Archduke Ferdinand’s assassination could flick the first domino towards the removal of the obstacle to internationalism that was the German monarchy?

Of major emphasis here should be the point that the Freemasons’ agenda has ALWAYS been a one-world government and the destruction of every country’s traditional royal family (or at least their Masonic recruitment and loyal subservience - as with the British royal family). Only in this way could the sovereignty of nation-states be obliterated to make way for a one world government.

With this in mind, Freemasonry, behind the mask of, or in cahoots with Marxism, orchestrated a mass rebellion of virtually the entire German navy. Once this was underway, and the public knew sailors were deserting and/or taking over their ships by mutiny, the troops in the trenches of WWI simply gave up and literally walked home to rejoin their families, as all military discipline effectively evaporated in the confusion of the revolution. Various factions were at work here; bloody street battles broke out everywhere, but the end result was that the Kaiser abdicated in fear for his life and that of his family, and in the power vacuum, a more popular moderate form of Marxism took over called social democracy. Thus ended World War One. There can be no doubt that the point of WWI, from the very beginning, was the eventual Masonic toppling of German royalty.

After WWI, German territory was dismembered arbitrarily with many Previously ethnic-German populated lands being given to Poland, Austria, and Czechoslovakia, among many others. Germany’s many colonies virtually ceased to be German all over the world. In the formerly German lands especially those now controlled by the Czech and Polish governments, tremendous abuses against the former German citizens commenced that upset many; chief among these being that citizens were basically thrown out of their own homes, which were then sold to Czech and Polish families by the government. This made the suffering of Germans marooned in the ceded Danzig Corridor a serious issue amongst the German people during the interwar years.

The footage we have all seen of the German tanks rolling into Poland, Austria, and Czechoslovakia in the late 1930’s is almost always accompanied by voiceovers referring to imperialism on the part of Hitler, but this is simply untrue. Hitler’s system of government was not a dictatorship, it was this; he would go around Germany shaking hands and talking to people, finding out what the German people wanted done, and he would actualize it if it was feasible. He was not the authoritarian dictator of the people, he was the public servant of the will of the people, and his post was always only to actualize their wishes. What their wishes actually were is another thing you have been utterly deceived about by the media. But as far as the “invasions” of Poland, Austria, and Czechoslovakia... look at the footage. The people are waving German flags and celebrating like crazy... Those people were former German citizens being liberated from the oppressions foist upon them by the Versailles Treaty as German territory was being reclaimed. And look how happy they are! Everyone is smiling...!

Then the Freemasons had Britain declare war on Germany. But why? Why should they care?

Let's look at the political system of the NSDAP (the Nazis). What they did was to first realize that the primary threat to Germany WAS MARXISM. This is because Marxism can sweep through the workers in a target nation and transform them, through deliberately orchestrated escalating discontent and through strikes, into a bloodthirsty revolutionary army, which AS GERMANY ALREADY HAD SEEN, had the power to overturn any existing government. EVERY GERMAN KNEW THAT. The beauty of the NSDAP's then-new government system lay in its in-built safeguard which simultaneously rebuilt their shattered post-WWI economy and protected Germany against further attempts at Marxist revolutions at the same time; it was the INVOLVEMENT of the workers in the government decision-making process from the get-go. This way, the workers could never possibly be dissatisfied enough to rebel since every government policy was their decision Including how much they got paid, when their holidays were, and for how long.

"NSDAP" stands for National Socialist German Workers Party. Of supreme importance here is to contrast the NATIONAL socialism of Germany with the INTERNATIONALIST socialism of Marxist Freemasonry. Freemasonry's MAIN WEAPON for the destruction of target countries from within was and is the Marxist Revolution; the calculated agitation of the workforce to paralyze the target economy, cripple it, and supply the manpower for a revolutionary army at the same time to topple the target society from within. The destruction of the independence of every sovereign nation-state and its conversion to internationalism has always been a central goal of Freemasonry, to make way for a one world government. And here was Germany, with NATIONAL socialism poised to become the perfect antidote to Masonic INTERNATIONALIST GLOBALIST Marxist-socialism. Now, just imagine if other countries got ahold of the NATIONAL socialism idea; National socialism would take off like wildfire, safeguarding existing governments from revolutions, at the expense of the continued progression of international socialism; the proto-globalist project the Masons and Marxists had always been labouring towards. Numerous countries indeed began emulating Germany's promising new brand of national socialism because it promised freedom from the threat of subversive revolutionaries that ALL owed their loyalty only to a single INTERNATIONAL committee of Masonic Communist orchestrators. That this is true can be confirmed by the way the "Allies" in WWII systematically crushed every Nationalist country that emulated Germany's example. Freemasonry believes that no country has the right to govern themselves.

Has anything changed? Look how aggressively America, Britain, and the UN continue to behave in their war against the sovereignty of all foreign countries. They still act as if no country should be allowed to govern itself. Well, that's globalist policy; they are Masonic stooges! Look at the countries the media wants you to hate; they're just struggling to avoid being swept up in internationalism.

NATIONAL SOCIALISM (NAZI GERMANY) WAS THE LAST GREAT POTENTIAL STUMBLING BLOCK THAT GLOBALIST FREEMASONRY EVER FACED.

Do you see now why the media wants SO BADLY for you to hate Nazis STILL? This long after the war?

The Jews themselves were tricked, by the manipulative Masonic media, into thinking they were being persecuted and exterminated. (The Masons got this idea from observing the massive public outpouring of sympathy during the Armenian Genocide.)

The Jews were quite the victims in this subversion just as the public in America, the UK, and Russia were! Not as bad as the continually firebombed and starved Germans were, of course, but we were all of us tricked into thinking the Nazis were evil and had to be destroyed when in fact it was the Freemasons which were utterly evil, for they deceived the world and will EVER have the BLOOD OF THE VICTIMS OF BOTH WORLD WARS ALL OVER THEIR FILTHY HANDS.

But fear not! THEY SHALL FALL!

There is much more to the story, but little said about the Nazis is really true. The truth is that every German citizen was aware of Freemasonry's aims. THIS is what prompted Churchill to utter those mysterious words about sparing not a single German life; that the Allies' goal in attacking Germany "should be to wipe the German people out of existence forever". Why? If the war was ostensibly about the Holocaust, as we were led to believe, why should we fight genocide with genocide? Where is the logic, even against the backdrop of the war, for such an insanely abominable policy of inhuman bloodlust? Why punish the population of Germany for something that was supposedly the top-down policy of the "despotic" German high command? The answer is that war against Germany had nothing at all to do with the "Holocaust"; It was because every German citizen knew full well the globalist agenda of Freemasonry: to suppress and deceive the people of every nation, to make way for the creation of a MASONIC ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT. How can Freemasonry make any headway in countries where secret societies are banned, as it was banned in Germany, and where every member of the general public has been fully educated as to what horrors Freemasonry's actual aims entail? These were VIVIDLY demonstrated to the Germans in bloody living colour by the street battles of 1919! How could they forget!? The only way Masonry can deal with countries where the population exhibits TOTAL AWARENESS of their secrets is to ANNIHILATE them utterly; to trick the nations under their sway into attacking them with a vengeance; to deceive the people under their sway by any means necessary in order to get support for their war of total obliteration. The story about the Jews was a trick perpetrated by the Freemasons, played against the Jews themselves, to get them to believe they were being oppressed and discriminated against (sound familiar?) and that their people were even being exterminated, to get them, and every possible government on earth, angry enough to cooperate in the utter annihilation of Germany.

(Might this sort of thing have been what 9-11 was really all about...? Did EVERY SYRIAN Citizen know? EVERY IRANIAN Citizen? Does EVERY NORTH KOREAN Citizen, and EVERY CHINESE Citizen in recent days, know full well about the aims of internationalist Masonry THAT EVEN WE DIDN'T KNOW ...UNTIL NOW?)

Much has been (quietly) said lately of the possible non-factuality of the Holocaust. Wartime photos of gas-vans turned out to be merely furniture vans; the Zyklon B turned out to be merely a de-lousing agent; even the famous "lampshades made of human skin" that the wartime media claimed all Nazi officers had in their offices have entirely failed to come to light (and how could their reporters possibly learn about such a thing anyway, at the time? Answer: it was a lie, just like all the other lies, designed to trick Christians into murdering Christians, and to ensure the everlasting obliteration of an effective political system that had in-built safeguards against Marxist and Masonic corrosion.)

This dirty trick played on the world was most likely inspired by the highly visible international outpouring of support in the wake of the Armenian Genocide, which took place primarily between 1915 and 1923, during WWI and in the aftermath of the Ottoman Empire. The timing is exactly right for this to be the case.

Challenges put to Holocaust proponents to produce evidence of any official government extermination order documents, death showers, purported gas vans, as well as the legendary “lampshades made of human skin” etc have proved surprisingly non-productive. Recent evidence had shown succinctly that the “gas chambers” at Auschwitz are documented to have been constructed after the war.

During the war, FALSE English editions of Mein Kampf were distributed to readers in England and America which were not written by Adolf Hitler but are instead a load of insane slurs in order to trick the people of those countries into thinking that Hitler was indeed what the media was saying and is always saying – even today: that Hitler was a madman. How else could they get Christians to stand up and mass-murder Christians on behalf of Freemasonry? If one looks at the 1930’s German-language editions of Mein Kampf available on internet library sites and compares them to wartime English editions, one finds that the translated texts bear no similarity with one another whatsoever. The English editions were manipulative fakes sold in bookstores all over the English-speaking Allied nations in order to convince the people that Hitler should be eliminated and to cooperate in a war effort against Germany.

Mass graves of German citizens have indeed been found, but these were Germans who were not just Jews but of all walks of life who succumbed by the thousands to wasting effects of typhus in 1945 when clean water and food was non-existent due to constant allied bombing (these are the poor, dazed, emaciated human skeletons seen slowly perambulating about or heaped “like cordwood” in propaganda footage of purported ‘liberated death camps’ we were shown, and whereas they undoubtedly included some Jews, the pictured abominable atrocities against humanity depicted were in fact Germans from all walks of life and such horrors were caused by the continual allied bombing). It is a little publicized fact that German citizens were literally shipped all over Europe to be used en masse as slave labour by the conquering Allies and suffered terribly in post-war slave camps. Why? Because they had been raised to be Anti-Marxist, anti-MASONRY.

Is it any wonder that the first thing the Russians did with their part of Berlin was to rename all the streets after Marxist “thinkers”?

From Edgar Cayce Reading 3976-13, November, 1933:

(Q) Will Hitler's policies tend to lead toward war?

(A) Anything else; if the policies are adhered to. THIS is propaganda!

Elsewhere Edgar Cayce was asked in the early 1940’s to look into what Hitler’s attitude towards the Jews was. The reply was surprisingly prosaic in contrast to what we’ve been told: Hitler believed that the Jews had a lot of intellectual potential but had lost touch with their Creator. -That’s it. No hate at all. Strange, huh?

Additionally, Edgar Cayce revealed that WWII was caused by the selfishness of one man who owned stock in war materials and war machine manufacturing industries in England who wanted the profits that would be gained by destroying an opponent of Freemasonry by direct warfare. That man’s name: Winston Churchill.

Lay at Churchill’s feet the blame for all the millions of men, women, and children slain in WWII.

The Masonic media's typical portrayal of people who believe a country has a right to govern itself free from globalist interference.

Recently in our current internet age, much has come to light about Zyklon-B being merely a delousing agent, and entirely safe, in fact intended, for use upon humans. The internet era has brought many rather mundane-looking old pamphlet advertisements for the "reliable and safe delousing agent Zyklon-B" to light in the past few years, calling into serious question the factuality of the Holocaust. It is certainly worth researching, but there are pitfalls everywhere. This is because Freemasonry relies on the demonization of Nazism as an example to hold up as a "worst case scenario" which might "happen all over again", if we DON'T embrace absolute equality as the central sacredness in life (over morality), if we DON'T create a one world government to stamp out nationalism in favour of globalist internationalism, if we DON'T support a UN-controlled international police force to go out and crush the nations whose governments stand in opposition to Freemasonry. (like China, for example- If there is one country the American media seems overanxious for you to hate, it's certainly China... Did I happen to mention Freemasonry is banned in China...? Its banned in North Korea too...)

By the way, if after reading the truth divulged above and you still can't shake off your decades of Masonic brainwashing that paints Germany's National-Socialist Workers Party as a bunch of racist murder-happy serial killers, go ahead and read a book called, "Mein Side of the Story"; it translates all of Hitler's speeches and lays plain what really started WWII. You can see every stage of the events as they unfold, from Germany's perspective at the time, from perhaps the last available source that hasn't [yet] been crushed by the lying, deceiving Masonic subverters of the world.

NASA, space travel, etc:

You don't need to accept that the world is flat in order to understand that no man's soul was ever saved by his knowledge of physics. There has been more than ample evidence, mainly generated by NASA itself, to wrap up conclusively that the moon landings were faked. If they'd lie about something as important to mankind as that then there is no reason anyone should waste their time reading articles full of what are doubtless still more NASA lies.

At least three NASA spokesmen in the past several years have stated on camera that it is not even possible to leave the upper atmosphere of the earth. One spokesman even "admitted" that, "It is not actually possible to enter the Van Allen belt around the earth; the secret of how the moon landings were accomplished was destroyed; the technology has been lost and needs to be rediscovered before any more missions to other planets can be considered."

Bah!

The simple TRUTH is that earth is a plane that human spirits are incarnating upon and we are not meant to leave until we achieve what we were put here to accomplish; not as a race, but as individual souls engaged in the cultivation of selflessness in our spiritual development.

You can't leave the earth PHYSICALLY.

You can only leave it SPIRITUALLY.

When Edgar Cayce was once asked what a certain person's purpose in incarnating on the earth was, his reply was, "Your purpose is the same as the purpose of every other soul exiled to the earth plane; to learn to relinquish egotism!" The implication of this is that we are all condemned to wait here until we learn to let go of self-fixated thinking patterns and start directing our thoughts to being of assistance to others. WE MUST TRAIN OURSELVES TO BE SELFLESS. Cayce said that what God wants is children who are selfless yet retain their individuality.

One must cultivate selfless love in order to graduate to the next plane. Each plane is a unique form of "classroom" that teaches us important moral lessons, and when we "graduate", we go on to THE KINGDOM to be with GOD.

That is God's plan.

Do you see now why the media is currently hard at work doing what they do for the Arch-Deceiver? They are out to keep us chained down here in this prison plane so the lord of this world can gloat and laugh while we glorify our egos by frivolously taking vanity selfies and pride ourselves on how well we play violent dehumanizing video games.

Is the Earth Really Flat?

Edgar Cayce revealed that we are 3-dimensional beings confined to a plane which lies in a 10-dimensional universe. While incarnating on the earth, we simply aren't equipped to perceive all the dimensions. However, there are aspects of the earth which extend into dimensions we cannot precisely grasp with our limited senses. This is the reason that the earth, at various times, appears to present to us conflicting evidences in regard to its shape; proof of being round and proof of being flat simultaneously.

It is best to view it as God's firmament, and an amazing miraculous creation, in any case.

NASA (a propaganda organization operated completely by Freemasons) has been actively trying to trick you into believing that God doesn't exist for decades, but they have recently accidentally proven that He created the cosmos! This is the CMB Anisotropy Dipole Anomaly; irregularities in cosmic microwave background energy that conclusively prove that earth is the center of the universe. You haven't heard about it in the media because they don't want you to know about it! Galileo Was Wrong: The Church Was Right is a splendid book that presents the whole cosmology story unpolluted by Freemason subverters. Additionally, did you know that earth lies at the exact center of seven concentric bands made up of all the galaxies there are? Does this have something to do with the seven energy centers in the human body?

The Terracentric Finite Universe

an emerging new cosmic model of the universe we live in

by JDB

The following is summary of new discoveries in cosmology and their implications.

- "It is not possible for humans to leave the earth". –This has been stated on-camera by at least three separate NASA spokesmen in recent years. "Earth is a closed System," said Bill Nye 'The Science Guy', shaking his head and adding, "It is not possible to leave the earth." Another NASA spokesman stated, "Although it's true that NASA went to the Moon in the 1960's the technology we used to accomplish it has been lost. At the moment, it is not possible for humans to go outside the atmosphere into the Van Allen Belt. Recovering the technology as to how to do this remains one of NASA and humanity's biggest challenges for the 21st Century." Why isn't it possible to venture into the Van Allen Belt? The intense radiation there destroys any life no matter how much shielding is used. Since the Apollo Missions used very little shielding, going to space in capsules literally no thicker than a sturdy tin can, it is probable in light of NASA's recent statements, that after intense experimentation it was not found possible to fulfil John F. Kennedy's pledge to beat the Soviets to the Moon, so America simply faked it's Moon missions; not simply to save face for Kennedy, but as an important demoralization effort to make the Soviets lose interest in gaining space superiority. Remember, at the time there was concern that the Soviets would "weaponize" space, building orbital ICBM platforms that would be able to annihilate America directly and without warning. The ruse may have been seen as perhaps shameful but a necessary black world intelligence operation to limit Soviet aggression. To put this in even greater historical context, recall that this was immediately after the Cuban Missile Crisis, in which ICBMs were placed at America's back door, causing a huge international incident. All this is to say nothing of the Freemasons' subversion campaign intended to promote the cosmological principle for no other purpose than to get people to forsake God. [The cosmological principle theory states the well known Big Bang model; the universe is expanding infinitely and that every place in the universe should look almost exactly like every other place in the universe, being decidedly uniform in nature. Recent discoveries have totally disproved this model, demonstrating conclusively that the universe has a structure unambiguously centred upon the earth. -But Freemason-dominated science still clings to the subversion potential of the cosmological principle model in hopes of simply deceiving people further.]

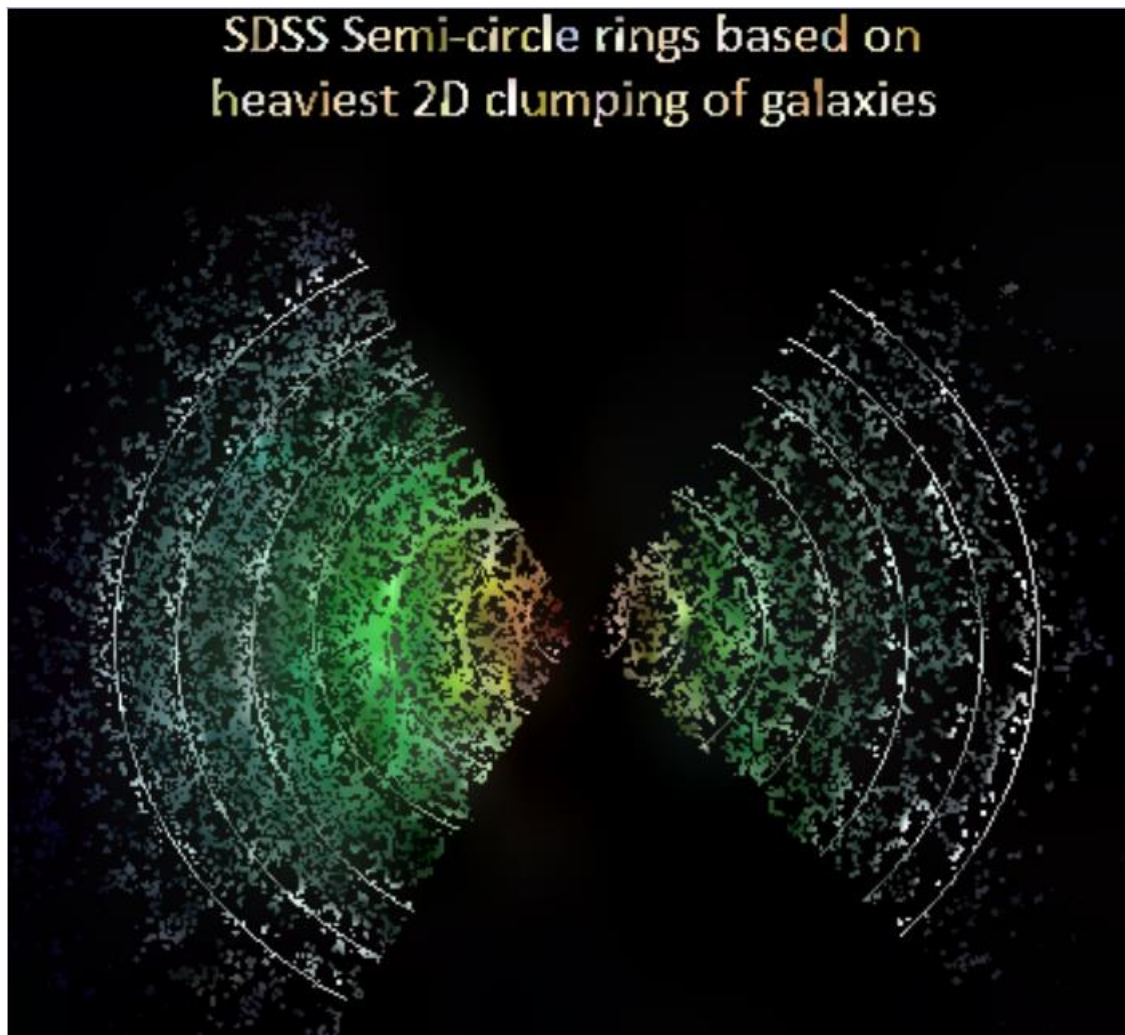

- Contributing to the inability for humans to leave earth, many scientists have expressed doubts that conventional propulsion systems would even function as expected - or at all – outside of an atmosphere and earth's gravity. Satellite level space operations are now stated by NASA to be the limit of feasible space exploration.
- Contrary to much published propaganda, Earth's gravity actually appears to terminate at roughly 20miles, after which there is no evident gravity, very similar to the limited distance of the pull from a magnet.
- The Sun is actually smaller and markedly different than previously believed in recent times. The Sun is like the heart in a human body; it projects electro-spiritual forces into the Solar system in the form of the solar wind. A very strong reciprocal force current of intense electromagnetic vibrational energies is pumped back at the sun from the planets. It is this returning energy from the planets which creates the radiant corona of the Sun. The Sun is not as hot as believed inside this coronal border. The true sphere of the Sun is much smaller than the apparent Sun and lies well within the bright coronal envelope.
- Pluto IS a planet, and very important.
- Astrological influences from the Moon, Sun, and planets have been well proven accurate and genuine. Freemasons have spent millions attempting to convince the public to the contrary using the media, and have largely succeeded. This is another of their attempts to conceal any and all phenomena which cannot be explained mechanistically in order to remove from the public all knowledge of anything spiritual in order to conceal the existence of God.
- Background radiation dipole anomaly: The furthest detectable energy emissions in space, the Background radiation, has been mapped and an anomaly was revealed. The existence of this dramatic anomaly was proven by two independent NASA satellite missions, one right after the other (both purpose-built to study the anomaly) and each using independently designed instrumentation. The anomaly is that this deep cosmic background radiation has been found to be undeniably aligned with the earth's equinoxes. Every possible avenue has been explored to shoot holes in this data, yet every attempt has failed. (for example, the idea that every planet has the same equinoxes has been ruled out; Earth is unique among the known planets to have equinoxes precisely aligned with the cosmic dipole anomaly) Why should the most distant structure in the universe reference precisely the earth's equinoxes? We should consider the possibility that perhaps Earth is somehow more important than we think.

- All evidence of purported "earth-like planets" has been simply fabricated by NASA, which is not really a genuine space agency, but a media propaganda agency dedicated to hiding God.
- The Hubble "Deep Field" photo purporting to show billions and billions of galaxies extending into the farthest reaches of space so as to demonstrate the predictions of the cosmological principle have been conclusively shown to have been composited together using many different pictures; under close scrutiny, the tell-tale marks of the photo-composite technique have been exposed using photo-manipulation software, and also the same distinctive-looking galaxies are seen to have been re-used, repeated over and over again in the photo.
- Recent REAL discoveries show that beyond the solar system, there are seven concentric spheres of galaxies, all with the same redshifts according to which tier of the seven they belong to. (20,000 galaxies have thus far been analysed and all of them conform to one of the 7 possible redshifts.) There is ALSO another concentric tier system for quasars. Beyond these tier systems no further galaxies or quasars can be detected. Keep in mind that as stated above, "Hubble deep field" photos of multitudes of galaxies have been proven in recent years to have been faked by NASA, as careful analysis of the photos reveals the same identical galaxies have been pasted into the image again and again, creating an intentionally composite picture. This was done to reinforce belief in the expanding universe, which new data is demonstrating to be false, being based on an outmoded fallacious understanding of what redshift is and the implications that can be drawn from it regarding the shape and size of the universe. NASA simply faked evidence to support their preferred atheistic model of the universe. Starting with the conclusion and doctoring the facts to suit preference is the exact dictionary definition of pseudoscience; something that NASA accuses truth tellers of practicing, when in fact they are demonstrably guilty of this slur against the scientific method. They practice this fakery because they are Freemasons trying to hide God from the public. NASA is a propaganda agency and has demonstrated itself an enemy of the people.

Above: the seven concentric tiers of galaxies. All galaxies in existence anywhere fit into the above diagram. The seven spheres of galaxies have been demonstrated again and again using numerous types of detectors to be centred upon the earth. Beyond the outermost tier, there are no more galaxies ANYWHERE IN CREATION. The earth is very special and here is the proof!

- Startlingly, no matter which direction we look in the universe, galaxies and quasars all show redshift revealing seven concentric tiers centred on the earth. Why should all galaxies and quasars that exist be centred upon the earth?
- Considering the new understanding of the tier system of ALL galaxies and quasars being centred on the earth, and taking into account the background radiation dipole anomaly, we are left with the inescapable conclusion that the Earth is at or very near the centre of the entire universe. Freemasons have always preferred the cosmological model because that model denies that any point can be considered the centre of the universe. Therefore, we are “nowhere special” and do not appear to be anything above average in the universe, yet now, the contrary has been proven to be the case.
- Nevertheless, the presence of the band of the Milky Way in our night skies indicates that earth itself is situated within a disk of stars which is like a galaxy.
- Given that earth lies within a galaxy, and that all known galaxies exist in relative proximity to the earth, and factoring in the rest of the above data, the implications are that the Universe, though still vast, is FAR from being totally infinite. The visible cosmos is furthermore undeniably centred upon the earth; the newly understood structure might be likened to earth as a bull’s eye at the centre of a dart board of galaxies and quasars.

- The Big Bang model predicts that whatever direction we look in space, everything should be more or less evenly distributed; there should be no discernible structure to space. The concentric tier system of galaxies and quasars and the Dipole anomaly conclusively demolish the Big Bang / Cosmological Principle model three different ways in one fell swoop. The “Big Bang” hypothesis has been sufficiently proven to be categorically wrong by the new data.
- The reason why the earth looks flat and behaves to its inhabitants as if it is both round and flat is because of a multiplicity of dimensions beyond what human senses are able to grasp, as well as gravity distortion, (exactly the same effect as gravitational lensing, only on matter), and the proof is redshift, which has been misinterpreted; it is this: REDSHIFT is the pull of gravity from the earth affecting light that falls into the earth’s gravitational field. Redshift IS NOT the Doppler effect upon the visible spectrum distorting the light emanating from distant stars as the light travels vast distances to reach earth. All redshifts seemed to indicate, to the old fallacious understanding, that all points in the universe must be moving away from every other point. This new model of redshift being the effect of only earth’s local gravity means there is no longer any evidence that the universe is expanding AT ALL. However, redshift might still provide an indication as to different distances proportional to the degree, but as to what these distances might be, science must be honest with itself and humbly concede that there is no known way to ascertain whether redshift indicates these distances in thousands of light-years or even hundreds of miles. There is no reliable data on scaling distance. Previously all such data, as represented in books all over the world, has simply been done based upon assumptions, presumptions, and inferences, all generally reliant upon one another in a house-of-cards style fallacious model which is now ready to collapse. This model was and is only propaganda tailored by the Freemasons and intended from the outset to CONCEAL all evidence of GOD, our CREATOR. That they have this vested interest in clinging to the outmoded cosmological principle is readily evidenced by their current attempts to make this problem go away; they have simply resorted to cluttering up their arguments with so much intentionally baffling jargon that the public hasn’t a hope of understanding them. They then simply point to this garble of impenetrable jargon and make statements to the effect that it proves the cosmological principle is correct anyway. This is not only a lie, it is a totally ham-fisted child-like stratagem! It deceives no one.
- Then, how about the Fermi Paradox? Is there life on other planets? In other galaxies? Edgar Cayce indicated that human souls exist on other planets in the Solar System but not on their respective physical planes. Given that NASA itself has declared that Earth is a closed system and it is physically impossible for humans to leave the earth, presumably the same is true of other planets outside the Solar system, if they even exist. Therefore, if alien physical life does exist, travel between worlds is simply an impossibility and thus it almost doesn’t matter whether or not aliens exist because we will never have an opportunity to encounter them. THIS is the solution to the Fermi Paradox.

Note: The “UFO enigma”, when carefully analysed from a NONBIASED viewpoint, betrays demonstrable masonic-globalist intelligence community ORIGINS for the entire phenomenon, motivated by a desire to furnish illusory reasons to create a one-world government. At best, the UFO “phenomenon” can hardly be used to prove alien life and therefore pointing to it to attempt to refute the Fermi Paradox is no defence against this information. We will simply need to alter our worldviews to suit the new data that the cosmological principle is disproven and that Earth is the centre of the universe.

The new data supports the following conclusions:

- Earth is at or near the centre of the universe.
- Humans will most likely never leave the earth; our future does not lie in space.
- It is impossible for aliens to visit us, if they even exist.
- NASA's own data disproves the only scientifically accepted model of the origin of the universe.
- The universe is not infinite and expanding; it is finite and static.
- Earth is unique; somehow more important than previously believed.

These new questions are raised:

- Are galaxies truly as previously thought or are they actually very different? Are they vastly smaller than imagined?
- Given the tier-structure of galaxies and quasars, is there some relationship between these two types of cosmic bodies?
 - Galaxies being 7-tiered implies some relationship to the chakras, perhaps their power source. Could quasars be the power source of another system in the human body? Or that of animal bodies of the earth?

Science fiction

HG Wells was very good friends with some of the very Freemasons who were the architects of globalism and utopianism. It has been shown that the documentation the Freemasons shared with him was where material for virtually all of his stories came from. A few decades later, virtually all of the 'first wave' of the 'golden age' of Sci-Fi writers were Jewish Marxists, many of them born in Russia. I was only able to find one who wasn't Jewish, but he was a communist party member. (And I'd like to remind you that it's certainly possible for Jews to become Masons – shifting the blame entirely to Jews is an old Masonic trick as evidenced by the Protocols of Zion) If one sits down and actually reads these SF books, one quickly realizes they are just thinly veiled Marxist/Masonic propaganda parables with liberal doses of feminism and sex thrown in. The main purpose is the usual masonic message of equating religion with superstition in order to undermine people's faith, and to exhaustively re-frame anything and everything spiritual as originating within the mind or from fictitious aliens. These seminal Sci-Fi subversion tropes were the plotline prototypes for it all, from Star Trek to Doctor Who.

Some people like to pretend that there isn't a liberal utopian Masonic globalist agenda in shows like Star Trek. Others pretend that Doctor Who wasn't primarily about feminism and spreading the philosophy of "rational illuminism" (basically, materialist atheism) as dictated to the BBC by the Freemasons of the Tavistock Institute. Frankly, those people are in denial after having been deceived by these shows from a tender young age.

Known Freemason and SF author Arthur C. Clark (who shockingly, chose FOR SOME REASON to live virtually at the foot of Sigiriya fortress!) at one time had a TV show called "Arthur C. Clark's Mysterious World" on the BBC that was FILLED with textbook disinformation techniques intended to confuse and misdirect people about everything from the supernatural, cosmology, the truth about the ancient world, and of course, UFOs. Oh, and just in case you liked the selfless message of Edgar Cayce, there's an episode which paints psychics as egocentric deceivers, as if it is not the Freemasons, but rather selfless people blessed with God's gift of truth and healing, who are the ones deceiving people. This Masonic war against psychics began back in the 1930's when the Freemasons actually succeeded in having Edgar Cayce, along with his family, jailed on trumped-up false charges. When they could not hold Cayce legally, the Freemason Manly P. Hall, who viewed Cayce as a personal rival, and had written and starred in numerous films for [Masonic] Universal Studios, hit upon the idea of using films to discredit psychics in the public eye so that people just wouldn't listen to Edgar Cayce. The Film Frozen Ghost is but one example of this propaganda trope that leaps to mind. There about a dozen Charlie Chan films written primarily to discredit public faith in psychics and psychic powers. These films, and this continuing agenda, seek to get people to forget the truth that psychic powers are a gift from God; a spiritual reward for selfless people who wish only to be of service to others, and to get people to adopt the prejudicial view that anyone claiming to be psychic is always and necessarily a fraud. It's also worth noting here how many American and British films beginning already in the late 1930's were already priming the public of those countries to be prejudiced against German people. Edgar Cayce revealed that Winston Churchill was involved in profiteering from arms manufacturing and very much wanted a Masonic war orchestrated against Germany. First, to line his own pockets with the vast wealth reaped from the weapons his companies built, and only secondarily for purposes of Masonic agendaism. It is a hideous malign atrocity that because of the Masonic media, many people alive even today mistakenly believe the warmongering murderer Churchill to have been some kind of hero. This man already had tanks named after himself before the war even began. All the facts are readily available if you take the time to look them up. Again, Edgar Cayce was able to reveal a truth the rest of us were blind to.

UFO Space Aliens

If a video or book is trying to get you to believe in aliens, it is a Masonic lie.

Bill Nye (yes, the "science guy" mouthpiece of NASA, etc.) said on camera while shaking his head to the negative that, "The earth is a CLOSED SYSTEM, it is NOT POSSIBLE to leave the earth." (emphasis his.) This agrees with the other NASA people mentioned above who have admitted that it isn't possible to leave the earth, but it also underscores a couple of very good questions about UFOs and aliens: First, if it isn't possible to leave earth, why is it possible to leave Venus, Mars, Zeta Reticuli, Ashtar Command, or wherever the little grey BEMs are supposedly from this year? Surely, they too would be trapped on their own world if we are trapped on ours? Even if they somehow made it here, how could they ever leave? (And this leaving aside the question why anyone would travel the claimed ludicrously vast interstellar distances in something smaller than a Winnebago.) Furthermore, it is dead easy to suss out that tales of "Annunaki" ancient aliens have simply been cooked up (by Zachariah Stitchin and others) in order to reduce the Watchers from the Bible from a shocking spiritual reality to a mere physical visitation of material beings, thus achieving what the media does best; hiding God from Godless people.

If you like comic books, open the Official Handbook of the Marvel Universe and look up THE WATCHERS. Here you will find what are unequivocally meant to be God's Watcher angels misrepresented to young, impressionable readers as – you guessed it – aliens (From "Watcher World", no less!). Now, why would comic book creators be mentally dwelling on the subject of the Watchers? Hmm? Maybe it's because they're Freemasons and they know darn well what the true history of the earth is and they're trying to mislead everyone else's' perceptions...? They are trying to cover up that their bosses take their orders from fallen angels! This is the same reason why the film, The Crawling Eye (AKA the Trollenberg Terror), makes the surreal assertion that, "aliens always seem to be drawn to mountain tops"; this was said only because the Masons know that the Watchers descended upon Mount Hermon in the time of Jared. This is a clue into their thinking processes; "let's take everything spiritual and twist it into Aliens, to hide any and every evidence of God's existence from the public; for if the public believe in God, they will be safeguarded from subversion."

(This reminds me of how odd it is that so many Japanese anime lately are obviously inspired by events, characters, and concepts from the Book of Enoch. I've been here 14 years and I've only met a single Japanese who has even read the Bible! Where are all these manga and Anime creators learning about the Book of Enoch...? Well I bet you there's a copy in Japanese at the Masonic Temple of Tokyo!)

All this being said, so called UFO's are indeed real. I have personally seen them on two occasions as I stated above; they simply aren't being driven around by space people. That story is there to misdirect you from their true origins.

Superstition

The perpetual cry of the Masonic media: Eradication of superstition! (except belief in aliens, of course...!) -So that we will equate religion with superstition. Think back now; in how many movies and TV episodes have we heard a character intone the phrase, "But that's just a silly superstition!" It all comes from this agenda to equate religion with superstition. An excellent example is the priest in the film "The Wolf Man" (1941), who while portraying an insultingly stereotyped Christian says, "Trying to wipe out superstition is like fighting the devil himself!"; a remark insidiously calculated by Jewish Freemason script writer Curt Siodmak to prompt the audience to read irony into the words; those of unshakable faith would be unmoved, but those unsure of their relationship with God would very easily start to be corrupted, perhaps deciding that everything that is not physical or material is a figment of the imagination. Yet there is all kinds of evidence that there is more going on in the universe than merely what we can see. To say the least, materialism is a very unwise POV, yet sustained exposure to the barrage of films carrying messages like this one have convinced many, many people of exactly that with no more than the hearsay of totally fictional characters such as the dumb protagonists on Scooby Doo! I tell you; this is by carefully calculated design.

Fascinatingly, and very, very ironically, the Bell Witch poltergeist mentioned above, also warned in its many prophesies given in the 1800's that in the future,

"it will be openly taught that to believe in religion is to be equated with being superstitious, causing many to lose their faith."

-This prediction, which uncannily came quite true, having been given by a ghost...!

This is the whole reason for the bizarrely massive glut of vampire and werewolf films over the decades since film began; anti-religious Masonic subversion. These films are always certain to include a scene in which someone is chastised and treated like a foolish hillbilly for believing in vampires or werewolves, then, moments or even seconds later, someone invariably produces a cross and mentions religion. Well, this is by design; to prompt the "subvertible" members of the audience into deciding that one doesn't want to appear foolish to others by believing in religion. I shamefully admit that I was taken in by this very trick when I was an impressionable lad. But you don't need to be; now you know what the Freemasons have been trying to hoodwink you into doing; abandoning your faith and your only protection, leaving your heart and mind lost and spiritually defenceless. This leads to existential ruin; a depression in which the media can subvert you all the more. Soon you're like their puppet on a string... By the way, did you ever see Glen or Glenda, or perhaps the 1990's Ed Wood film? This is why Bela Lugosi REALLY blurted out, "Pull the string! Pull the string!" it was scripted gloating over Masonic subversion; the script written by Masonic subverter Ed Wood, and it was not Bela Lugosi's idea to blurt this out, as was represented in the 1990's film. Why would they even bother to cover such a pointless moment if it were not to obfuscate the record? Speaking of Ed Wood, have you ever listened to the LP record Criswell put out back in the day? He spouts all sorts of Baphomet-loving transsexual nonsense then raises his voice to insist that in the future the earth will be controlled by a ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT. ED Wood and his cronies were Freemason subverters - albeit particularly ham-fisted ones. This is why the Hollywood disinformation machine had to perform damage control by making the Ed Wood bio pic in the 1990's; to attempt to misrepresent the record of Ed Wood's more than obvious Masonic allegiance and his (particularly low-quality) agenda of subversion to the gullible public.

The Disinformation function of MST3K

Speaking of Ed Wood, this recalls the TV program Mystery Science Theatre 3000. The function of this program is to get the viewer to mentally reframe potentially incriminating Masonic propaganda movies which are too overt and unsubtle in their attempts to deliver their propaganda tropes. The aim is to mock the production values to have the viewer perceive the films as merely having been poorly crafted. This is helped along by cultural references that pull the viewers mind away toward anything and everything that is NOT the film so that they will fail to properly analyse the Masonic propaganda and subtexts of the films. As a result, the public exposed to the MST3K version of a Masonic propaganda film (which would ordinarily be an obvious smoking gun) are instead left with a completely altered perception of the film, and from what I have seen, this effort is massively successful, as it also immerses the viewer in a heaping helping of elitist egotism along the way, making them feel superior by simply being in on the in-jokes. ...Even though in reality they are the ones being fooled. This is in accord with the standard philosophy of DISINFORMATION: Information that you cannot take back or hide from the public can be rendered less damaging by altering society's perceptions of the information. A perfectly illuminating example of what MST3K's function is can be gained by seeking out both versions of Gamera vs. Zigra. The standard English version of this film is virtually a Masonic wet-dream of United Nations boosterism; dead obvious flatly-stated propaganda messages intended to convince the world that the UN now owns them, we need and will soon have a one-world government, UFOs are aliens and not spiritual manifestations, the cosmological principle is truth instead of God, NASA scientists are little gods of authority and should be worshipped as such, women look beautiful and sophisticated when committing evil, etc. etc. etc.

Compare MST3K to the career of Weird Al Yankovic; the musical equivalent of getting the public to re-frame the way they look at similarly regrettable attempts at musical Masonic propaganda.

Fluoridated water

Did you know that one of the effects of sustained exposure to fluoride is markedly reduced capacity for lateral thinking?

Is this why none of this stuff ever occurred to me before I moved out of the USA and relocated to Japan...? Because my ability to correlate facts had been hamstrung by water doped with suppressants?

Is this why every effort to have the American government re-evaluate the fluoridation of our water supplies, in spite of the reams of legitimately documented scientific data submitted to the supreme court, has been instantly thrown out of court? Because fluoridated water is a key component in America's Masonic media-driven mass-manipulation and subversion campaign?

Fake News sites

I will let an entry from my personal diary explain this one:

Fake News and Disinformation - How and Why

1/18/2021

Tonight, NHK Niigata aired an extremely nauseating news segment saying,

"everyone should embrace the presence of fake news sites because they're funny".

This in regard to some specific goings on at the US capitol today and the current crisis involving the supposed "Trump coup" (the actual details of which they conspicuously omitted from the broadcast).

NHK news people said "there was concern [by whom?] that the public might be misinformed about what was happening there."

(Which we should take to mean that they were concerned that some of us KNEW what was really happening there; Freemasonry attempting to provoke a revolution and a second Civil War.)

"Fake news sites are websites", they said, "which present facetious news stories intended to make people laugh". The anchor persons then forced a smile and proceeded to have a rather stiff and contrived guffaw over the example story presented; "LAKE BIWA DRAINED TO KILL DEADLY ALIEN SPACE FISH!"

(Since when does the news hand out recommendations to the public about what constitutes satisfyingly humorous entertainment...? Red Flag!)

They even went so far as to say that "we should pity cultures that don't have the benefit of fake news sites". (!)

(How gullible are the Japanese...?!)

Well, the actual truth of the matter is that "fake news" websites are specifically created by Masonic-controlled WESTERN intelligence organizations for purposes of sewing confusing disinformation (Generally from UN sources; not simply Chinese or Russian as many have claimed).

The REAL purpose of these sites is to host a giant load of obviously absurd stories ("humour") so that articles containing actual truthful information inconvenient to globalist Freemasonry can be posted right alongside them, actually entirely unedited, and right smack out in the open.

This has two functions useful to the "powers that be":

1) The casual reader will assume the truthful story to be false because it is placed in the context of a 'joke' website. He will then argue that the story was a joke should he meet someone trying to spread the truthful information in question. (Thus, the general public themselves can be enlisted as unwittingly duped agents of disinformation!)

2) When concerned citizens attempt to spread alarming truths in order to wake people up (say, on a forum or message board), but the truths in question have already been discredited by being posted on one of these "humour" sites, not only can those persons or agents antagonistic to the truthful statement point to it and say, "they got this story from such-and-such fake news website." to discredit the information, they can also undermine the credibility of the person trying to spread the truth by then saying, "this dumb shit doesn't even know a joke website when he sees one! How can you believe anything he says!" then everyone will laugh and ignore the truthsayer from then on, his reputation besmirched.

I presented to my wife the example of a "joke news" website which presented (between stories about alien bodies found on the remains of Noah's ark and Elvis being cloned by satanists) the entirely truthful story that the Smithsonian had been found guilty in court of destroying a huge number of anomalous giant (7-9') human skeletons with elongated skulls found over the years on US soil, especially in Alabama and Utah. These remains were shown by a whistleblower in court to have been loaded onto a barge and subsequently dumped into the Atlantic (the whistleblower was an eyewitness and participant who regretted his involvement). This truthful story is a famous one with many details and has been covered in several old books and periodicals; analyses of the large, extensively photographed elongate skulls even revealed the absence of the foramen ovals (which transmits the mandibular nerve, accessory meningeal artery, lesser petrosal nerve and the emissary veins). Anomalous features in other areas of these large skulls apparently performing the same functions were found to be present instead (for example in a keyhole-like slot on the back of the head instead of the normal place either side of the opening at the neck/spinal cord). Among the finds was a pregnant female long-skulled mummy with a long-skulled foetus mummified inside her. (So this couldn't have been artificial cranial deformation.) Literally piles of pictures are available and similar finds are still displayed in museums in South America, particularly Paracas Peru which features items from the astonishing Cabezas Largas area dig (but the American media only ridicules and discredits such things. North American archaeology is totally different from South American Archaeology; North American archaeology fits perfectly the definition of pseudoscience - cooking the facts to fit the conclusion ...because they are working to the Masonic agenda of eradicating proof supporting religious facts and hoarding truthful information about the past for their own exclusive exploitation, such as the technology of ancient Vimanas). As a result of the testimony of this whistle-blower, not only was the Smithsonian fined by an American court $10,000 for destroying properties of American Indian heritage, but they were forbidden by court order to do any such thing ever again. However, whistle-blowers reported that in fact the Smithsonian subsequently never ceased their policy of destroying remains inconvenient to their preferred narrative of how America was populated and which evidence also inconveniently directly challenged a darling of Masonic deception, the perpetually endorsed pseudoscientific "theory of evolution". Remember, Freemasons use the evolution hoax to erode religious faith; these huge skeletons are proof of the giants of old mentioned in Genesis 6, verifying the Bible, the Book of Enoch, and many other religious scriptures, and it is for this reason alone that the Masonic-controlled media is waging a disinformation war intended to prevent the public seeing examples of giant skeletons. Evolution in man is textbook pseudoscience; starting out with a desired conclusion and then selectively deleting any evidence which does not support it.

Fake news sites regularly publish this true account of the whistle-blowers vs. the Smithsonian, dropping them unedited right among their stories about mutant midwestern man-eating corn and goat-boys from the Bermuda Triangle in order to discredit the truth about the matter. People are uninformed and so continue to happily visit these "humour" websites so that the Freemasons can lie to them and deceive them.

AND, fake news sites still continue to republish lurid, sensationalized versions of accounts of discoveries of giant skeletons in order that few should realize the actual truth of the matter, taking the valuable information about our human origins merely as "humour". (But if it's really just humour, isn't humour supposed to be funny? what's funny about giant skeletons, anyway...? Even children can write better humour than that... There's a clue right there that something is amiss.)

So tonight NHK interviewed a supposed author from a "fake news site", who appeared with his head bizarrely covered in a cardboard mask. This person referred to themselves as "UK san" and gave an obviously false account of why he supposedly opened a certain prominent Japanese fake news site.

Why "UK san"? Does it just stand for Un Known? UK is indeed appropriate since the disinformation technique I outlined above was developed and perfected by the UK's Masonic-controlled Tavistock Institute of Human Relations and they first deployed this technique against British citizens through MI5 and the BBC. The technique was then shared with their Trilateral Commission parallel organizations for "societal change" (read media manipulation) The American Psychological Association, Stanford Research Institute, and the Japan Psychoanalytic Society (Nippon Seishin-Bunseki Kyokai) and turned upon the public in those countries as well in order to retard and sabotage the knowledge base of the public as to what is really going on in the world.

A couple of decades ago they used to say that the future would be the era of "information war", yet we never hear this phrase bandied about on CNN anymore... Why not?

Because the information war is going on right now and is being conducted against us!

As ex-KGB officer Yuri Bezmenov said, "Every imperialist state [read: Globalist Freemasonry] seeks to impose its state policy upon all other countries. War is thus an extension of your state policy in this regard; it is the attempt to conquer the enemy and impose your state policy upon a target population by force. Yet war is actually the most inefficient means of imposing your state policy upon an enemy because it significantly drains resources that are better used elsewhere and simultaneously burdens your economy. Information war via subversion and disinformation can sway a target society into willingly embracing your state policy and ideology without your having to fire a shot."

There are those who choose to embrace a comfortable deception and those who instead prefer to embrace the sometimes-difficult path of loving the truth. Which is more important to you? Do you love the lies of Freemasonry? Some people do, unfortunately.

The list of people denied a place in the New Jerusalem, God's holy city of the redeemed righteous at the End of Days, as delineated at the close of the Book of Revelation, is very interesting in light of all this; for among the murderers and whoremongers are listed "anyone who loves or makes a lie".

Do you love Masonic lies?

The following is a letter I composed for someone named Shinobu, who was my best friend here in Japan, at the time of writing. She had told me that she was watching a lot of American movies, and had thought that all of them were prompting her to throw caution to the wind and to take risks to make her life more of an unthinking, impulsive adventure. She told me she had taken to walking alone by the river at night, "without considering the consequences of my actions", and that she had been going to karaoke alone at the small hours of the morning to "express herself", because she thought that through these movies, "someone was trying to tell her something" about freedom and self-expression. She said, "also, on Japanese TV, lately people are talking about "dream killers"; what's that?" then she said, "you always seem to know what is going on in my heart before I do, so please tell me the meaning of what I'm experiencing." Well, although Shinobu was a Buddhist, I felt this question was a prompting from God; I could no longer refrain from warning her about what is being done to people through the media. I sat down, and for eight hours, I wrote her a letter.

You might also find it useful to read, so I present it here to you as well:

Hello Shinobu,

You asked about two movies which you recently watched and the meanings thereof. You felt that they somehow related to something you've been thinking a lot about. When the subtext of these films is analysed by a person familiar with the proper concepts, it can quickly be discerned that these two films are examples of Masonic propaganda. The messages, motifs, and tropes all conclusively point to the Masonic political agenda.

This type of material is referred to as societal subversion and is used to undermine traditional values, moral standards, and ethics in favour of ultimately destructive Masonic principles.

Freemasonry is a secret society which has the modus operandi of taking over all the entertainment media in every country wherever possible in order to shape human minds. Their philosophy is essentially the eradication of all human morality and religion in favour of a one-world government. They are enemies of religion, because it opposes their indulgence in sexual extremes. Freemasonry seeks to simultaneously destroy world religions and morals in hopes of making all international peoples materialistic and focussed on sensuality. They believe if they can make all the people of the world essentially amoral and atheistic, the people will no longer have many differences. They think that, without differences, Freemasonry will then be able to realize an international one-world government.

This is not a "conspiracy theory", this is fact. In the 1840's when a revolution in Hungary turned against Freemasonry, their records and plans were seized from their Masonic Temples and published. Furthermore, around 1900, a Masonic Manifesto was discovered on the dead body of a Freemason courier. This manifesto agreed precisely with the Hungarian information. The truth of the matter is that this secret society controls much of the media and they have deliberately introduced the phrase "conspiracy theory" into the modern lexicon in order to sabotage public capacity for analysing Masonic political actions.

Masonic principles have been used for centuries to successfully sabotage targeted societies. Basically, their stratagem can be characterized as this:

"Present to the public appealing concepts that are difficult to argue with, taken to destructive extremes which will ultimately result in the corruption of the targeted society".

You have certainly seen many of these concepts endlessly promoted again and again in TV and movies.

These are some examples:

Freedom: This is the main tenant of Freemasonry. Centuries ago, they introduced the doctrine of "freedom of religion". America was founded by Freemasons using this as their political platform. This is just an early stage of their agenda. In latter stages, when everyone views all religions as more or less the same, they will push the opinion that religion is an obstacle to pleasure and indulgence, and the public will voluntarily renounce all religion. To follow the plan to the culmination, "freedom FROM religion" will make the population of the earth similar so they will have fewer obstacles to prevent the creation of a one-world government. Note that the whole foundation of Freemasonry however began as a way to allow perverse, immoral sexual predators a common place to unite where they could mutually indulge themselves and cooperate in the creation of alibis for legal refuge. They despise morality and religion because religious values prevent people (and their victims) from cooperating with these perverts. Basically, the true agenda of masonry is a perverted fantasy world of easy sex and constant pleasure. They also seek to promote homosexuality, using its devotees as a ready-made weapon against society. They want to make the public eventually believe that they have no choice but to accept any and all perversity and immorality in the name of Freedom. Freemasonry wants to abolish marriage (even heterosexual marriage) because it is an obstacle to easy indiscriminate sex.

"If it feels good, do it!": In America, ALL the songs on the radio are all about this concept. They want you to go wild; "get drunk, smoke marijuana, have sex with whoever, and damn the consequences!" These songs urge you to let go of all self-control and indulge in pleasure. They want people to act no better than the animals of the earth plane. This robs a person of the higher morals that the Creator wants to teach us. God wants people to devote themselves to living in selfless contentment. To do other than this is to invite eventual ruin and suffering. Those who overcome the earth plane become noble in a way that is difficult to explain in a few words. They become eternal beings; these souls are eventually to be God's family of higher beings in another dimension. Conversely, egotism and indulgence destroy a human soul so that it becomes useless and must be remade. You see, all that is in nature, all the animals and birds, plants and insects, have an aspect of God in them. Of everything in nature, Mankind has the highest proportion of this aspect. God wants people who can recognize this "God-quality" and bring it out into their lives. It is said that "God created mankind in his own image"; this is what is meant. Humans are the closest thing to God in the physical plane. We are close to realizing our potential and fulfilling our true purpose. There are those who accuse others of being "dream-killers", but what of Freemasons that actively try to sabotage the whole purpose of Creation? Are we not meant to bring about God's dream? Well, some people want God to go away so they can indulge in indiscriminate carnality.

Yes, the music industry is totally controlled by Freemasonry. Music, movies, and TV are their main mouthpiece. However, music is possibly the most insidious because it gets stuck in your head and can worm its way into your heart along with its message of corruption. When I was a teenager, I listened to the Beatles, the Rolling Stones, and Jimi Hendrix, never suspecting their music to be anything suspicious, but when it came to living my life, I took everything they were preaching to heart; I smoked marijuana, I used LSD, I had sex with 25 girls over the years. If someone tried to caution me, I mocked them and shut them out of my life. Many jobs I held were ended in arguments and I would quit. And of course, I had absolute contempt for all religion. Around 1999, it all came to a head; I attempted suicide with a bottle of pills and alcohol because I had no money and was dating too many women at once. I felt guilty I was lying to all of them so I wanted to die. When this didn't work, I drove my car at speed into a telephone pole. However, I survived... Now, years later, I look back at all the music I listened to and realize I was trying to live the lifestyle of indulgence and egotism proscribed by Masonic Music. It was not until years later that I learned this doctrine was arbitrarily decided upon by Masonic psychologists who worked for the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations in the UK. This is an organization that decided upon the means and stratagems for Masonic subversion. Both the Beatles and the Rolling Stones had demonstrable ties to this organization, not to mention myriad other rock bands. In America subversion ideology is disseminated by The American Psychological Association and Stanford Research Institute. The Japan Psychoanalytic Society (Nippon Seishin-Bunseki Kyokai) is responsible for working with the media for subverting the population of Japan.

Did you know that in America, in New York, the central MTV television recording studio is built INSIDE a Masonic Temple? You cannot even go inside without being a Freemason. In America, it is widely assumed that rock bands become famous through hard work and seeking exposure. This is a myth deliberately encouraged by Freemasonry and is not true at all. The fact of the matter is that success is arbitrarily decided upon from the top down; fame is handed out to Freemasons only. This being contingent on how much subversion they are willing to preach in their music. At the moment, the band that seems to be the most beloved of Freemasonry is the rock band "Queen". This band is seen to represent the apex of self-worship egotism and the lyric content of their songs is like a distilled essence of Masonic propaganda. You would not believe the extent to which Freemasonry controls the music industry of the entire world.

Superstition: Masonic propaganda attempts to criticise superstition wherever possible. In movies and TV, "superstitious people" will be presented as laughable fools and will be criticized. Anything constituting proof of spiritual activity is hidden or ridiculed. This is so that eventually, the public will decide that to believe in religion is to be superstitious. When this happens, people will lose faith. All people will become similar via a commonality of atheism and there will then be one less barrier to oppose the creation of a Masonic one-world government.

Racism: Racism is always presented as bad. The media will constantly show the evils of racism. This propaganda will make it easier for the world to unite in a one world government. The "weaponized" version of this propaganda is that Freemasons will lobby to remove restrictions of foreign immigrants to all countries. They will force all nations to have their races mixed. This will bring them closer to a one-world government. Note that my wife and I are in your country because of machinations introduced by the US Council on Foreign Relations, an organization operated by Freemasons. The foreign-language programs arbitrarily introduced to the schools of the world are a Masonic means of forcing the universal acceptance of foreigners. The idea is to teach people that they do not have the right to their own culture and they must accept what is decided for them. Where people have accepted this teaching, they will be more likely to submit to a global centralized governance.

Anti-Catholicism: Freemasonry is staunchly anti-Catholic. Catholic Christians are forbidden to join Freemasonry. This is because the complete destruction of the Catholic Church is the primary goal of Freemasonry. Freemasonry was the primary agitator during the French Revolution and was solely responsible for that war. During the Revolution, the Freemasons violently attacked Catholic Churches and burnt many of them to the ground. Catholic Clergy were rounded up and beheaded by the hundreds. After the Revolution, it was decided by Freemasonry that it was, in retrospect, too easy for people to tell that an anti-Christian secret society had been responsible for it all. They decided to be stealthier and to try to destroy not via direct murder but by cultural subversion.

The technique of cultural subversion is as follows: Conventional warfare is a grossly inefficient way to conquer an enemy. To attack an enemy and destroy him successfully, you must control more resources than he does. This can change however during the course of the war! Not only must you safeguard your own resources, you must try to destroy enough of your enemy's assets to make it too costly for him to continue to fight back. However, he is always trying to do the same thing to you! Therefore, it is risky and inefficient. However, if we look at the ultimate aim of warfare, it is really only a means of attempting to extend one's own state policy. (You want to conquer the enemy's country and force his people to live as your people live.) Therefore, the most efficient means of attacking an enemy is through making him voluntarily decide to emulate your beliefs. If you can infiltrate the enemy's media, you can slowly introduce your desired viewpoints and perspectives to gradually alter the minds of his people. In effect, you make the enemy change his mind so that he becomes like you. This is subversion, sometimes referred to as Slow-Change Agendaism.

Shinobu, note that this is the true reason for the media trying to get people to adopt the readiness to look at things from new perspectives. The media seeks to make people ever eager to consider every new viewpoint that is set before them. This will make it vastly easier for them to cajole you into adopting the propaganda messages they have placed everywhere in the media for you to swallow. They don't worry that you will use this philosophy to adopt some other viewpoint, because it is only Masonic propaganda that you are being constantly bombarded with. They are secure in their assumption: If you accept anything new at all, it will be of their manufacture. And if you are one of those Christian ones who absolutely refuses to accept Masonic doctrine, there are a hundred other people who will simply accept what is being foisted upon them.

Shinobu, for 35 years, I was an atheist. However, over the decades, I studied world religions one at a time because I somehow sensed that there was a truth that I was missing. I had no respect at all for the Christian religion because I had been born into a society totally corrupted by Freemasonry. I was programmed by the media to hate Christianity because I thought Christianity just wanted to limit people's freedoms. Well, I was totally brainwashed. I did not realize this until 2017. That year, one day, I heard a voice in my head saying, "Edgar Cayce! Edgar Cayce!" I didn't know who he was so I looked up "the Edgar Cayce Readings"; these were the 16,000+ hypnosis sessions in which it was found Edgar Cayce could clairvoyantly produce true and accurate information. People would ask what was making them sick, and he would psychically proscribe a cure. When people followed the directions given, these cures almost always worked and thousands of people found healing because of him. I was an atheist, but I also found a miraculous proof of God in the Edgar Cayce Readings. For example, people would write to him and say, "I had an amazing dream that I wanted you to interpret, but I forgot what it was!" Well, Edgar Cayce would go into a trance and speak; he would not only give a highly detailed reminder-account of what their dream had been, but also the correct interpretation thereof. He did this many, many times. He would also say that it was God who was sending these dreams to people. Most dreams are symbolic metaphors for people to interpret to obtain spiritual guidance from God. When asked for information about God, Edgar Cayce gave amazing insights into the nature of the earth and God's plan to educate human souls MORALLY via repeated reincarnation on the earth plane. I was amazed by this and finally decided to read all the Christian scriptures. I was astonished to find a Biblical prophet, Daniel, had exactly the same powers as Edgar Cayce; he could tell people what their dreams were, even if they had forgotten, and could interpret these messages from God. This is only a tiny beginning of all the wisdom they taught. I was totally astonished! Why weren't people talking more about this amazing information! I was totally dumbfounded! It was the truth about the world I had been looking for all my life! But I spent my life researching all religions so now I can reflect on them with proper insight. Some religions are so ancient that they have become corrupted by the introduction of rumour and untruth. I believe that the Buddhist and Vedic religions are in this category and partly correct; they have some good accuracy, but many key points of God's facts have disappeared from their teachings over the millennia and many errors have crept in. There are many other religions that, although well meaning, are based upon misinterpretations or erroneous assumptions, such as Islam. Other religions are just empty idolatry or misguided veneration of sex concepts. Remember, there is ONE truth to the world. Is it not surprising then, that Freemasonry also teaches indifferentism? This is the idea that all religions are valid and the same. No! A moment's thought will tell you that in any situation, there is only ONE truth as to the facts and anything contrary to this is a distortion of the facts or simply a falsehood. Isn't that so? Freemasonry also teaches the public the doctrine of "relativism of the truth"; this is a philosophical concept that teaches that each individual person has their own equally valid conception of what the truth is, and all "truth" is mere subjective interpretation. [This idea was exemplified in the Masonic Kurosawa Akira film "Rashomon"] No! This is also a falsehood. Every child knows in their heart if they have told a lie, and they feel guilt because of God's teachings that live in their heart. Here even subjectivity attests to the factuality of ONE truth.

It was not until later that I learned that Freemasonry is actively concealing Edgar Cayce's information from the public. They are suppressing and/or distorting knowledge about it. In fact, Freemasonry's manifesto, the Protocols of Zion, says, "We will horde and conceal all true knowledge about God and the earth and prevent the public from obtaining it. That way, the public will be ignorant and sabotaged at their core. Everything they do will be founded upon error. Knowing no truth, they will only think about maximizing their personal pleasure."

It is very telling that one motto of Freemasonry is, "Brotherhood is stronger than Truth."

You might wonder then, if Freemasons know that God is real and that He has a plan for human souls, why they would seek to oppose this? Well, they are people who treasure indulgence in sex so highly that they would risk the loss of their souls. They hope to continue reincarnating on the earth plane forever so that they can always indulge in sex. Well, the scriptures indicate that it has already been determined by God that they will not obtain this. Do these people read the scriptures? No, they live in a fantasy world of indulgence in carnality and booze. The Freemasons I have heard speak about the Bible clearly demonstrate only total ignorance of the wisdom it contains and speak only about assumptions of prudishness on the part of Christianity.

Oddly, Freemasons will not allow atheists to join; you have to believe in God the Creator. Why?

Because that is who they are fighting against.

Have you ever heard of their god "Baphomet"?

This is the deity venerated by 33° Freemasons. It looks like a goat-headed man-woman with horns. On its forearms, there are tattoos written in Latin that say, "COAGULATE" and "DISSOLVE". These ideas are the essence of Freemasonry; interpreted, it means this: "to instil our concepts in the minds of men" and "To destroy traditional society and the Catholic Church".

Did you know that J.K. Rowling, who wrote the Harry Potter books, has these very words tattooed on her own forearms? Yes, she worships Baphomet and she is a Freemason. They completely control the media. Only their agents are allowed to become the successful celebrity writers, actors, and musicians that the media shows you, and no one else.

The false-god Baphomet is depicted as half-male, half-female. This is to represent their inversion philosophy. By their machinations, they seek to turn saints into villains, villains into saints. Priests will be portrayed as sinners and all the sinners will be elevated and sanctified. The police will be reviled and criminals will be elevated to admiration. Women will be made strong and intimidating and men will be made weak and effeminate. The school will become like a brothel. Virginity will be frowned upon. The good and kind will be reviled and spat upon as foolish simpletons, and egoistic selfishness will be elevated as to be considered the height of sophisticated elegance. Have you noticed that transvestites and intersex people are becoming celebrities lately? Have you noticed the makeup for men being sold at our local mall? Have you noticed that the media have made it fashionable for young girls to wear baseball caps, aviator sunglasses, and military-style boots? All of these things are the result of Masonic subversion. They were decided upon by the Japan Psychoanalytic Society and enacted from the Masonic Temples in Tokyo, where they manage all the celebrities in Japan.

These ideas came from Aleister Crowley. (Remember him? He was the one I told you about the other day; the British man who claimed to have summoned fallen angels with astrological magic.) Based on what the fallen angels taught him, Crowley wrote a book called "LIBER 333 - The Book of Lies"; this is a foundation stone of modern Masonic philosophy. In it is presented what is called, "Inversion Philosophy". This is a deranged idea that tells people to do the opposite of what their morals and ethics would have them do at any given time. Crowley wrote that this idea is useful for "spiritual exploration" and that a person "can learn a lot by doing whatever evil results from this philosophy" and that they should explore it to their very limits no matter what the consequences. Basically, Crowley's "philosophy" is tantamount to continually actualized Satanism.

Their hoped-for "alchemical ideal" is to transmute Christians into Satanists.

This book, Liber 333, encourages you to indulge yourself without any thought of the consequences. Does this sound familiar? Have you heard this being encouraged anywhere lately?

In 1969, another Freemason, Anton LaVey, founded "The Church of Satan" in California; an openly evil-worshipping cult. He also wrote three books to use for their inverted scriptures, "The Satanic Bible", "The Satanic Rituals", and "The Satanic Witch". In "The Satanic Bible" LaVey makes it clear that the primary core beliefs of Satanism are twofold; Egotism and Indulgence. Everything in these three books is derived from these two key ideas. (I have personally read all the books I am telling you about here; I used to own them. Remember when I told you, "I used to be evil"...? I researched ALL religions and because I was subverted by Freemasonry I started with the openly evil ones. I bought these books in the 1980's and repeatedly read them over and over.) "The Satanic Rituals" is a book teaching you how to conduct witchcraft ceremonies. "The Satanic Witch" is a book that basically teaches women to be zealous feminists and to stop at nothing to indulge their egotism. "If you want to utterly destroy someone", the book says, "you should be ready even to sleep with them; you can use your sexuality to manipulate and coerce them down a path that will lead them to destruction or suicide."

You simply would not believe the extreme depths of limitless evil that Satanism teaches.

Shinobu, it would benefit you enormously to always remember that the whole reason for human life is to develop moral ideals and that these are always undermined by these two things: egotism and indulgence. Remember, the earth plane may look physical but it is still a spiritual dimension; the whole reason it is here is for human souls to choose to overcome its seductions. In this, Buddhism was absolutely correct.

Freemasons think they already completely control Japan because the Japanese have little inclination to give any attention to Judeo-Christian knowledge of God.

In researching all the world religions, I was struck by the fact that the Judeo-Christian tradition has an utterly massive number of scriptures. This is because the prophets all had access to the powers of Edgar Cayce and obtained wisdom from the same source. This source is like a wellspring for those who understand about God. Conversely, it's waters do not flow for people who labour under false beliefs. Other religions simply have not produced the sheer quantity of scriptures that the Judeo-Christian tradition has. Moreover, the most remarkable thing is that they all agree on every point; there are no contradictions. The scriptures present a very complex view of a multi-dimensional universe and the key role that the gradual development of the human soul plays in the world. This level of consistency on the subject of other-dimensions and soul evolution is really amazing and very rewarding to study. It simply could not have appeared by chance. Moreover, the spiritual wisdom it communicates to a person is an incomparable wealth of riches for the soul. One can absorb these teachings and can indeed discover what is unequivocally the meaning of life. And further, this knowledge brings about great contentment. You never wonder who you are, you never think about clinging to egoism, you go forth completely comfortable that you know your place and role in Creation and what you are meant to be doing with your life! Amazingly, the totality of the Edgar Cayce Readings also agrees on every point with the Christian scriptures. Perhaps the most startling thing is the many prophecies about the latter days which are not only all describing various aspects of the same situation, they are also certainly referring to the present time. These conditions are so specific they could not have existed at any other point in history. -This is nothing short of alarming.

It is a fact that without the spiritual benefits of knowledge of the one body of actual truth of God, all that is left for a person is materialism. You can tell a person has strayed far from God when they are consumed with materialism. This unspiritual worldview leads to a cycle of desire; a vicious circle of indulgence and gratification. We are left with a pathetic hollow existence. If we get enough desire fulfilled, we are happy; not enough desire fulfilled and we are sad. The true doctrine of God fills a person with faith in something that causes them to transcend all materialism and frees them from the suffering of the circle of desire. When you devote yourself to kindness and to making other people happy, instead of yourself, a great contentment with life soon appears. Isn't this exactly what Jesus was trying to teach people? You will no longer need indulgence if you have Christian contentment. Even if you are in constant physical pain, as you know I am, you can be content day-to-day if you devote yourself to making other people happy and supporting others.

A woman, a housewife, once asked Edgar Cayce, "What is my purpose in life?" Edgar Cayce replied that God's intended purpose was for her to find great contentment in bringing about peace in the lives of those around her by supporting her family to the fullest. Cayce revealed that before she incarnated, she had consulted with God and the souls she was planning to incarnate with, and she conceived to carry out this intended plan. The readings indicated that many women back in the 1930's were incarnating to be bringers of peace and stable love into the lives of the other souls they wished to support.

When people follow the selfless path that brings contentment, they are happy because they are free from desire. The path that brings the most suffering is the path that engenders more desire because of the illusion that opportunities for indulgence are being missed. For example, if someone is fixated on the idea of becoming a piano virtuoso, how will this bring contentment? Yes, for a little while their ego may be titillated; they are getting attention that makes them feel special. They think they know who they are and are happy for a little while maybe. However, as the years pass, how can they maintain this illusion for themselves? How will they still feel special? The only recourse is that they must keep periodically performing the piano to maintain their own illusion of being special! Well, what happens when they get old? Maybe they get arthritis and can't perform. Or maybe they break their fingers earlier on in life and must suddenly confront the crushing blow to their ego. Now they have fallen from their perceived level of egoistic greatness. It was a falsehood all along; an illusion. Doesn't this kind of thing happen every day? May people have committed suicide because they cannot deal with the loss of their identity; but it was a false identity all along. A lifestyle founded on indulgence and egotism is doomed at some point to inevitably fall.

When my sister was little, she absolutely worshipped a celebrity named David Cassidy, a musician. Cassidy spent his whole life in the music industry. He recently died from alcoholism a few years ago. On his deathbed, he is reported to have said, "I've been such a fool - so much wasted time!" These were his final words. Did he finally realize what we have mentioned here? Had he built his lifestyle around the cornerstones of egoism and indulgence?

Shinobu, my mother's father was a Freemason. He instilled in my mother a belief in feminism and that women should indulge their desires no matter what. If they oppose the preconceived image of women, so much the better, because then their very life becomes a weapon for Masonic subversion to undermine society. Well, my mother left home and went out into society. She liked classical music so she decided to study playing the bass viol. She chose this because "it was the last instrument in the orchestra people would expect a woman to play". It was also very heavy and she could hardly move it around on her own. Yet she insisted on playing it. To indulge her ego, she constantly had to be playing in the orchestra. As a result, my mother was never home in the evenings. My mother also believed all the Masonic subversion about easy sex and had no respect for her husband. She cheated on him and had sex with his business associate, and so my parents were divorced. She married a second husband and did the same thing to him. Another divorce. My mother taught her daughter not to respect anything but her own dreams and desires. When my sister grew up, her dream of becoming a famous dancer exploded in her face when she got pregnant by having irresponsible sex. My sister became angry at the world and has now turned against even my mother. My mother was so egotistical that she became very argumentative. She now has no friends. She is in her 80's and she told me that she cries every day because she is alone. Well, isn't this the natural result of the deranged values her father taught her? It seems inevitable that a person would turn out like this when their life's worldview was founded on selfishness and indulgence. But this story is presently repeated like wildfire all over America. Back in the 1950's, America was very much at the same stage of subversion that Japan is at today. Back in the 1950's, American society was much more harmonious and stable. My dad told me that people used to be much happier. There was great contentment because many people were selfless and considerate of others. It was peaceful and quiet in the neighbourhoods and children could play outside. But for decades, America has now been subjected to intense Masonic subversion by their media. Now divorce is so common that it is difficult to find a family that has not been damaged by it. Everyone is so consumed with egotism they are very argumentative. Everyone has tattoos and piercings and crazy-coloured hair. People quickly become angry or even violent and disagreements and conflict are everywhere. Violence is a daily worry and people are afraid to let their children go outside. Americans are so self-indulgent that they are all obese. They spend all their money on entertainment and indulgences. If you even gently mention the idea of exerting self-control, people will become very angry and irate with you. No one respects others so everyone talks to people with absolute contempt, which engenders still more arguments. People think only of their own enjoyment, so wherever there are cars, the noise is incredible, since everyone plays their personal music at full volume. Peace and quiet are nowhere to be found.

I know that if the Japanese people continue to allow their media to seduce them into embracing "egotism and indulgence" as a worldview, Japan will be exactly like America in a few short decades. I have been here only 14 years and already I can see the effects of social change eroding away at Japanese society like an inexorable tide. It is dissolving the traditional Japanese way of life and solidifying Masonic concepts. (Just like the tattoos on Baphomet's arms...)

In the Bible, there is a prophesy of the latter days. It says that the Christian Church will fall and everyone will be blinded by deceivers and most people will lose their faith in God. Egotism will instead become rampant in the world. Women will be corrupted and neglect their families. People will value their possessions and little else. The prophesy says that this turn of events will be brought about by "The Synagogue of Satan"; "people who claim to be religious but are not." In three different chapters of the Bible, Jesus warned that at this latter time, "There will be many earthquakes in diverse places. There will be wars and rumours of wars."

I must point out here that Freemasonry has always hidden behind the same façade; they claim to be "a charitable organization of religious devotees". Moreover, they frequently claim to be Christians, Muslims, or Jewish, in order to hide their real anti-religious machinations. Many times, as with the creators of the film you mentioned, "The Dead Poets Society", they will use Jewish people or groups to put forward their media propaganda. They do this in order to misdirect blame. If anyone notices the repeated hallmarks of media subversion, they will mistakenly blame the Jews instead of the Freemasons. When I first came to Japan, I met a Japanese man who had figured out a lot of this conspiracy by piecing together the different propaganda tropes he had seen the media foisting on the public. However, he fell for this Masonic trick; he attributed all blame to the Jews.

Shinobu, I have been very concerned about you because, to judge from the media you are attracted to, it seems you respond very favourably to Masonic propaganda messages. Know right now that you are at very high risk for being tricked. I don't want to see you begin experimenting with freedom only to end up consumed with selfishness, which is their whole plan. Look what happened to my mother, my country. All of my friends from high school bear the scars of having been raised in a country drowning in Masonic propaganda.

On the internet, I recently reconnected with an old friend from high school named _____. Everything he said bore the mark of Masonic subversion. Of course, we listened to the worst, most evil music we could find back in the old days. He never noticed the subversion though. When I spoke to him again recently, I could see he had become rotten inside. He was very egotistical and fiercely argumentative. He told me he cheated on his wife and got another girl pregnant. This resulted in divorce. Then he said he was still doing drugs like we did as teenagers. For some reason, he would ask me opinion questions, and then mock, criticize, and berate me for whatever answer I gave. I was calm and patient but he was so needlessly hostile and angry I could not communicate with him. Strangely, he also showed me a lot of pictures of himself dressed up like a woman. I knew it was the result of Masonic Inversion Propaganda, but I said nothing about the pictures and changed the subject. He angrily began insisting that he was free to express himself however he wanted. If I didn't like it, he said, then I was the one who was wrong! (But... I didn't say anything!) Eventually, he retreated and stopped communicating. It was sad because I knew why he was the way he was, yet I could not get him to understand. In fact, in America, this is a common point of view now. "I can do whatever outrageous thing I want. If you don't like it, then go to hell! You're the one with the problem!" I have seen people get into fist fights in parking lots over this point. Someone won't turn their car radio down "because they're free to do what they want!" and then they accuse the other person of failing to tolerate who they are. Violence erupts.

Whatever happened to having consideration for others? In America, it is a thing of the past...

Shinobu, you're enthusiastic about hula dance, aren't you? A few years ago, in Kashiwazaki, I happened to stumble upon a bizarre hula performance on the beach there in which a man performed hula in a dress alongside the women. There were children watching making facial expressions of confusion. What does this kind of exhibition teach them? That they have to accept whatever comes along no matter how deranged? Well, that's exactly what Masonic propaganda is trying to teach the public. This man embraced the propaganda and let it confuse him. Now he is making a fool of himself in public and the Freemasons can laugh at him because he has become their unknowing tool, enacting their propaganda. This does not aid society or contribute to its stability; on the contrary, it undermines it. The healthy functioning of mainstream, normal society brings about contentment. This is what they want to destroy in favour of egotism. Where is all this unlimited freedom going to end? In mass rape and human sacrifice? Don't laugh, for who can be sure? In fact, many Freemasons have come forward to expose what goes on in Masonic Lodges. As you might imagine, there have been many deathbed confessions from former Freemasons who have converted to Catholicism before they died. In addition to plotting the subversion of nations to bring about a one-world government, these men have said that what goes on inside Masonic Temples are essentially Luciferian rites to venerate the evil forces. Many Freemasons have admitted to having drunk goat and human blood in their rites, and to sexually torturing missing people snatched off the streets for this purpose. -I don't want to talk about that too much because it's abhorrent. But let me say this, in the Hebrew Book of Enoch, there is a snippet of scripture on the subject of "latter days" or "the end times" that I will paraphrase here:

"Woe to you who drink blood in your strongholds and plot wickedness and blasphemy. The Lord had given you good food and drink to nourish your bodies so wherefore do you drink the blood of your fellow man? But you have said in your hearts, "Wealth and freedom and success flow as water before us!" yea, and therefore like water shall your lives flow away."

The Book of Revelation, in the Bible, cautions against the "Synagogue of Satan", "Those who pretend to be Jews and are not". It says that these men plot violence and the downfall of nations and drink blood. It says that when they meet God they will be made to kneel before those who they murdered and those meek people they sabotaged. Then, it says, they will be made to drink the blood of the innocent people all their evil political warmongering machinations have spilt.

Why do the scriptures say this? Because many of the wars of the last few hundred years have had demonstrable ties to Masonic activity: The American Revolution, the Mexican Revolution, the American Civil War, the French Revolution, the Russian Revolution of 1917, the German Revolution of 1919, the World Wars, the Troubles in Northern Ireland, the Falklands Conflict, the Vietnam War, etc. etc. All of these wars were carried out to further Masonic control. (Or in the case of the Falklands Conflict, men were made to die simply to prove the Masonic ideology concept that a woman Prime Minister could wage war!) According to their manifesto, one of their aims is to "decapitate every monarchy in the world or recruit the royalty into Freemasonry as our willing pawns." It is well known that British royalty is entirely Masonic. The kings of all European countries have all fallen to revolutions and have been supplanted by the Masonic organization the European Union. The United States and the European Union are precursors to the global unification by uniting regional districts that will eventually be merged into the Masonic one-world government. They also plan to somehow bring about an Asian Union and an African Union as further steps in the realization of this plan. Their plan of regional unionization of nation-states has been talked about for many years.

Currently the Masonic media is attempting to bring about a second American Civil War. This war will likely result in the creation of a totalitarian state that will further their anti-religious agenda; freedom of religion will become "freedom from religion".

In the 1930's, Edgar Cayce was asked to identify the "Synagogue of Satan" mentioned in the Bible. He replied in a trance that "These are the secret societies which swear oaths to do evils and undermine religions and countries; Freemasons."

Over a century ago, Pope Pius IV of the Catholic Church also identified the "Synagogue of Satan" that the Bible warns about as the Freemasons. Numerous other popes have issued repeated official Church warnings to Catholics not to trust Freemasons because that organization is hostile to Catholicism. Moreover, Masons pretend to be something they aren't for malicious purposes.

Interestingly, also in the 1930's, Edgar Cayce was asked what the most significant political development after the year 2000 would be. He said, "The political structure of the world will be remodelled to be more and more in accord with international Freemasonry."

It is actually from an Edgar Cayce Reading that the phrase "New World Order" originated; he used this phrase to describe the atheistic world that Freemasonry was attempting to bring about.

Another person asked Edgar Cayce if there was to be a person called "the Antichrist" that would appear on earth as a world leader. Cayce replied that "the Antichrist" was really an inversion philosophy; the antithesis of the ethics of Christ to be taught through messages in the media of the day after 1998. If Christ taught selflessness and kindness, the Antichrist message will teach egotism and indulgence.

In the Book of Daniel in the Holy Bible, the Antichrist is mentioned in a chapter involving a prophesy of the "latter days" when there is a mass falling away from religion. The prophesy says that (among other things) the Antichrist will corrupt women, and that although she will not be on his side, women will be consumed with egotism and selfishness and will abandon the contentment of the home for indulgence.

Furthermore, the Book of Daniel says, "Also the robbers of the people shall exalt themselves to establish their vision, but they shall fall."

Interpreted, the "robbers of the people" are Freemasons in that they pose as charitable organizations but actually funnel the money into the careers of their media subverters; popular musicians, idols, and actors, whose careers are furthered using this "stolen" charity money. These people "exalt themselves" with their rituals of degrees of Masonic initiation; the more a member swears loyalty oaths to the dark forces, the more medals, honours, and titles Freemasonry bestows upon them. What is "the vision" they are attempting "to establish"? It is a totalitarian one-world government where there is no religion; instead, indulgence and egocentrism will be venerated as its supreme concepts.

Also in the Book of Daniel, it says that "in his strongholds, he [the Antichrist] will honour a strange god, a god which his fathers knew not; a god of forces." This is the "god of alchemical transmutation"; Baphomet, which turns society upside-down via subversion.

What are the "strongholds of the Antichrist?" these are the Masonic Temples, dotted all about the world. There are three of them in Tokyo alone. Elsewhere in the Book of Daniel it says that "in latter days he [the Antichrist] will plant his stronghold between the seas in the glorious holy mountain". This holy mountain is obviously Mount Zion in Jerusalem. Look on Google Maps for "Masonic Temple of Jerusalem" and you will see that he already has.

Now perhaps you are beginning to see clearly. I did not mention this to you before, even though I wanted to for years, because I have learned that people can get extremely upset when they realize the media around them is controlled and manipulated to subvert them. For a long time Shinobu, your happiness and your health were uncertain. If I were to tell you too soon, I would have been risking damaging your worldview, and I did not want to trigger another problem with despair or depression in your life. However, in the past couple of years I think you have become much stronger and more capable of dealing with this. Anyway, you asked, so now it the time for you to be informed of the truth.

Yes, Freedom can be nice for letting off stress, but it can be taken too far. If you look at each Masonic propaganda concept, all of them sound good at the outset. However, they were carefully decided upon and deliberately chosen so that WHEN each concept is taken to extremes, they will corrode society like a dissolving acid.

It is most important to keep in mind the words of Edgar Cayce on this point of how much is too much: "The skill of patiently tolerating others is often a good skill to have, but when we begin to tolerate so much that we lose sight of our morals, our ideals; then we have tolerated too much; the result will be far more damage than good. Always keep your moral values and principles foremost.

Search yourself! Know your ideals! God has placed good and evil before you. Choose thou!"

I have heard it said that among intelligence community analysts there is a saying; "Christians and Freemasons know more about what is actually going on in the world than do any other people."

You asked about the concept of a "Dream Killer": This is a phrase thrown at people who advise due caution and proceeding carefully when someone confesses to a friend that they are contemplating proceeding down a path of indulgence. All the Masonic stratagems are very well thought out; they have prepared labels and defences to use against all critics. "Dream Killer" is a new label simply deployed whenever a concerned person would advise prudence or a conservative approach to a friend considering a radical change of lifestyle. The utilization of this phrase encourages one to cling to egotism and indulgence at the expense of prudence and caution, and of the consideration for others. For example, imagine a mother of two eight-year-old children wanted to abandon her home in Yamagata to indulge the egoistic fantasy of flying to Paris to become a painter. Having conceived of her plan, she excitedly telephones her father to tell him what she is planning to do. "But what about your commitment to your husband? What about your two children? Who will care for them while your husband is always away working in Tokyo?"

The Freemason subverters would then want the woman to yell, "Dream Killer!" at her father. They would then have her pursue her dream without any consideration of others or for the consequences of her actions. So, having silenced her father by calling him a "dream killer", the woman moves to France. In the meantime, her husband has had to bring the children with him to Tokyo where they are raised not by loving parents but in day-care. In the evenings, the children wander about with little supervision. While there, they are corrupted by street life and adopt destructive habits. Perhaps they feel their mother has abandoned them. As they get older, the son becomes isolated with drinking and resentment. The daughter gets pregnant by a hoodlum and is abandoned, left to care for her child on her own. This cycle of pain will not end, because everyone involved has forgotten that stable family life and devoting oneself to the happiness of others is what brings about contentment. Those who embrace egotism as a lifestyle will never have any peace. Peace, however, resides in the heart of one who gives their all to make others happy.

Thus, we see that the phrase "Dream Killer" can be another type of acid used to dissolve a stable society. This very phrase is a Masonic weapon. They have hundreds of phrases like this to counteract the various criticisms raised against Masonic propaganda concepts. They are tailored to silence critics in the hopes that people will imitate what they hear and employ these phrases aggressively.

Shinobu, it is all fine and good to have a hobby. What the Freemasons don't want people to know is that you can do what you hope to do while still devoting yourself to others. I have recorded albums of music, yet I did not need to sign up with Freemasonry to secure the connections to help me. Similarly, I can make love to my wife and still believe in God. I can be content in that I know God does not condemn me for doing something every husband does with his wife. I do not need Masonic sex-doctrine to feel satisfied and happy in my life. Yet strangely, the Freemasons have convinced many people that you cannot be religious and harbour sexual feelings of any kind in your heart. Why not? God made all of nature and made man and woman to love one another. God is also forgiveness. If I feel guilty about something, I can talk to God about repentance and he can give me forgiveness. Freemasons want people to forego this in favour of a situation where your sins are compounded by every vice you experiment in. Moreover, an atheist does not talk to God to ask for forgiveness. How can he bring peace into a heart filled with distress and turmoil? His only option is to indulge in attempting to gratify more and more desires impulsively or contemplate suicide. This is a terrible refuge to flee to. But isn't this exactly the situation with virtually everyone in Japan? They do not know about contentment because they have lost it in the pursuit of their personal dreams. They have traded contentment for continual indulgence and the spiralling path of unquenchable endless desires. Their restless hearts are full of turmoil. Is this why the suicide rate in Japan is very high compared to other countries?

Some people say that the Freemasons are just what they appear to be, a charity and a religious organization. However, with the advent of the internet, it has become easier to obtain film exposé material from "whistle-blowers" seeking to show that the Freemasons are not what they pretend to be. One of these videos shows a female stripper performing an erotic dance in the middle of what is undeniably a central chamber of a Masonic Temple. Others show sex acts taking place inside masonic temples. Another secretly filmed video shows a rite of sacrifice taking place in which a goat's throat is cut open with a knife during some kind of magic ritual. Again, the setting was the inner chamber of a Masonic Temple. I've seen a lot of these years ago. I'm certain there are many more of them available on the internet by now.

Another suspicious thing is something I discovered when I worked at a bookstore back in America in the 1990's. It was a successful chain bookstore that sold used books, and every day many people would bring in boxes full of random books to sell. In the back room was a huge storage area filled with years of books we had amassed. Books in there were either valuable and waiting to be priced, or too unusual to be sold to the general public. In that room were many, many boxes of thick books titled, "MASONIC EPHEMERS", and there was the symbol of Freemasonry on the cover. Each book was titled after a year, (e.g. 1971, 1989, etc.) Inside, page after page, for hundreds of pages in each book, were the individual hours listed for every day of every month of that year. Beside each hour, there was the Hebrew name of an angel. The crazy thing was, there were books for every past year going back at least a century, and oddly, also books for future years, for several decades in advance.

Years later, I discovered a filesharing site on the internet. One of the files was a folder called "Resources for Freemasons". In the folder was a book called, "The Book of Raziel". It purported to be a book dictated by a fallen angel called Raziel. The book said that Raziel had been successfully summoned and that he had been commanded to divulge the following information: That for every hour of every day and month of the year, there is an angel appointed by God that presides. If during the proper hour, a magician uses the proscribed formulae to summon an angel, speaking the angel's name, commanding it in the name of God to tell the truth, the angel will appear and then discourse at length upon whatever topic the magician is interested to know. The book said that the angels are able to consult something called, "the Heavenly Tablets". This is essentially God's record of all truth. Interestingly, Edgar Cayce said all his information was obtained directly from the Heavenly Tablets. The Hebrew scriptures make frequent mention of the Heavenly Tablets. Anyway, the information therein extends even to otherworldly topics that humans are not ordinarily able to know including past and future events. Consultation of the Heavenly Tablets is what allowed so many Biblical prophets to take a glimpse of what was ordained for people in "the latter days" and to give prophecies regarding this. Now, this was just one bookstore crammed with these books. How many other bookstores were also overloaded with these mysterious MASONIC EPHEMERS books? Are the elite of the Freemasons issued with these books so they can obtain esoteric information from angels? In the Book of Revelation, it says that there are "three unclean spirits, like frogs" which conspire with "The Synagogue of Satan" to bring about the reign of the Antichrist. Remember Aleister Crowley, the man who wrote the Inversion Philosophy and who claimed to have interacted with a fallen angel? It is well known to historians that Aleister Crowley was a 33° Freemason and was also founder of several occult and Satanic brotherhoods of magical enthusiasts. Can it be that this is exactly the same method he used to communicate with fallen angels? Could it possibly be that three fallen angels are guiding the Freemasons in everything they do? Do you think the Freemasons would waste their time and resources privately printing and circulating huge piles of MASONIC EPHEMERS books amongst their members if it was not readily evident that there was some use to this? I have seen angelic presences that responded to a black magic summons. I have seen with my own eyes evidence that Freemasons are able to use magic and are in communication with angels. Now, recall that the Freemasons themselves have been disseminating propaganda designed to get people to laugh at ideas like this. Masonic movies and TV want you to laugh at the idea of magic and angels and dismiss them as "superstitious". Well, 300 years ago, people in the Western world did not laugh at these ideas at all. They took them very seriously and worried about the subversion of their society by covens of Satanic witches that consorted with fallen angels. What has happened? What has changed? It began when a known Freemason called Thomas Payne stood up and presented a book called "The Age of Reason". In it, he insisted that witches and witchcraft were all made up fantasy, that science should be materialistic, and that people should believe only what they can see with their own eyes; in short, he was preaching an atheistic philosophy that concealed the activities of the Freemasons with a veil of public ignorance. He then said that Catholic men dreamed up witches to have an excuse to torture women, whom for some reason, they hoped to oppress. This lie was then repeated so much that everyone let their guard down. Things have gotten steadily worse ever since. Just for the record, at least one Edgar Cayce reading said that there was indeed actual witchcraft being conducted in Salem, Massachusetts during the witch panic there. The readings said that there were supernatural manifestations going on there, but that also there were false accusations. (As with any subject, the truth is always complicated.)

But I tell you again, I have seen with my own eyes evidence that Freemasons are able to use magic and are in communication with fallen angels.

Now do you understand the real significance of those movies you like; "Harry Potter"? The woman who wrote those books is a known Freemason. She is attempting to get people to embrace her way of thinking as exciting, to develop a fascination for witchcraft so that fans of her books will get involved and seek out how to join Masonic groups, and to favour that lifestyle over traditional reverence for moral ideals and ethics. This is classic subversion; the attempting to transform your enemy so he becomes like you.

My old friend _____ back in America used to be a singer in one of my old bands. Back around 1999, she became enamoured with a Hollywood witchcraft movie, "The Craft". The last time I spoke to her was three years ago. She told me that she had become a witch. She joined a local witch coven and showed me a bunch of pictures of her hanging out with her girlfriends from the coven. They were all constantly wearing black with heavy eye makeup. I was shocked by the egotism and gloating elitism that was plainly evident in the expressions of their faces in every picture. It was an expression I had never seen on her face before. I tried to warn her about Masonic subversion but she would not listen. Yet another of my old friends had chosen the path of egotism and evil. I was so saddened by this that I could not continue to talk with her. She used to be an innocent, if confused young person. Now she is drunken with selfish negativity. It was too awful. I'll never talk to her again because it is too painful.

I know though, that Harry Potter doesn't directly encourage the adoption of the negative evil path. What parents would allow their children to read those books if they did? Freemason movies can make a pretence at morality and ethics, but it is only in order to put forth an immoral idea into public visibility to get people thinking. Then, in the course of the fictional story, the immorality is pointed out. However, the viewer is left mulling over the suggestion that they could partake in self-indulgence or the thrill of having power over others. The presented idea appeals to the viewer's ego even if it is subsequently refuted ethically. It is like taking a bitter pill with a swallow of water. Let me give you an example by way of one of your favourite films:

The film "Frozen", a Disney film, is about a girl who lives her life conforming to what her society expects of her, but she harbours a dissatisfaction in her heart. She has allowed the notion of an inner fantasy to seduce her. To realize her dream, she walks out on her obligations on the grounds that she feels she needs to be free to be the assertive, expressive person who she wants to be. She then proceeds to revel in her fantasy lifestyle. She does this no matter who suffers until an associate of hers points out that she's being selfish. She then relents and accepts her place.

(One wonders why she didn't simply shriek, "Dream Killer!")

The propaganda function of this film is to get young women to feel, true or not, that their dreams are being somehow suppressed by the expectations of mainstream society and that they should stand up and rebel. A young woman who had previously been content might see this subversive movie and would then decide that she should be indulging whatever egoistic fantasy she had dreamed up, thinking that she would be repressing herself otherwise, and she would remain unhappy and unfulfilled if she did not indulge her egoistic desire. The girl might even try to search herself to CREATE a fantasy dream to aspire to so that she could further identify with the main character. That the film has an ostensible moral message at the end is irrelevant. The propaganda function is to make the concept of selfishness in action visible enough for young women to get the idea and WANT to emulate it. This is called subversion. It works on the principle that people generally imitate what they see in movies and on TV. Shinobu, you are presently suffering the effects of subversion in exactly the same way I did when I was tricked by the lyrics of all those rock songs. They fooled me into adopting a selfish lifestyle that was ultimately destructive to my contentment, as evidenced by my repeated attempts to kill myself. At the time, I did not even realize I was being selfish. If someone had suggested it, I would have laughed. Well, it is true that it is impossible to tell someone they are being selfish or egotistical. They will never listen.

A few years ago, you showed me a rock song that you liked, about a woman who "had to be herself no matter what other people think". I forget what it's called; you sang it at karaoke. The video featured a girl that was dressed like a witch. Halfway through the video, the black and white film turns colour when the girl talks about "throwing off her bonds". You really responded to this song for some reason, but this song is subversion as virulent as the songs which corrupted my own heart when I was a young man. Shinobu, you are in danger of being led astray. Yes, perhaps I have been silent too long. However, I just didn't want to alienate you by condemning something you liked.

Everywhere in the Japanese media nowadays I see these subversive messages; Masonic principles packaged and repackaged over and over again as corrupting messages designed to dissolve the integrity of Japanese society.

It pains me to look at Japanese TV and movies because they have become exactly like American TV and Movies; filled with subversion designed to bring about the corruption of mainstream moral values and demolish the contentment of every human being.

As for, "The Colour Purple", I have not seen this movie but based on what I already know about Masonic principles I bet I can deduce the plot; it is about women of the black race who feel they are repressed and discriminated against but go on an emotional quest to find "dignity" and "self-expression" in a world that has marginalized them, right? Again and again in Masonic propaganda, they utilize race and racism as something to exploit. In the masonic manifesto I read, it says, "Racism and antisemitism will be our best friends! It will serve as our propaganda whether it is true or false!" The meaning of this is that Freemasonry seeks to utilize the idea of "the brotherhood of man" and "brotherly love" to help bring about a one-world government. If all people view each other without any differences at all, on what grounds will the citizens of the world object to a one-world government? If there is no religion, this only makes it still easier, right? So the Masonic press, the news media, will use every story of understanding being reached between the races as propaganda. They will also use every story of hate crimes as propaganda. When there are no longer hate crimes to report, they say, they will CREATE hate crimes to report, so long as they can continually drive the message home. When I was a little child in school, we used to have to watch strange propaganda films in class. One of them simply showed a black boy and a white boy. Then the words, "ALL PEOPLE ARE THE SAME" would appear on the screen. Then, a white girl and an Asian girl were shown. Again, the phrase was displayed, "ALL PEOPLE ARE THE SAME". I used to wonder why we were made to watch such a bizarre nonsensical film. Only now, as an adult, do I understand; it was an experiment in Masonic brainwashing; an attempt to try to forcibly instil propaganda concepts in impressionable children's minds. They want us to think that, if all people are the same, and we have no cultural differences such as race or religion, we will all accept the same one-world government. Now Shinobu, it is not that racism is good. Of course, it is evil, but the malign genius of the Masonic system for control of the world is that they utilize concepts that cannot be morally argued against as a weapon. What is good and moral is taken to such liberal extremes that it is transformed into corrosion. It becomes like a crowbar used to work apart the foundation stones of a stable society. They have found tricks to use that they think no one can argue with.

But that is just what I'm doing here.

Shinobu, another of these tricks is the idea of the freedom to be yourself taken to extremes. This is weaponized freedom designed to corrupt society. American society is now so intolerable with corruption that when I first arrived, I was really thankful to be able to come to your country; the Japanese people were so quiet, selfless, and polite. However, more and more I see American-style Masonic corruption misleading people everywhere in your country. I do not want to see your society corrupted. Just last weekend I saw a Japanese man wearing a shirt that said, in English, "To abandon myself to pleasure utterly!" and on the back, it said, "There is no God!" Later I saw another person wearing a shirt that said, "I won't forgive anyone who steals my dream." Another shirt showed a squadron of flying saucers over the earth and the slogan "UNION IS STRENGTH". Again and again I have seen even Japanese children wearing T-shirts with Masonic slogans on them, little knowing that they are being tricked and mocked by people who are attempting to corrupt and destroy their traditional society to pave the way for an amoral one-world government. Now, who is designing these T-shirts? Certainly, it was the Japan Psychoanalytic Society (Nippon Seishin-Bunseki Kyokai). They come up with a lot of subversive concepts which are foisted on the Japanese public.

Below: The forcible, top-down Masonic alteration of Japanese society is pervasive enough that one can even find office clip-art referencing this common problem: company people being obligated to sign and approve documents they know are reprehensible and morally repugnant policies designed to undermine Japan's sovereign nationhood in favour of Masonic globalism... Here Baphomet, the god of the Freemasons, is even depicted quite plainly.

One example is the modern pop culture concept of the "tsundere". Such a bizarre idea did not appear by chance but was artificially designed out of the official perception that, if Freemasonry is trying to make women more argumentative and egotistical, Japanese men are unlikely to welcome such a thing, being up till now generally surrounded with sweet, selfless, supportive women. Thus it was decided to try and convince Japanese men that they WOULD like such a thing. To this end, some propagandist got the idea of combining the cutest, most appealingly innocent girls' hairstyle, (ponytails or "twin tails"), with the personality traits in question; argumentativeness and egocentric self-assertion. The result was the tsundere; "the cute but sassy girl that is feisty and that's why men like her". The generic "tsundere" character was then arbitrarily made a standard inclusion of anime for years. Well, that whole idea is a fiction. Who wants to be with a person who is argumentative and selfish? Nobody! There is nothing as repugnant as selfishness and egotism to a man, particularly if it comes from a woman (and vice versa). No amount of propaganda will convince us otherwise! Traditionally, most men used to know that to raise a family requires a selfless person with a good heart; a woman who finds contentment by joyously endeavouring to bring peace and stable support to her family every day. The converse of this is true too; young women need to realize that boys who are trying really hard to "look cool" (dressing like a hoodlum, pretending to be tough, wearing wild haircuts, riding motorcycles, etc.) are really only suffering from egocentrism and are not good father material for their children. Yes, in recent decades past these types of bad boys would indeed eventually settle down to raise a family, but the usual pattern in a thoroughly subverted culture (such as America today) is that these types of boys get a girl pregnant and then disappear, leaving her to raise the child by herself.

Shinobu, these days, I thank God that in my former life of evil, I never got a girl pregnant!

Anyway, I hope I have given you enough information that by now you are forming a more accurate picture of what is going on in the world. I'm sure you will have questions about this, so whatever you'd like to ask, please go ahead.

A word of caution though: if you choose to do your own research about Freemasonry, the internet is filled with tricks and misdirection; these are traps for the unwary. These seek to confuse you, or misinform you, or lead you down a path of deception so you will reach the wrong conclusions. Hopefully though, I have armed you with enough foreknowledge of the truth that you will now be able to go out into the world and make your own observations that will confirm for you everything I have shared here.

Please print out and save this information because you will probably want to refer to it again someday to confirm something you will have noticed. Also, please feel free to share this information with anyone you want. In fact, please share it with as many people as possible, because traditional Japanese culture is under attack by a perverse enemy unlike anything the country has ever faced before. They are using books, TV, and movies to wage a secret war against not only you and your family but everyone you know and love.

Please help other people defy cultural subversion. It corrupts men, women, and children, and shatters families apart.

One last thing: in the Bible, it says that at the end of everything, there will be 144,000 human souls redeemed from the earth by God to dwell with Him eternally in His city, New Jerusalem.

To be included amongst the 144,000, there are several criteria mentioned for these people to fulfil with their self-control. Shinobu, part of these criteria is overcoming the seductions of the "Synagogue of Satan"; the 144,000 would not take Masonic oaths, nor did their hearts and minds bear his mark, and they refused to worship his illusions when everyone else worshipped them.

Think about what this means and what it implies.

End note

I used to be an atheist for 35 years, but I loved the truth. I thought media-foist atheism was the truth, but something wasn't right and I sensed that I should continue to learn about the world anyway. One day a voice came into my head and said, "Edgar Cayce" so I went and tracked down the Edgar Cayce readings to find out why I should hear this name repeated again and again in my head! What I read utterly floored me; I could tell Edgar Cayce was telling the truth because his truth verified itself as well as so much more. I then had to admit I was wrong. I abandoned my militant atheism because I realized it was just plain incorrect and I had only been clinging to it out of egotism, and so I became a Christian.

The Holy Ghost and Disinformation...

Finally, Edgar Cayce stated that there are indications arising from within the body, little twitches in the stomach or torso, that are actually detectors of truth and moral barometers keyed to our spiritual connection with God. He said almost everyone needs to grasp this and start paying attention to this spiritual 6th sense that God has gifted us with but virtually everyone seems to ignore. These sensations can be a red flag that what you are looking at conceals much beneath the surface.

Edgar Cayce READING 3976-29 [excerpt]:

Then apply in thine own life truth. What is truth? It might have been answered, had an individual entity who stood at the crossways of the world waited for an answer. Yet that soul had purified itself and had given the new commandment that "ye love one another!"

What is it all about then? "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, thine soul, thine mind, thine body, and thy neighbor as thyself." The rest of all the theories which may be concocted by man are nothing, if these are just lived.

Love thy neighbor as thyself in the associations day by day, preferring as did the Christ who died on the cross rather than preferring the world be his without a struggle.

Know, then, that as He had His cross, so have you.

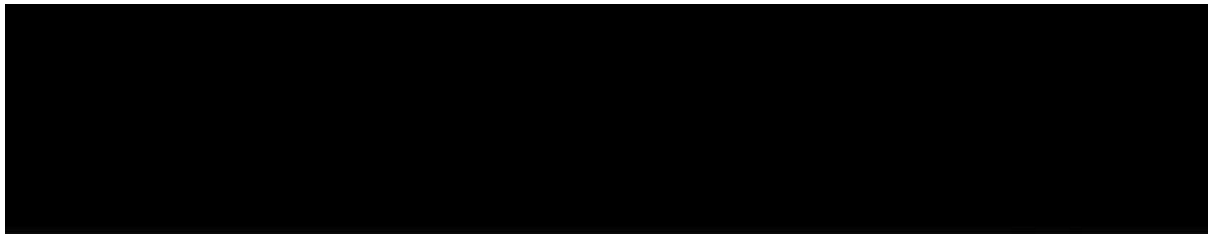

May you take it with a smile.

You can, if ye will let Him bear it with thee.

Do it.

We are through for the present.

Before God and for the benefit of the brethren, I would like to close with the sharing of a prophesy:

Watch for news of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem;
it is about to be destroyed.

In 2017 the Revelation 12 sign prophecy was fulfilled.

In 2018 a prophecy was fulfilled of events foreshadowing the destruction of the Holy Sepulchre; an unprecedented temporary cessation of the daily ceremonies held there.

[Daniel 9:27]

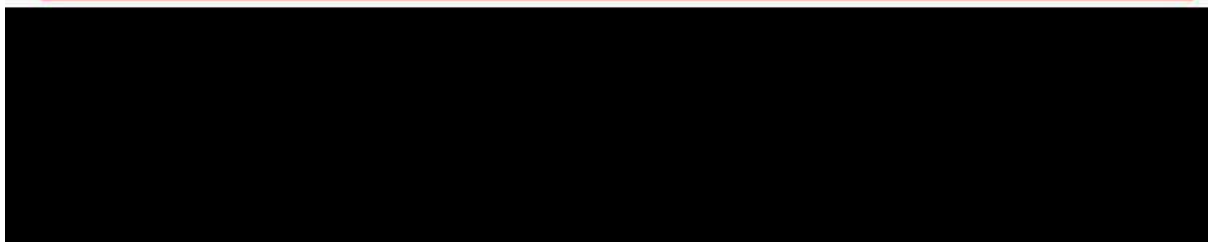

When the Church of the Holy Sepulchre is destroyed, either by Masonic conspirators or in the war erupting in Jerusalem, it is written, the INDIGNATION OF GOD WILL BE COMPLETE.

There are earth changes foretold including floods, earthquakes, sinking lands, and rising seas.

All against the backdrop of a tremendous new world conflict.

[Daniel 9:26]

You are about to find out that God is real.

Q) Has the Holy Sepulchre ever been closed before?

A) Only for one week in 2018 when the tax threat was initially proposed.

In 2018, Christians closed the Church of the Holy Sepulchre — revered by Christians as the site of Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection — to protest a move by Israeli officials to impose taxes on commercial properties in the holy city.

But this
another prophecy:

27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

[Daniel 9:27]

But the taxation attack RESUMED this week.

"Property Taxes will always be our weapon of choice"

- The Protocols of Zion
[a masonic manifesto]

...And during the escalating war in Jerusalem, one of the combatants will
"accidentally"
destroy the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

[Daniel 9:26]

...The people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary;
and the end thereof shall be with a flood,
and unto the end of the war, desolations are determined.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For ^{Russia} nation shall rise against ^{USA} nation, and ^{Russia's allies} kingdom against ^{Masonic countries} kingdom: and there shall be famines, and ^{covid} pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many ^{the media} false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in ^{Palestine} Judaea flee into the mountains:

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

- Jesus Christ

Freemasonry is the "King of the North" mentioned in the Book of Daniel.

{Daniel 11:30} He shall have indignation against the holy covenant [...] he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. {11:31} And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. {11:32} And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries.

{11:36} And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

{11:44} But tidings out of the east [[Russia]] and out of the north [[North Korea]] shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. {11:45} And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain [[The Masonic Temple of Jerusalem]]; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

{12:1} And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. {12:2} And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

What is the holiest place in Christianity?

The holiest place is the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. This church is considered one of the holiest sites in Christianity as it encompasses both the place of Jesus' crucifixion (Calvary or Golgotha) and his empty tomb where he was buried and resurrected. It is located within the Old City of Jerusalem.

Is mass said there every day?

Mass is celebrated daily at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. The church is a major site of worship and pilgrimage, and daily Masses are conducted.

Is sacrifice a part of taking mass?

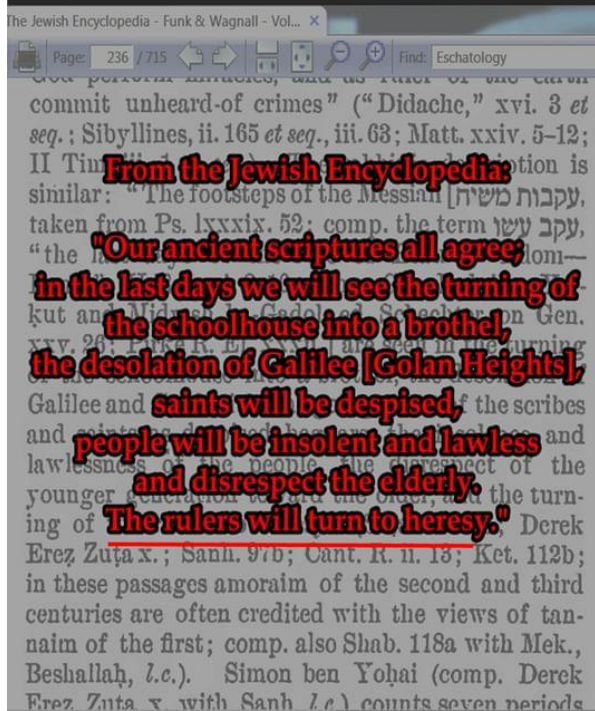

The symbolism of sacrifice is integral to the Catholic Mass. The Catholic Church teaches that the Mass is a re-presentation of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross. During the Mass (also called The Eucharist), the priest consecrates bread and wine, which becomes the Body and Blood of Christ through transubstantiation. This act is understood as a sacrificial offering in which Christ's sacrifice on the cross is made present again.

Heads of churches say Israeli government is demanding they pay property tax, upsetting status quo

JERUSALEM (AP) — Leaders of major churches have accused Israeli authorities of launching a “coordinated attack” on the Christian presence in the Holy Land by initiating tax proceedings against them.

While Israeli officials have tried to dismiss the disagreement as a routine financial matter, the churches say the move upsets a centuries-old status quo and reflects mounting intolerance for the tiny Christian presence in the Holy Land.

In a letter to Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu this week, the heads of the major Christian denominations alleged that four municipalities across Israel had recently submitted warning letters to church officials cautioning them of legal action if they did not pay taxes.

“We believe these efforts represent a coordinated attack on the Christian presence in the Holy Land,” wrote the heads of the Catholic, Greek Orthodox and Armenian Orthodox churches. “In this time, when the whole world, and the Christian world in particular, are constantly following the events in Israel, we find ourselves, once again, dealing with an attempt by authorities to drive the Christian presence out of the Holy Land.”

Christians are a tiny minority, making up less than 2% of the population of Israel and the Palestinian territories. There are 182,000 Christians in Israel, 50,000 in the West Bank and Jerusalem and 1,300 in Gaza, according to the U.S. State Department. The vast majority are Palestinians.

The churches, who are major landowners in the Holy Land, say they do not pay property taxes under longstanding tradition. They say their funds go to services that benefit the state, like schools, hospitals and homes for the elderly.

The letter said the municipalities of Tel Aviv, Ramla, Nazareth and Jerusalem in recent months have all either issued warning letters or commenced legal action for alleged tax debts.

The Jerusalem municipality told The Associated Press that the church had not submitted the necessary requests for tax exemptions over the last few years. It said that “a dialogue is taking place with the churches to collect debts for the commercial properties they own.”

The other municipalities did not immediately comment.

But I will:
THIS HAS THE UNMISTAKABLE STENCH OF THE FREEMASONS' WAR OF HATE AGAINST CHRIST.

In 2018, Christians closed the Church of the Holy Sepulchre — revered by Christians as the site of Jesus’ crucifixion and resurrection — to protest a move by Israeli officials to impose taxes on commercial properties in the holy city.

The Christian leaders argued that the sites — like pilgrim hostels and information centers — served important religious and cultural purposes, and that taxing them would infringe on Christian religious observance in the Holy Land. After the public backlash, Netanyahu quickly suspended the plan.

21:20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

Luke 21:20

Daniel

[12:11] And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. [3 ½ years]

[12:12] Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

Matthew

10:22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. 24:13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. 24:15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) 24:16 Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: 24:17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house: 24:18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

Mark

13:13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. 13:14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains: 13:15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take anything out of his house: 13:16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

13:19 [...] in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be. [...] false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. 13:23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things. 13:24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, 13:25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. 13:26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. 13:27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

13:28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near: 13:29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.
